

Senate Immigration Meeting

January 24, 2011

2:45 p.m. to 5 p.m., 412 Knott Building

Note: Agenda Order is Subject to Change

Topics/Presenters
Lessons Learned/Opportunities to Navigate within Existing Federal-State Framework
Mark Schlakman, senior program director, Center for the Advancement of Human Rights, Florida State University – To speak from his experience while in the Governor Chiles Administration working with the federal government to address state fiscal and other impacts related to significant immigration in-flows at that time.
Overview of Existing Florida Statute Authorizing Employer Penalties (s. 448.09, F.S.)
Michael Ramage, general counsel, Florida Department of Law Enforcement
Organizations with Concerns about Immigration Reform or Favoring Increased Immigrant Rights
Dale Brill, president, Florida Chamber Foundation
Adam Babington, vice president of governmental affairs, Florida Chamber of Commerce
Jose Gonzalez, vice president of governmental affairs, Associated Industries of Florida
Brewster Bevis, vice president of external relations, Associated Industries of Florida
Maria del Rosario Rodriguez, founding executive director, Florida Immigrant Coalition
Organizations Favoring Immigration Reform/Increased Enforcement of Immigration Laws
Jack Martin, director of special projects, Federation for American Immigration Reform (FAIR)
David Caulkett, vice president, Floridians for Immigration Enforcement (FLIMEN)
Jack Oliver, legislative director, Floridians for Immigration Enforcement (FLIMEN)