"MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTA-TIVES.

The following message from the House of Representatives was received:

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., May 8, 1925.

Hon. John S. Taylor,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—
(House Bill No. 725):

An Act authorizing and empowering the Board of County Commissioners of Okeechobee County, Florida, by resolution to issue and sell negotiable interest-bearing bonds, bearing six per cent (6%) interest per annum, payable semi-annually, in such form, date of maturity and time and place or places of payment as the said Board of County Commissioners may adopt, in the sum of $160,000.00 the proceeds of which to be used in re-surfacing, widening, repairing and reconstructing what is known as the Parrott Avenue Road in Okeechobee County, Florida, from the city limits of the City of Okeechobee, Florida, south to the shores of Lake Okeechobee; and also for repairing and reconstructing the bridges and culverts on said road or any part of it; for building new bridges or new culverts in the place of any bridges or culverts on said road, or any of them, or for doing all or any part of such work upon said road; and for the purpose of grading, paving, widening, and repairing that part of the old Dixie Highway in Okeechobee County, Florida, beginning on west side of Parrott Avenue on south boundary Section 21, Township 37 south, Range 35 east, and run thence west along section line for three miles to range line dividing Ranges 34 and 35; and also for laying or constructing bridges and culverts on said road, or any part of it; and for the purpose of grading and paving that part of the road extending from the old Dixie Highway, north on range line dividing Ranges 34 and 35 for a distance of one mile to State Road No. Eight; also for building bridges and culverts on said road or any part of it; and for the purpose of grading, widening, repairing and paving what is known as the Bassenger road in Okeechobee County, Florida, extending from the City of Okeechobee, Okeechobee County, Florida, for a distance of eighteen (18) miles to the settlement known as Bassenger; also for repairing and reconstructing the bridges and culverts on said road, or any part of it; for building new bridges or new culverts in the place of any bridges or culverts on said road, or any of them, or for doing all or any part of such work upon said road; and for levy, assessment and collection of taxes to create a sinking fund for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds, and to provide for the sale and retirement of same; naming depositories for moneys derived from sale of said bonds and from taxes for sinking fund for retirement of said bonds.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate thereto.

Very respectfully,

B. A. MEGINNISS,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 725, contained in the above message, was read the first time by its title and was placed on the Calendar of Local Bills without reference under the rule.

The history shows that this bill (House Bill No. 725) came to the Senate without an accompanying message. According to the Bill Secretary's entry the bill was read the first time on May 8 and was referred as above. The bill was taken up as the Journal shows on pages 1330 and 1331 was read the second time—the rule being waived by a two-thirds vote it was read the third time, was put upon its passage and was passed by the Senate. The Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives has made out the foregoing message duly signed by himself and has placed said message in the hands of the Secretary to cover the omission of the message, a clerical omission—therefore, the Secretary, knowing it to be a clerical omission, offers it in this errata sheet.
