And House Bill No. 630, contained in the above message, was read the first time by its title.

Mr. Stokes moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 630 be read a second time by its title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 630 was read a second time by its title only.

Mr. Stokes of the Second District offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 630:

Strike out Section 2 of the bill, and in lieu thereof insert the following:

"Section 2. That this Act shall become effective whenever a majority of the qualified electors voting at a special election in Escambia County, Florida, shall vote in favor of making this Act effective. That such election shall be called and held whenever a petition shall be presented to the Board of County Commissioners of Escambia County, Florida, signed by at least twenty-five per cent. of the qualified electors of said county petitioning that such election be called and held. That upon the filing of such petition with the Board of County Commissioners of said county, it shall be the duty of said board to call and hold such election, and to pay out of the county funds the expense of calling and holding same, and such election shall be called and held and returns thereof made and the result declared in the same manner as is now provided by law for holding general elections in said county. And such board shall give notice of such election prior to holding the same by publishing such notice in two newspapers published in said county for at least once each week for four weeks prior to holding such election. That all persons qualified by the laws of the State of Florida to vote at any general election in Escambia County, Florida, shall be qualified to vote at such special election. And if a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of making this Act effective, the same shall become effective from the time the returning board shall declare that a majority of such voters have voted in favor of making the same effective."

Mr. Stokes moved the amendment be adopted.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Stokes offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 630:

At the end of the title insert the following: "and to provide for an election to determine when this Act shall become effective."

Mr. Stokes moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Stokes moved that the rules be further waived and that House Bill No. 630, as amended, be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 630, as amended, was read a third time in full.

Upon call of the roll on the passage of the bill the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Messrs. Bradshaw, Butler, Calkins, Campbell, Crosby, Eaton, Epperson, Hulley, Igou, Johnson, Knight, Lindsey, Lowry, Mapoles, Overstreet, Plympton, Roland, Russell, Shelley, Stokes, Taylor, Turnbull, Weaver, Wells, Wilson—26.

Also—

(House Bill No. 756):

An Act relating to the traffic and prohibiting the use of certain vehicles over or upon improved roads and highways of Hernando County, Florida, and providing that certain persons operating vehicles upon said improved roads and highways repair the same, and defining the term "improved roads and highways" and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

Also—

(House Concurrent Resolution No. 13):

Whereas, the wild life of Florida is being rapidly destroyed; and, whereas, it is of great importance to the citizenship of the State of Florida that the wild life, animals and fowls of this State should be zealously conserved, etc.

Have carefully examined the same and find them correctly enrolled.

The same having been duly signed by the Speaker and Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, we herewith present the same for the signatures of the President and Secretary of the Senate.

Very respectfully,

O. M. EATON,

Chairman of the Joint Committee on the Part of the Senate.

The bills and resolution, contained in the above report, were duly signed by the President and the Secretary of the Senate in open session and ordered referred to the Chairman of the Joint Committee on the part of the Senate, to be conveyed to the Governor for his approval.

Mr. Shelley moved that Senate Bill No. 432 be taken up out of its order and now considered.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And—

Senate Bill No. 432:

A bill to be entitled An Act to create certain territory in Washington County, Florida, into a special road and bridge district, and to authorize and validate the building and construction of certain roads, culverts and bridges therein, and to provide for the issuance of bonds to pay therefor and for the levy of a tax to pay the interest on and to redeem said bonds, and for the appointment and election of a board of bond trustees, and to invest said trustees with certain powers and duties, and to provide for the use and control of the general road and other funds collected within said territory for road purposes; to provide for paying over to the Town of Chipley, Florida, certain of the proceeds of said bonds and other funds for the improvement and construction of its roads and streets; and providing for an election to determine whether certain provisions shall become effective.

Was taken up and read a second time in full, together with House Amendment thereto.

Which was read as follows:

Strike out Section 20 and insert in lieu thereof the following: "The foregoing provisions contained in Sections

1 to 19, both inclusive, of this Act, shall become effective only upon approval of sixty per cent. (60%) of the qualified voters who pay taxes on real or personal property, in said road and bridge district. Provided all persons shall be considered qualified voters who were qualified voters in such district at the time of the general election held in November, 1920, or who have thereafter qualified to vote in said district prior to the bond election. Said election shall be held July 19, 1921."

Mr. Shelley moved that the Senate do not concur in House Amendment No. 432.

Which was agreed to.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And the Bills were placed on the Calendar of Bills on the second reading without reference.

Mr. Eaton moved that the Senate do reconsider the vote by which it passed House Bill No. 851.

Mr. Eaton moved to waive the rules, and that the motion to reconsider the said vote be now taken up and considered by the Senate.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

The question was put upon the motion to reconsider its action.

The Senate reconsidered its action, and House Bill No. 851 was again placed before the Senate.

Mr. Eaton moved to waive the rules and place House Bill No. 851 back upon the second reading for the purpose of amending the same.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 851 was taken up on its second reading for amendment.

Mr. Eaton offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 851:

Strike out all of Section 1 of Article XI and insert in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE XI.

Section 1. Whenever the owners of any lands in the town of Frost Proof, Polk County, Florida, which may be, from distance or other cause, virtually or commensurately excluded from the benefit of such municipal organization, it shall be lawful for the owners of such lands or three-fourths of them who may desire to have the said lands excluded from said municipal corporation and jurisdiction, to apply by petition to the Circuit Court in and for said county, setting forth in such petition the limits of such area which they may desire to have so extended from the corporate limits of said town, and the grounds of his or their objection to being included within the limits of said municipal corporation; whereupon the Circuit Court shall order notice of said application to be served upon the Mayor of said town and appoint a day for the hearing of such application. If upon the hearing of said application the said court shall sustain the said objection, the said tract or tracts of land shall be excluded. Such petition may be heard and determined by said court in term time or vacation, and any question of fact may be determined by said court without a jury. Provided, that nothing in this Act shall be held or construed as depriving said Circuit Court of the right to finally determine and adjudicate the rights of parties who have heretofore applied by petition to said court to have any tract or tracts of land excluded from the corporate limits of said town, and any such matter now pending in said court may proceed to final hearing in a determination as though this Act had not been passed.

Mr. Eaton moved that the amendment be adopted.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Eaton moved that the rules be further waived and that House Bill No. 851, as amended, be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 851, as amended, was read a third time in full.

Mr. Taylor offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 557:

“Strike out all after Section 5 and insert the following: Section 6. That at any time before January 1st, 1922, and after the passage of this Act the County Commissioners of Hillsborough County may upon their own motion, and shall, upon the petition of twenty-five per cent. (25%) of the duly qualified voters of the territory hereinbefore described in Section 1 of this Act, call and provide for an election, upon the question of allowing live stock to run or roam at large in said described territory. The said Board of County Commissioners shall call such elections to be held within forty days after the recording of their own motion, or within forty days after receipt of said petition, giving thirty days' notice thereof by publication in a newspaper published in said county, such election to be conducted and the canvass of the votes certified to and returned, and the canvass of returns made in the manner and within the time prescribed for general elections, including the qualifications of voters, except that the returns shall be delivered to the Chairman and Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners instead of the Supervisor of Registration and the County Judge, and that the Board of County Commissioners shall canvass the returns and declare the result, and cause the same to be recorded in their minutes.

“Section 7. That if at such election three-fifths of the votes cast shall be in favor of prohibiting live stock from running or roaming at large in said described territory, such prohibition shall become effective ninety (90) days after the date of such election.

“Section 8. This Act shall become effective upon its passage and its ratification as hereinbefore set forth.”
