Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., May 17, 1901.

Hon. Thomas Palmer,

President of the Senate:

The Joint Committee appointed under Concurrent Resolution of May 4th, 1901, to take into consideration the matter of relief of the sufferers from the fire in the City of Jacksonville, Florida, on May 3d, 1901, beg to submit the following report:

That the Committee joined the Governor in a visit to the City of Jacksonville, that they might the better know the situation existing; that they met the Relief Association at two of its sessions and ascertained that the reports of the sad conditions prevailing were in no way overdrawn and thousands were yet dependent upon public contributions for food and clothing.

That the Committee also conferred with the Relief Association, the military commanders, the city officials and prominent citizens and all were unanimous in the opinion that the placing of the city under martial law was most fortunate in its results and that it should remain until in the opinion of the Relief Association, the military commanders and the Governor the troops could be withdrawn without danger to the good order and peace of the city. In this opinion your committee fully concur.

The burning of the County Records of Duval County as well as other results of the fire make it necessary that remedial legislation shall be enacted to meet the emergency and the committee were informed that a committee of the bar of Jacksonville would aid the representatives of the county in the Legislature in preparing such legislation as was decided necessary.

F. W. SAMS, Chairman,
ARTHUR T. WILLIAMS.

On part of Senate.
