INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Young offered the following Resolution—
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7:

WHEREAS, The reclamation of the swamp and overflowed land throughout the nation has been conducive to the public utility, has greatly improved the health of the people, has saved vast sums in the construction of highways and bridges and has made possible the settlement, development and occupation of the great alluvial empire, upon which the nation is drawing heavily for its basic crops; and

WHEREAS, There is great financial distress in the Drainage Districts of the country, owing to the heavy drainage taxes assessed against the lands in these several districts; and

WHEREAS, Congress is now considering the enactment into law of legislation that will provide Drainage Tax Relief to all the Drainage Districts in the thirty-four states of the Union where these districts are situated; Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring, that we earnestly request and urge upon Congress the early enactment of Drainage Tax Relief legislation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of these resolutions be sent to each member of Congress from Florida.

Which was read the first time and referred to the Committee on Drainage.

Senator Futch offered the following Resolution—
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8:

WHEREAS, On the 26th day of September, A. D. 1928, the Honorable John Christian Luning was summoned by the Great Executive from the realm of earthly experiences to life eternal; and,

WHEREAS, The Honorable John Christian Luning was for twenty-two years closely associated with the government of the State of Florida, serving faithfully and well in various capacities in the State Capitol, beginning in 1906 as confidential clerk to the Honorable B. E. McLin, then Commissioner of Agriculture, and later as secretary to the trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund and the Board of Commissioners of the Everglades Drainage District, and upon the death of the Honorable B. E. McLin in 1912 being appointed by Governor Gilchrist to the office of Commissioner of Agriculture, and, shortly thereafter, to the position of State Treasurer where he continued to serve by successive re-elections to the time of his death, and for which office he had again been nominated, without opposition in the Democratic primary of 1928; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable John Christian Luning, besides discharging the duties of his immediate offices in a manner highly acceptable to the people of his State, rendered valuable, faithful and efficient services on the various State Boards in which he held membership; and

WHEREAS, His knowledge of all State affairs and institutions and the application of the highest principles of integrity and efficiency made him conspicuously successful and valuable as a State official; and

WHEREAS, He achieved, in his official capacity, a record which the officials of the State of Florida and the people of the State will ever hold in admiration and long remembrance; and

WHEREAS, His wise constructive and sound counsel and advice in matters of Legislation were always appreciated and respected by members of the Senate and the House of Representatives during the several sessions of the Legislature to convene during the period of his services to the State in Tallahassee; and

WHEREAS, His counsel an advice on matters of legislation are greatly missed by those members of the Senate and the House of Representatives who have heretofore served in the Legislature of the State of Florida during the life of the Honorable John Christian Luning;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring, that, in the death of the Honorable John Christian Luning, Florida has lost a faithful, efficient and valuable official friend and counselor, whose record and achievements as an official of the State of Florida will long be remembered and cherished,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we hereby express to the family of the deceased our most sincere sorrow in their great bereavement,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That these resolutions be spread upon the Journals of the Senate and the House of Representatives, and that a copy hereof, attested by the Secretary of State, under the great seal of the State of Florida, be delivered to the family of the deceased.

Which was read.

Mr. Futch moved that the rules be waived and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8 be read a second time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8 was read a second time.

Mr. Futch moved the adoption of the Resolution.

Which was agreed to.

And the Resolution was adopted.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Taylor offered the following Resolution:
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9:

WHEREAS, on the 18th day of June 1928, Brigadier General Joseph Clifford Reed Foster, the Adjutant General of Florida, was called by his Maker to life eternal. General Foster was born at Savannah, Georgia, February 13, 1873, and in 1876 he moved to St. Augustine, Florida.

