By permission—

Mr. Raney, Chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 4, 1905.

Hon. Park M. Trammell,

President of the Senate:

SIR—Your Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred the matter of the alleged vacancy in the Senatorship from the 20th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Marion and Sumter, occasioned by the alleged change of residence of the Honorable C. M.

Brown, now sitting as Senator, from said District, and thee claim by the Honorable J. G. Baskin of a right to a seat in the Senate under a special election held on the 28th day of March last under a proclamation issued by the Governor on the 20th day of February last, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the alleged removal of said C. M. Brown, have the honor to report as follows:

The contestant, J. G. Baskin, and the contestee, C. M. Brown, appeared before your Committee with their respective attorneys, and witnesses were examined and their testimony reduced to writing, and documentary evidence was also submitted by them to the Committee, and arguments by their respective attorneys were heard, and your committee herewith submits all such evidence and the written arguments filed with it.

The evidence shows that Marion county had been the domicile and home of the contestee since 1847, and that in the year 1898 he began a general merchandise business in the City of Ocala in that county; and that in September, 1904, he sold out such business and he and his wife left Ocala and went to Miami in Dade county, Florida, which is in the 13th Senatorial District. During the continuance of such business in Ocala up to December, 1902, he and his wife boarded at a hotel in Ocala, having previously sold his home, but in December, 1902, they moved to the upper story of the building in which he carried on his merchandise business, and there he and his wife lived and kept house until they went to Miami. In moving to Miami they took with them their household effects and he did not retain any possessory or other interest in the building or in any other property in the 20th District. The fact of bodily removal from Ocala to Miami of himself and wife, who constituted his family, is, upon the evidence, complete and unquestionable. A change of political or, as it is sometimes called, municipal domicile, involves not only the act of such removal, but an intention to change the domicile or home from the place moved from to that moved to, is an essential element of such change. Our Constitution provides in section 6 of Art. III that: "The seat of a member of either House shall be vacated on his permanent change of residence from the District or county from which he was elected;" and unless the evidence establishes an intention upon the part of the contestee to make a permanent change from the 20th Senatorial District, no vacancy has existed since the election of the contestee as Senator from such District in November, 1902. Witnesses other than the contestee testify to expressions made by him at the time of his selling out his business and moving away that clearly indicate an intention to permanently change his residence from Ocala to Miami. We are aware that he denies or does not admit having made such statements; but considering his testimony before the Committee and the written communication emanating from him, it seems clear to us that he has not, at least since his letter of October 27, 1904, which appeared in the Miami Metropolis, had any present intention of returning to Ocala, or the 20th Senatorial District, to reside. It is obvious from his testimony before the Committee that his return there to reside has been dependent upon the happening of contingencies which were necessary to create an intention to either leave Miami or return to Ocala, and unless such contingencies should arise there could never be an intention to return to Ocala or to leave Miami. An intention to return dependent upon a future contingency for its existence is not a present or existing intention, and it results that the contestee was living at Miami with the intention of remaining there unless and until something should occur which would create an intention to leave that place and return to Ocala, or go elsewhere. It seems to the Committee that the contestee has been under the conviction that the law would permit him to retain his political or municipal citizenship in Ocala and the 20th Senatorial District, notwithstanding he had an intention of abiding bodily at Miami until some contingency should happen which would cause him to determine to return to Ocala, or the 20th Senatorial District, to live, but in our judgment this position is not tenable in law.

The Committee, for the reasons given above, are of the opinion that the contestee had permanently removed his residence from the 20th Senatorial District to Miami in the 13th District prior to the proclamation of the Governor calling a special election to fill the vacancy in the Senatorship from the 20th District, and that there was such a vacancy at the time of the issue of such proclamation and on the 28th day of March last when the election was held.

The certificate of election presented by the contestant is prima facie evidence of the fact of such election, of its validity and of the right of the contestant to a seat in the Senate as representing the 20th Senatorial District. The office having been vacant at the time of the issuance of the proclamation and of the election, it becomes our duty to recommend that the contestee be unseated and the contestant be seated as the Senator from the 20th Senatorial District.

We recommend that evidence accompanying this report be printed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. P. RANEY, Chairman,
W. A. BLOUNT,
C. L. WILSON,
E. S. CRILL,
J. H. HUMPHRIES.

The oath of office was administered by Mr. Justice Carter, of the Supreme Court of Florida, and Mr. Baskin entered upon his duties.
