Tallahassee, Fla., Nov. 23, 1925.

*Hon. John S. Taylor,
President of the Senate.
Capitol:*

Dear Mr. Taylor—

In the proceedings of the Senate of Saturday, I notice that the Committee on Legislative Expense was ordered to examine the State printing contract. I want to say that, in case it should be necessary at any time, my books are also at the service of this or any other committee of either the House or the Senate.

The condition of affairs is this: The State's contract with me expired in October, but I hold over until my successor is named. Things have been so busy around the capitol, among the officials, that there doesn't seem to have been any time to get to it. So that, while wages, &c., are higher than when former contract was entered into, we have, under a tentative agreement, worked under the old contract, which, under a "gentleman's agreement," continues.

You will note, under this continuing contract, that the minimum number of Daily Journals is 500 copies. We see no reason why the Senate (inadvertantly) should break this. Also, during the last five days of a session, the agreement to deliver Journals does not hold good, but they are delivered as soon as possible.

As to Saturday's Journal (copy for which was furnished us late Sunday afternoon), we were getting along nicely on it, and expected to deliver this morning, when one of our linotypes broke down, and this will prevent delivery before this afternoon (Monday). The Calendar, though, has been delivered.

Permit me to congratulate the Senate (and the House as well) on the wonderful speed shown in expediting work. Forty years' experience before Florida Legislatures has shown this to be the most wonderful working body I have ever known.

Regretting the accident to the machinery spoiled my reputation for promptness on this occasion, I am

Yours, very truly,

T. J. APPELYARD.

The Senate reconsidered its action.

The roll call was called upon the passage of House Bill No. 31, as amended, and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Butler, Calkins, Clark, Colson, Edge, Etheredge, Hale, Hineley, Hodges, Knight, Malone, Overstreet, Russell, Smith, Swearingen, Taylor (31st Dist.), Turnbull, Turner, Walker, Watson, Wicker—22.

"An Act to grant certain lands, submerged and partly submerged, in Biscayne Bay, east of the City of Miami, Florida, to the City of Miami, in Dade County, Florida."

The bill purports to grant to the City of Miami, for municipal purposes, all of the right, title and interest of the State of Florida in and to certain submerged and partly submerged lands lying partly within the corporate limits of the City of Miami and partly within the corporate limits of another municipality, to-wit: The City of Miami Beach.

Although Legislative action tending toward the development of port and terminal facilities for the City of Miami strongly commends itself to my favor, I am unwilling to lend my approval to an Act which seeks to accomplish this result by conveying to the City of Miami lands embraced within the now existing corporate limits of another municipality, especially in the absence of a state of substantial unanimity of sentiment in the two municipalities favorable to the project.

If the lands granted by the bill were wholly within the corporate limits of the City of Miami, quite a different question would be presented for my consideration.

For the above stated reasons I have withheld my approval from the measure.

Very respectfully,

JOHN W. MARTIN,

Governor.

On motion of Mr. Watson, the further consideration of the bill and objections thereto was informally passed over in order to obtain certain information.

Mr. Clark moved that the Senate do now go into Executive session.

Which was agreed to.

So at 12:25 o'clock P. M. the Senate closed the doors of the Chamber.

The doors were thrown open at 12:35 o'clock P. M., and the Senate emerged from its executive deliberations.

The President in the chair.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Mr. President, Senators Anderson, Butler, Calkins, Clark, Coe, Colson, Cone, Edge, Etheredge, Hale, Hineley, Hodges, Malone, Overstreet, Phillips, Putnam, Russell, Scales, Smith, Swearingen, Taylor (31st Dist.), Turnbull, Turner, Walker, Watson, Wicker—27.

Senate Bill No. 91, together with the Governor's objections thereto, was placed before the Senate.

The objection of the Governor to the bill was read as follows:

State of Florida, Executive Department.
Tallahassee, Fla., June 11, 1925.

Honorable H. Clay Crawford,
Secretary of State,
Capitol.

Sir:

Pursuant to authority vested in me as Governor, under provisions of Section 28 of Article III of the Constitution of Florida, I transmit to you with my objection thereto Senate Bill No. 91, the same having originated in the Senate of 1925, and being entitled as follows:

"An Act to abolish the municipal corporation of the Town of Molino, Escambia County, Florida, incorporated under the provisions of Chapter 6729, Laws of Florida as amended; to provide for the protection of all creditors of said municipality; and to provide that said abolition shall be effective, unless defeated by a majority of the votes cast within the limits of said municipality, at a special election therein held; to provide for the holding and conduct of such election; and the qualifications of electors thereat.”

I am of the opinion that the majority of the people in this municipality do not want it abolished by legislative act.

For the above stated reason I have withheld my approval from the measure.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) JOHN W. MARTIN,
Governor.

The question was put—

“Shall the bill pass, the Governor’s objections thereto to the contrary notwithstanding?”

The roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Coe, Edge, Turner—3.

Nays—Mr. President, Senators Calkins, Clark, Colson, Cone, Etheredge, Hale, Hineley, Hodges, Knight, Malone, Overstreet, Putnam, Rowe, Russell, Scales, Smith, Swearingen, Taylor (31st Dist). Turnbull, Walker, Wicker—23.

Mr. Clark moved that when the Senate adjourns this morning it shall take a recess to 3 o’clock P. M.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Swearingen moved that the House of Representatives be requested to return to the Senate House Bill No. 191.

Which was agreed to.

And the request was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.

Senate Bill No. 242 of the regular session of 1925 with the Governor’s objections thereto, was placed before the Senate.

The Governor’s objection to the bill was read as follows:

State of Florida, Executive Department,
Tallahassee, Fla., June. 11, 1925.

Hon. H. Clay Crawford,
Secretary of State,
Capitol.

Sir:

Pursuant to authority vested in me as Governor, under Provisions of Section 28 of Article III of the Constitution of Florida, I transmit to you with my objections thereto Senate Bill No. 242, the same having originated in the Senate of 1925 and being entitled as follows:

“An Act amending Section 2280 of the General Statutes of Florida in relation to the qualifications for professional engineers to obtain a license to practice profession of civil engineering.”

I am informed by the Association of Engineers of Florida that this bill will bring the engineers of this State into bad repute with those of other States and it will injure the morale and efficiency of engineers in Florida; and that the laws of other States of the Union require four years of service, where this bill attempts to make it only three years.

For the above stated reasons I have withheld my approval from this measure.

Very respectfully,

JOHN W. MARTIN,
Governor.

The question was put, “Will the Senate pass the bill, the Governor’s objection thereto to the contrary notwithstanding?”

Pending the consideration thereof—

Mr. Butler moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Which was agreed to.

Thereupon the Senate at 1:35 P. M. stood adjourned until 3 P. M. today.
