Resolution to obtain the sense of the People of West Florida in regard to annexation to Alabama.

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Alabama have expressed a desire for the annexation of West Florida to that State, as a part thereof, and whereas, this General Assembly is desirous of obtaining the sense of the people of West Florida on the subject, before any action is taken in reference to said proposition for annexation; therefore Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Florida in General Assembly convened, That at the next election for Representative to Congress from this State, the Governor shall by proclamation, direct that in the counties lying West of the Apalachicola River, a vote shall be taken for or against annexation to Alabama, and that the sense of the voter shall be expressed by his adding to his ballot "annexation" or "no annexation" as the case may be; and that the Judges of Probate in their returns to the Secretary of State, shall certify the number of votes for "annexation," and the number for "no annexation," cast in their respective counties.

Which was read and adopted.

Resolution in relation to Buoys on the Bar of St. Andrews Bay.

Whereas, St. Andrews Bay, in this State, is becoming an important commercial point; and, whereas it is the interest of commerce that the entrance to St. Andrews Bay should be designated by placing buoys at proper and suitable points, and that the channel should be properly marked out; and whereas the depth of water over the bar of said bay being sufficient for vessels of a large class, gives assurance that at no distant day a large and valuable commerce will be carried on at St. Andrews—Therefore,

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State

Florida in General Assembly convened, That our Senators in Congress be instructed and our Representative requested to induce the proper department of the Federal Government to mark out the channel of the entrance to St. Andrews Bay, by fixing, at an early day, buoys at such points of said entrance as may be deemed most beneficial to commerce, and that the Governor be requested to furnish a copy of this preamble and resolution to each of our Senators and Representative in Congress.
