Mr. Phillips, Chairman of the Conference Committee on Senate and House Disagreement on Amendments to House Bill No. 114, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Florida, May 22, 1923.

Hon. T. T. Turnbull,

Sir:

Your Conference Committee, to whom was referred—
House Bill No. 114:

A bill to be entitled An Act to repeal Chapter 7626, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1917, entitled "An Act to abolish the present municipal government of the town of Blountstown, in Calhoun County, Florida, and to establish, organize and incorporate a city and municipality to be known and designated as the City of Blountstown; to define the territorial boundaries of such city; to provide for its jurisdiction, powers and privileges and to organize, create and incorporate a city and municipality to be known and designated as the City of Blountstown; to define the territorial boundaries and area of such city; to provide for the powers, privileges and jurisdiction to be exercised by such city; to provide for election of officers, the term of office and the compensation to be paid to officers of such city; to authorize such city to exercise the powers of eminent domain; to fix and collect revenue and to grant to such city, other powers conferred upon municipal corporations under the Laws of the State of Florida.

Recommend the following amendments to the bill:

After Section 34 add the following:

That the Tax Collector of the City of Blountstown, Florida, is hereby required immediately after the date of the closing of the tax books for any tax year of the city, to give notice by publication in a newspaper at least thirty days that if such delinquent taxes are not paid within six months from date hereof that the City Council would foreclose such tax lien against such delinquent taxes, and further that such delinquent tax payer be required to pay one per cent per month on such delinquent taxes. The Mayor and City Council shall at a meeting designated by them set out and prepare a budget for the expenditures of said city, and that such budget as prepared and set out shall be advertised, and after such advertisement the City Council shall meet and adopt such budget for the fiscal year, and that a levy of taxes shall be made to meet such itemized expenditure or budget so set out, and that no more shall be levied and assessed than is necessary to carry on the expenses of said city.

After Section 39 add the following:

Section 39 A. The foregoing provisions in this Act shall be effective only upon approval of a majority of the qualified voters of said city of Blountstown, Florida, who pay taxes on real or personal property in said City of Blountstown, Florida, providing all persons shall be considered qualified voters who were qualified to vote in the said City of Blountstown, Florida, at the time of the last city election, or who have thereafter qualified to vote in said City of Blountstown, Florida.

Section 39 B. The special election provided for in Section 39 A of this Act shall be held on the 28th day of May, 1923, and the City Council and City Officials of the City of Blountstown, Florida, shall discharge such duties in connection with the calling and holding of said election as are now required of them by law for special election, and the said election shall be governed in all respects by law for holding special elections.
