PENSACOLA, Fla., January 11, 1870.
To the Legislature of the State of Florida :

The undersigned, merchants of the city of Pensacola, respectfully recommend a change in the Pilot law, and suggest the following alteration in section 10 of An Act, approved August 3, 1868 :

Section 10 reads, "That all vessels entering any port of this State, leaving the same, shall be subject to, and pay the pilot performing duty on board his fees, at the same rate or rates that are now paid in said port or ports, where he may hold a license, excepting steamers or vessels carrying the United States mails, and having on board their own pilots, which shall, after this Act, be exempt from paying the half rates of pilotage to which they are now subject; also all sailing vessels having a coasting license."

The present rates of pilotage are

10 feet and less,	$3.50 per foot
More than, - - - - - 10 " to 12 feet	$4 " "
" " - - - - - 12 " to 14 "	$4.50 " "
" " - - - - - 14 "	$6 " "

We suggest to strike out of section 10, "at the same rate or rates that are now paid in said port or ports," and insert "for vessels drawing, - - - - - 8 feet or less, $2 per foot
" " over, - - - - - 8 " to 10 feet $3 " "
" " " - - - - - 10 " to 14 " $4 " "
" " " - - - - - 14 " to 20 " $5 " "
" " " - - - - - 20 " " $6 " "

And strike out "excepting steamers or other vessels carrying the United States mails, and having on board their own pilots, which shall after the passage of this act, be exempt from paying the half rates of pilotage, to which they are now subject; also all sailing vessels having a coasting license," and insert "excepting vessels carrying the United States mails; and also all vessels drawing less than eight (8) feet water and having a coasting license, which shall be exempt from paying whole or half pilotage, unless they employ a pilot.
