House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Florida, May 27, 1927.

Hon. S. W. Anderson,

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed by the Constitutional three-fifths vote of all members elected to the House of Representatives for the 1927 session—

Joint Resolution No. 599:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relative to taxation and finance.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relative to taxation and finance, to be numbered Section Twelve (12) of said Article IX, be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1928, for ratification or rejection, to-wit:

Section 12. No county, municipality, district or other taxing subdivision shall hereafter issue any bonds, interest bearing warrants or certificates of indebtedness which in amount shall exceed, together with its existing indebtedness, twenty-five per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property of such county, municipality, district or other taxing subdivision according to the last assessment prior to the issuance of such bonds, warrants or certificates. In computing the aggregate indebtedness of any county, municipality, district or other taxing subdivision for the purposes of this section, the amount of the sinking fund actually on hand and pledged for the retirement of outstanding bonds, warrants or certificates shall be deducted. Refunding bonds, warrants or certificates may be issued with which to pay, redeem or retire maturing bonds, warrants or certificates, provided the limitation of indebtedness herein fixed shall not be exceeded. Provision shall be made by the law for a sinking fund for the payment at maturity of such bonds, warrants, or certificates as well as for interest payments thereon. The provisions of this section shall not pertain to or affect the validity of any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued prior to its adoption; nor shall this section pertain to or affect the issuance by special tax school districts of bonds for public free schools as provided by Section 17 of Article XII, as amended.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

FRANK WEBB,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

Mr. Turnbull, Chairman Committee on Conference with the House of Representatives on Senate Amendments to House Bill No. 673, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,

Tallahassee, Florida, May 27, 1927.

Hon. S. W. Anderson,

Hon. Fred H. Davis,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sirs:

Your Committee of Conference on the disagreeing vote of the two houses on the Senate Amendment to House Bill No. 673—fixing the salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court, and making appropriation to pay the same—having met, after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective houses as follows:

FIRST: That the Senate recede from its amendment: Striking out the word "ten" and inserting the word "nine".

SECOND: That the said bill be amended by striking out the words "Ten Thousand Dollars" and inserting the words "Ninety-six Hundred Dollars".

THEO T. TURNBULL,

I. J. McCALL,

WM. C. HODGES,

Managers on the Part of the Senate.

FRED M. VALZ,

W. D. BELL,

C. O. ANDREWS,

Managers on the Part of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Turnbull moved to adopt the conference committee report.

Which was agreed to.

And the report was adopted.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.
