MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following message from the House of Representatives was read:

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., April 30, 1909.

Hon. F. M. Hudson,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

House Memorial No. 1:

A memorial to the Congress of the United States requesting an appropriation for the purpose of working the public roads in the State of Florida.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate thereto.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,

Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

And House Memorial No. 1, contained in the above message, was read the first time by its title and

The following message from the House of Representatives was read:

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., April 30, 1909.

Hon. F. M. Hudson,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has indefinitely postponed—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5:

Be it Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring:

That a committee of three, one on the part of the Senate and two on the part of the House, be appointed to visit the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, at St. Augustine.

Also indefinitely postponed—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7:

Whereas, The school interests of the State are greatly embarrassed because of the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State having declared as unconstitutional the law of 1907, providing State aid for common and high schools of the State; and

Whereas, School officers of many counties, relying on the State to comply with the provisions of this Act, which they were morally and legally bound to do, borrowed money with which to pay teachers until such time as the State should be able to return the same; and

Whereas, Many school teachers of the State, who performed well and faithfully their duties, relying on the pledge of the State for their money, have not been paid, are needing their money; and

Whereas, The State cannot afford to break faith with its citizens because of a legal mistake by lawmaking body; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of five, two from the Senate and three from the House, be appointed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House, respectively, to make careful investigation by conferring with State officials and, if possible, devise some plan by which the situation may be relieved, and report to the Legislature at as early a date as possible.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.
