CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION.

Senate Joint Concurrent Resolution No. 14-A. Memorializing Congress and War Department to improve Saint Marks River.

WHEREAS: In selecting Tallahassee as a location for the Capitol of Florida, the Commissioners were largely influenced by its proximity to the seaport of Saint Marks, which gave easy access from the water and by means of highways leading northward therefrom, gave quick and convenient communication with the States of the Union and Washington City. This feature proved of great value for the pioneer development of adjacent regions in Florida and south Georgia and was the sole medium through which commerce was carried on by these regions for many years down to the period of the Civil War. During this struggle the participants therein for military reasons placed obstructions at several points in the channel. These obstructions have never been removed and have resulted in the accumulation of sand and debris to such an extent as to render it wholly unnavigable for commerce, and

WHEREAS, The early development of this section of the State of Florida upon the location of the Capitol at Tallahassee, soon after the government of the United States bought Florida from Spain, resulted in the foresighted policy of the then Governor Duval, that he built one of the first three or four railroads in the United States in the year 1834 from Tallahassee to Saint Marks, which is in operation until this date; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Legislature of the State of Florida memorialize Congress to have these obstructions and the damage resulting from them removed and urge the district engineer to make a favorable report on this project and a copy of these resolutions be presented to the district engineer at the meeting at Tallahassee on May 21st, and that copy be forwarded to the Board of Engineers of Rivers and Harbors, and also that copy be mailed to each member of Congress of State of Florida and the State of Georgia.

Was taken up and read the second time.

Mr. Walker moved to adopt the resolution.

Which was agreed to.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.
