Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

House Concurrent Resolution No. 20:

Whereas, The growing of cotton has heretofore been a profitable farm crop in a large portion of Florida; and

Whereas, The ravages of the boll weevil have resulted in a reduction of a crop of 81,000 bales in 1914 to a total of only 25,000 bales in 1922 and the abandonment of several thousand acres of farm lands in the State; and

Whereas, Investigation made by the State Plant Board of Florida during the year 1922 developed a method of control effective and practical, enabling farmers to produce about ninety per cent of a normal crop; and

Whereas, The progress already made by the State Plant Board of Florida in improving the methods of boll weevil control has been acclaimed and recognized throughout the United States as one of the significant achievements of science during recent years, and will be of incalculable benefit not only to our own country, but to the producer of cotton throughout the world; and

Whereas, The necessity for the safe production of this valuable product was never so apparent and the interest therein never more intense. And while the method developed in one season of experimental work was so effective, it is comparatively crude, and can be greatly improved; and

Whereas, There is urgent need for further development, not only in boll weevil control but as to other injurious insects and diseases; and

Whereas, The discoveries of the Florida State Plant Board are of such extraordinary note that the United States Department of Agriculture has endorsed said method as being practical and of great benefit; and

Whereas, It is the policy of our General Government to assist in the development of the agricultural interests in every way possible; and

Whereas, The Legislature of 1923 has made an appropriation for specific purposes as above stated:

Therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate concurring.

That our Senators and Representatives in Congress be and are hereby earnestly requested to use all honorable means in further securing and enlisting the co-operation of the United States Department of Agriculture, through their employeés in this State, with the Plant Board and Experimental Station, financially and otherwise, with special reference to boll weevil conditions.

Resolved Further, That the Secretary of State be and is hereby requested to furnish each of our Representatives in Congress with a copy of this Memorial, under the great Seal of the State of Florida.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate thereto.

Very respectfully,

B. A. MEGINNISS,

Mr. Malone offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 25:

Whereas, on the 6th day of March, A. D. 1923, death claimed the Hon. W. Hunt Harris, of Key West, Florida; and

Whereas, he rendered valuable service to the State of Florida as a member of its House of Representatives and of the Senate; and

Whereas, it is right, meet and proper that the record of the lives of Florida's distinguished sons should be preserved in the archives of the State. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, that these preambles and this resolution, with the following sketch of his life's work, his character and career, be spread upon the Journals of the Senate, as a perpetual testimonial of the esteem and appreciation of the members of this Senate, of which he was for eight years a distinguished member.

Judge Harris was born in Pt. Coupee Parish, Louisiana, fifty-three years ago. He went to Key West when seventeen years of age, where he resided until his death.

He was admitted to practice law in 1891, when he was twenty-one years of age, and was at once appointed Police Judge of Key West, which position he held for six years.

He was elected to the Florida House of Representatives in 1894 and served two terms. He was then elected to the Senate, where he served two terms, and was President of the Senate from 1907 to 1909.

He was appointed Judge of the Criminal Court of Record of Monroe County in 1911 to succeed Judge Livingston W. Bethel, who was appointed Circuit Judge, and held the office continuously until his death.

At the time of his death and for many years before he was a member of the Vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Key West.

He married Miss Minnie Louise Porter, the eldest daughter of Dr. Joseph Y. Porter, who was State Health Officer of Florida for twenty-eight years. His widow and two children, Miss Minnie Porter Harris and Curry Harris, survive him.

Judge Harris was a man of unusual qualities. He was an aggressive fighter, yet always ready to extend his hand in friendship to an opponent, and when he did so all memory of past unpleasantness was obliterated. He was generous, open-hearted and impulsive. He was quick to resent a wrong, but equally quick to acknowledge a wrong on his part and make amends.

As a lawyer, he was extremely industrious, and business entrusted to his care was never slighted, overlooked or neglected.

In manners, he was cordial and courteous. His hospitality was unbounded; his family relations most exemplary.

In politics he was opposed to all radicalism, and as a citizen he stood for what was best, judged by the standards of the old South.

In every walk of life he was a true type of the old time Southern gentleman.

During his long career on the Bench, he won and retained the respect and confidence of all.

The State has lost one of its approved citizens; the judiciary one of its best members, and the bar one of its ablest and most ethical followers, and the legislative department, one of its wisest counsellors.

Resolved, that one engrossed copy of this Resolution be sent to the widow of Hon. W. Hunt Harris, by the Secretary of the Senate.
