The Clerk of the Supreme Court receives no compensation whatever for the services required of him by Chapter 5899, Acts of 1909, nor for the services required of him by Chapter 6497, Acts of 1913.

All compensation received by the Clerk is in pursuance of law. See Section 1755, Gen. Stats., 1906, and the statutes cited above.

The receipts of the Clerk's office during 1919 and 1920 were slightly more than twenty per cent. larger than were the receipts for the years 1917 and 1918. This was due largely to the fact that in 1919 and 1920 the Court made very substantial progress towards catching up with its work, by deciding an unusually large number of cases. When the Legislature convened in 1919 there were 352 cases on the docket of the Supreme Court. When the Legislature convened in 1921 there were 175 cases on the docket. During the two years the Court worked off most of the accumulated business and kept up with the new cases coming in. The Clerk's receipts were therefore greater than usual.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court is required by law to personally pay for any and all deputies or clerical assistants employed in conducting the work of his office. No appropriation whatever is made by the State, directly or indirectly, to pay for any help employed by or used by the Clerk. No person employed by the State to work for the Court or for the Judges of the Court, or in any other capacity, has anything whatever to do with discharging the work incumbent on the Clerk's office, and no such person has ever devoted one minute to the Clerk's work. The Clerk's office is open and transacts business every week day of the year.

The volume of work disposed of in the Clerk's office is very heavy. The nature of the work is such that it must be done with the utmost accuracy and with trained intelligence.

The Clerk is under bond both as Clerk and as Librarian.

G. T. WHITFIELD,
Clerk Supreme Court, State of Florida.

State of Florida,
County of Leon.

Before me personally appeared G. T. Whitfield, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Florida, who, being duly sworn, says that the facts stated in the foregoing statement are true.

G. T. WHITFIELD,

Sworn to and subscribed before me
