

An act to incorporate the Alachua Academy was read a third time and passed; ordered that the title be as above.

"An act to authorize George Frederick Hamilton and Louis Schmidt to dispose of real estate and other property by lottery," was read a third time. On the motion to lay said bill on the table, the yeas and nays were called by Messrs. Wright and Marvin, and were, yeas—Mr. President, Messrs. Bailey, Berthelot, Hart, Hawkins, Mills, and Marvin, 7; nays—Messrs. Duval, Dupont, Walker, and Wright, 4. So said bill was laid on the table.

The resolutions in relation to an inquiry into the affairs of the Union Bank, was again read. After some discussion on said resolutions, the Senate adjourned.

THURSDAY, February 14th, 1839.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment and yesterday's proceedings were read.

Mr. Walker gives notice that he will on some future day introduce a bill in relation to roads. Also a bill in relation to fees.

Mr. Dupont, agreeable to previous notice, introduced a bill entitled an act to repeal an act entitled an act to amend an act concerning Dower.

Mr. Hawkins gives notice that he will on to-morrow introduce a bill for the relief of Wm. Kelly.

Mr. Dupont presented the petition of the President and Directors of the Union Bank of Florida, for an amendment of the charter of said bank, with a bill for that purpose, which were read, and 50 printed copies of the bill ordered.

Mr. Marvin, from a select committee to whom was referred the petitions of the inhabitants of Monroe county, of Key Vacas, in Dade county, the depositions of William H. Eldrige, and of John Sickers, respectfully report:

To be inserted No. 6, for which see Appendix.

And a bill entitled "an act to secure the more effectual administration of justice in the Southern Judicial District," which was read and ordered for to-morrow.

Mr. Hart, from the select committee to whom was referred a resolution asking of Congress a pension for Mrs. Jane Mathews, reported a substitute for said resolution, which was received, read and adopted.

The resolutions in relation to the Union Bank were ordered for to-morrow.

A bill entitled an act to incorporate St. Paul's Church, Quincy, Florida, was read a second time, amended and ordered for to-morrow.

The resolution asking an appropriation of Congress for the improvement of the Suwannee and Santa Fe rivers, was postponed until Monday.

An act for the relief of Thomas Ross and others was again read and indefinitely postponed.

An act to divorce Martha P. Blackwell from her husband Jacob A. Blackwell, was read a second time, with the petition of said Martha P. Blackwell, and ordered for Monday.

An act to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the St. Andrews and Chipola Canal Company was again read and ordered for Monday.

A bill to be entitled an act to provide for the appointment of pilots, and to prescribe the rates of pilotage at Tampa Bay, was laid over until Monday.

A resolution to authorize the South-Western Rail Road Bank to establish an agency in Florida, was again read and ordered for Monday, and 100 printed copies ordered.

A bill entitled an act for the appointment of weighers of cotton for the city of Tallahassee and town of St. Marks, was read again and ordered for Monday.

A bill to be entitled an act regulating proceedings before Justices of the Peace, was ordered for Monday.

A resolution passed to adjourn sine die, on 23rd day of Feb., was read and ordered for Monday.

The House sent to the Senate their confirmation of the following nominations of his Excellency, the Governor:

George E. Dennis, John D. Parish, David Brown, Charles B. West, James R. Groen, James F. Trotter, James Stewart, John Isler, and Richard H. Bradford as Justices of the Peace in and for the county of Leon.

William Miller, J. B. Lassiter, William Evans, and Lemuel C. Baines Justices of the Peace in and for the county of Washington: Uz Wood, Justice of the Peace in and for the county of Gadsden.

Also a preamble and resolution in reference to a certain preamble and resolution adopted by the late Convention in relation to certain chartered institutions in this Territory, which was read and written copies ordered.

The Senate went into secret session on certain nominations of his Excellency, the Governor. On motion the doors were opened, and the Senate adjourned until Monday next.

MONDAY, February 18th, 1839.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment and the proceedings of Thursday last were read.

Mr. Mills moved that the act to authorize G. F. Hamilton and Lewis Schmidt to dispose of real estate by lottery, and an act for