A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 11 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to taxation and finances so as to provide authority for the State of Florida to levy and collect inheritance or estate taxes under certain conditions.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendment to Section 11 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to taxation and finances be, and the same is, hereby agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D., 1930, for ratification or rejection, that is to say, that Section 11 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to taxation and finances be amended so as to read, as follows:

Section 11. No taxes upon inheritance or upon the income of residents or citizens of this State shall be levied by the State of Florida, or under its authority, and there shall be exempt from taxation to the head of the family residing in this State, household goods and personal effects to the value of five hundred ($500.00) dollars, provided, however, that the Legislature may provide for the assessment, levying and collection of a tax upon inheritance, or for the levying of estate taxes, not exceeding in the aggregate the amounts which may by any law of the United States be allowed to be credited against or deducted from any similar tax upon inheritances, or taxes on estates assessed or levied by the United States on the same subject, but the power of the Legislature to levy such inheritance taxes, or estate taxes in this State, shall exist only so long as, and during the time, a similar tax is enforced by the United States against Florida inheritances or estates and shall only be exercised or enforced to the extent of absorbing the amount of any deduction or credit which may be permitted by the laws of the United States, now existing or hereafter enacted to be claimed by reason thereof, as a deduction or credit against such similar tax of the United States applicable to Florida inheritances or estates. The Legislature may provide for the appropriation of all taxes collected under this article to such State, County, municipal or educational purpose as it may deem advisable.

And as corrected was approved.

The Journal of May 28, was corrected as follows: On page 2, column 2, between lines 11 and 12 from top of page, insert the following Committee Report:
