

JOURNAL

Of the Senate of the State of Florida, at an Extraordinary session of the Legislature, convened at the Capitol, in Tallahassee, the 22d day of April, A. D. 1872, at 12 o'clock meridian, under and by virtue of the following proclamation of His Excellency Samuel T. Day, Acting Governor of the State of Florida:

WHEREAS, The interests of the people of this State require the immediate assembling of the Legislature:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SAMUEL T. DAY, Lieutenant-Governor, and, by virtue of said office, Acting Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby issue this my proclamation, convening the Legislature in Extraordinary Session at Tallahassee, the Capitol, on Monday, the 22d day of April, A. D., 1872, at twelve meridian, at which time, in pursuance of the requirements of the Constitution, I will communicate to both branches of the Legislature the purpose for which they have been convened.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and in lieu of affixing the great seal of the State, hereby proclaim that the same has been secreted or stolen.

Done at the Capitol, in Tallahassee, Florida, this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-sixth.

SAMUEL T. DAY,
Acting Governor.

The Senate met.

On motion of Mr. Purman, the Senate was called to order.

The Sergeant-at-arms read the proclamation of Acting Governor Day, convening the Legislature.

The roll was called, and the following Senators answered to their names:

Messrs. Hill and Purman—2.

The Sergeant-at-arms announced that there was not a quorum present.

On motion of Mr. Purman, the Senate adjourned.
