SENATE CHAMBER,
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., February 3, 1870. }

Your committee, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 69, providing for the relief of John M. Pons, of Duval County, have examined the said bill, and also the laws referring to the subject matter embraced therein.

We find that the warrants enumerated in the bill were made null and void by the following ordinance, passed by the Constitutional Convention, which assembled in Tallahassee on the 25th day of October, 1865, to wit:

"That all State Treasury notes issued, and all other liabilities contracted by the State of Florida, on or after the 10th day January, A. D. 1860, to the 25th day of October, 1865, except such liabilities as may be due to the Seminary and School Funds, and such other liabilities as are provided for by this Constitution be, and are hereby, declared void; and the General Assembly shall have no power to provide for the payment of the same, or any part thereof."

Again, in the Constitution of 1868, Article XV., section 2, we find a virtual re-enactment of the foregoing ordinance, to wit:

"That all acts and resolutions of the General Assembly, and all the official acts of the civil offices of the State not inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution and statutes of the United States, or with this Constitution, and the ordinances of this Convention, (XXX., &c.) are in force, and shall be considered and esteemed as laws of this State until they shall be repealed by the Legislature of the State, or this Convention."

Here we see that the passage of the bill in question would not only be establishing a ruinous precedent for others who may have nullified claims of a similar character, but the act would be strictly an illegal, if not in fact an unconstitutional one.

We therefore emphatically recommend the indefinite postponement of the bill, Senate Bill No. 89.

W. T. WEEKS,
J. T. WALLS,
JNO. L. CRAWFORD.
