

of the resolution of the Senate adopted this morning, to transact no further business after acting upon the resolutions to be reported by the select committee on the subject of the death of Gen. Jackson, the Senate must decline the invitation of the House to meet this evening and canvass the votes for Governor.

The committee retired to perform that duty.

A committee from the House informed the Senate that the House would be ready to canvass the votes for Governor and Representative to Congress, to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Houghton, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25th, 1845.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment, and a quorum being present, yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Houghton, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Walker, McLean and White, was appointed to inform the House that the Senate was ready to meet the House, and count the votes for Governor in the late election.

The committee retired, and after a few minutes, returned and reported that the House would be ready to meet the Senate in 15 minutes.

A committee of the House, consisting of Messrs. Floyd, Brown and Loring, informed the Senate that the House was ready to count the votes for Governor, and that the committee was instructed to conduct the Senate to the Hall of the House of Representatives.

The Senate then proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives, when the Speaker opened and published the returns of election for Governor, in the presence of both Houses, and announced that William D. Moseley, having received the highest number of votes, was Governor of the State of Florida, to serve four years from the 20th day of May last, and until his successor be chosen and qualified.

The Senators then returned to the Senate Chamber.

On motion of Mr. Hawkins, the Senate proceeded to the election of Sergeant-at-Arms and Messenger.

Edward Bolon was duly elected Sergeant-at-Arms, and Wm. S. Dinsmore, Messenger.

The following message was received from the House :

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, June 25, 1845.

To the President of the Senate :

Sir : The House have adopted the enclosed resolution, and have appointed Messrs. Floyd, Smith and Branch, the Committee on the part of the House, therein mentioned.

Respectfully,
M. D. PAPY,
Ch. Clerk Ho. Rep.

Resolved, That a Joint Committee of three on the part of this House and three on the part of the Senate, be appointed to wait forthwith upon William D. Moseley, and inform him that he has been duly and legally elected and declared first Governor of the State of Florida, to serve for four years from the 26th day of May, 1845, and until his successor is chosen and qualified ; and ascertain when and where it will be his pleasure to take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution ; and that such Committee be also authorized to make suitable arrangements for his inauguration into office ; the Committee to make report, if practicable, this morning.

The resolution was unanimously adopted, and Messrs. Hawkins, Center and Bell appointed a committee in pursuance thereof, on the part of the Senate.

The committee retired, and after a short time, and in concurrence with the committee of the House, through Mr. Hawkins, made the following report, which was received :

The joint committee of the Senate and House, appointed to wait on William D. Moseley, Governor elect, &c.,

REPORT :

That they have fulfilled that duty, and the Governor elect has informed them he will take the oath of office on this day, at such place as the General Assembly may direct. And that the committee having ascertained that the citizens of Florida, residing at this city, and in its vicinity, have appointed a committee and made arrangements for the inauguration of the Governor elect, subject to the control of the General Assembly, report that the said arrangements be concurred in, and that a committee of the two Houses be appointed to act with said committee of citizens to effect the same. And they report a copy of the Programm of the arrangements, in which they request the concurrence of the two Houses.

And they report that the chairman of the Committee of Arrangements of the citizens presented the Governor elect and your committee, with a Stand of Colors for the State, which is now presented to the Legislature, the same being approved by the Governor elect. The committee report the following resolution :

Resolved by the General Assembly, That the Colors now presented be the Colors of the State of Florida till changed by law, and that the same be placed over the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Hawkins moved the adoption of the resolution, but it being decided to be a resolution of a public nature, was considered as read a first time.

The committee then retired to report to the House.

The following messages were received from the House and read :