WHEREAS, General Joseph Clifford Reed Foster enlisted in Company "D," First Separate Battalion, First Infantry, Florida State Troops, on October 8, 1891, served as private, corporal and sergeant. Appointed Battalion Sergeant Major, July 28, 1893. Appointed Second Lieutenant Company "D," First Battalion, Florida State Troops, April 24, 1895. Appointed First Lieutenant Company "G," First Florida Volunteer Infantry, May 18, 1898. Mustered into Federal service May 23, 1898. Honorably mustered out on January 27, 1899. Appointed Major General and Adjutant General, State of Florida, June 29, 1901. Appointed Brigadier General and Adjutant General, State of Florida, January 21, 1916. Relieved as Adjutant General, January 10, 1917. Appointed Adjutant General of Florida, February 3, 1923. Appointed Colonel, Adjutant General's Department, Officers' Reserve Corps, March 21, 1923. Federal recognition as Colonel, Adjutant General's Department, extended from March 21, 1923. Appointed Brigadier General, Adjutant General's Department, June 1, 1924. Federal recognition as Brigadier General extended to date from July 9, 1924. General Foster was President of the National Guard Association of America.

WHEREAS, in the death of General Foster, the National Guard of the United States has lost a friend and staunch champion, and the State of Florida a distinguished citizen and able soldier. Convinced that our National Military policy was sound, placing the burden of National defense upon the citizen soldiery, he was ever watchful of the interest of the National Guard and solicitous for its welfare. As a man he was upright, fair and kind; as a soldier he was resourceful, fearless and aggressive:

"His life was gentle, and the elements

So mix'd in him that Nature might stand up

And say to all the world: 'This was a man.'"

Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, that in the death of General Joseph Clifford Reed Foster, Florida has lost a brilliant citizen, soldier and man.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that we hereby express to the family of the deceased our most sincere sorrow in their great bereavement.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the Senate and House of Representatives and a copy attested to by the Secretary of State, under the great seal of the State, be sent to the family of the deceased.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Taylor moved that the rules be waived and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9 be read a second time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9 was read a second time.

Mr. Taylor moved the adoption of the Resolution.

Which was agreed to.

And the same was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.

By Senator Young—

Senate Joint Resolution No. 205:

Proposed Joint Memorial to be passed by both Houses of the Florida Legislature, petitioning the Congress of the United States to enact the "Smith-Smoot Bill," an Act providing for loans to drainage and levee districts, by the Secretary of the Interior.

Which Resolution proposed Joint Memorial to be passed by both Houses of the Florida Legislature, petitioning the Congress of the United States to enact the "Smith-Smoot Bill," an Act providing for loans to drainage and levee districts, by the Secretary of the Interior:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled.

Your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and Senate of the State of Florida, respectfully represent: That

WHEREAS, There is now pending before the Congress of the United States of America legislation popularly known as, and called, the Smith-Smoot Bill, the purpose of which is to provide funds which the Secretary of the Interior may loan to drainage and levee districts, without interest, in order to enable them to retire their bonded indebtedness; and

WHEREAS, The drainage of swamped and water-logged lands, and the protection of lands from overflow, is necessary to the well-being of the people of the United States of America, generally, and the payment of interest upon the bonded indebtedness of drainage and levee districts is a serious burden upon those now required to pay it; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Legislature of the State of Florida respectfully requests and urges the Congress of the United States of America to enact into law the said Smith-Smoot Bill, or other legislation of similar import.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State of the State of Florida be, and he hereby is directed to forward this memorial to the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America and that he forward copies thereof to the senators and representatives in Congress from this State.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Young moved to waive the rule and that Senate Joint Resolution No. 205 be read the second time, by its title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Joint Resolution No. 205 was read the second time, by its title only.

Mr. Young moved that the rule be further waived, and that Senate Joint Resolution 205 be read the third time and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Joint Resolution Bill No. 205 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of the bill, the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Adams, Bell, Caro, Council, Dell, Futch, Gary, Glynn, Hinely, Hodges, Howell, Irby, King, Knabb, McCall, Mitchell, Neel, Phillips, Putnam, Rowe, Singletary, Stewart, Swearingen, Taylor, Turner, Watson, Waybright, Welsh, Whitaker, Young—31.

Nays—None.

So the bill passed by the Constitutional three-fifths vote of all members of the Senate of the Session of 1929, title as stated.
