REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Senator Hinely, Chairman of the Committee on Game and Fisheries, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., May 24, 1929

Hon. J. J. Parrish,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

Your Committee on Game and Fisheries, to whom was referred: House Bill No. 835:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 11 of Chapter 10123, Laws of 1925, being An Act entitled "An Act to protect and regulate the salt water fishing industry in the State of Florida, and to declare certain fresh waters in this State salt water for the purpose of this Act, and to define certain waters as salt waters."

Have had the same under consideration, and recommend that the same do pass.

Very respectfully,

S. A. HINELY,
Chairman of the Committee.

And House Bill No. 835, contained in the above report, was placed on the Calendar of Bills on Second Reading.

Senator Phillips, Chairman of the Committee on Engrossed Bills of the Senate, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., May 27, 1929.

Hon. J. J. Parrish,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

Your Committee on Engrossed Bills, to whom was referred—
Senate Bill No. 448:

A bill to be entitled An Act creating the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation; providing for the appointment of a superintendent thereof, together with office help, a board of three members to constitute said bureau, defining their duties and powers; and making an appropriation for the salaries and expenses connected therewith; with the following amendments:

In Section 4, line 4, after the word "bureau" strike out the balance of said Section, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "at the Capitol of the State and at the site of the State Farm at Raiford, Fla."

In Section 3, lines 1 and 2, strike out the words "the said Board of Managers or a majority thereof are authorized to employ", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "The Governor shall".

Beg leave to report that the same has this day been examined and the above bill has been properly engrossed.

Very respectfully,

W. W. PHILLIPS,

Chairman of the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

And Senate Bill No. 448 was certified to the House of Representatives under the rule.

The hour for the special consideration of Senate Bill No. 226 having arrived the bill was taken up in its special order.

Senator Bell moved that the rules be waived and the consideration of Senate Bill No. 226 be deferred until the companion bill pending in the House of Representatives should be acted upon by that body, and the action of the House of Representatives certified to the Senate.

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 773, Revised General Statutes of Florida, being Section 988, Compiled General Laws of 1927, relating to the rate of interest to be charged on the redemption or sale of tax certificates held by the State on taxes in arrears prior to January 1, 1928, and providing a time within which such certificates may be redeemed at eight (8%) per cent per annum, in lieu of interest, penalties and costs now fixed by law.

With the following amendments:

1. In title of bill, following the word "redemption", add "or sale".
2. Wherever the word "redemption" appears in the bill insert thereafter and immediately following the words "or sale".
3. Strike out the figures "774" in title and insert the figures "773".
4. In Section 1, line 1, strike out the figures "774" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "773".
5. In Section 1, line 15, after the words "said certificates" and before the words "together with interest on such arrearages" insert the words "to which shall be added all costs and fees arising out of the making of the tax sale and issuance of such certificates, which".

Beg leave to report that the same have this day been examined and the above bills have been properly engrossed.

Very respectfully,

W. W. PHILLIPS,

Chairman of the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

And Senate Bill No. 129 was certified to the House of Representatives under the rule.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 268:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment by adding to Section 2, Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to Judiciary Department.

Was taken up in its special order and read a second time in full.

Senator Stewart moved that the rules be waived and Senate Joint Resolution No. 268 be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Joint Resolution No. 268 was read a third time in full as follows:

A Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment by Adding to Section 2, Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, Relating to the Judiciary Department.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida, that the following amendment by adding to Section 2 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to the Judiciary Department, be and the same is hereby agreed to, and the same shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State of Florida for ratification or rejection at the general election to be held in November, A. D. 1930, to-wit:

Upon the ratification of this amendment the Governor of Florida shall be authorized to appoint one additional justice of the Supreme Court who shall hold office until the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, A. D. 1933. At the General Election in November, 1932, and every six years thereafter unless otherwise duly provided by law, an additional Justice of the Supreme Court shall be elected for a term of six years to begin on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January after his election, so that the Supreme Court shall consist of seven justices, unless otherwise duly provided by law. The powers of the court may be exercised by the court sitting in a body or by either of two divisions of three justices each with the Chief Justice acting with each division as well as with the court sitting as a body, under such regulations as may be prescribed by rules of court not inconsistent with law. When the Chief Justice is disqualified, or is absent or is disabled from any cause, one of the other justices may act in his place. The Legislature may by law reduce the number of justices of the Supreme Court holding office at the same time, provided the number shall not be less than three. No Justice shall, because of a reduction in the number of Justices, be deprived of his office during the term for which he was elected, nor all the compensation of any Justice be diminished during the term for which he shall have been theretofore elected or appointed.

Upon call of the roll on the passage of the Joint Resolution, the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Adams, Bell, Dell, Harrison, Johns, Rowe, Stewart, Swearingen, Turnbull, Wagg, Welsh, Whitaker, Young—14.

Nays—Senators Caro, Council, Futch, Gary, Glynn, Hinely, Hodges, Howell, Irby, King, Malone, McCall, Mitchell, Neel, Phillips, Putnam, Scales, Singletary, Taylor, Turner—20.

So the Senate Joint Resolution No. 268 failed to pass.

Senate Resolution No. 369:

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 35 of Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to courts which may be established in the State of Florida.

Was taken up in its special order and read a second time in full.

Senator Singletary moved that the rules be waived and Senate Joint Resolution No. 369 be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Joint Resolution No. 369 was read a third time in full as follows:

A Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment to Section 35 of Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Florida, Relating to Courts Which May Be Established in the State of Florida.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida, that the following amendment to Section 35 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida at the general election in 1930 for ratification or rejection. That is to say: That Section 35 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to courts, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 35. No courts other than herein specified shall be established in this State, except that the legislature may provide for the creation and establishment of such number of Judicial Circuits not exceeding Twenty in number as may from time to time become necessary, and may provide for the appointment by the Governor, but and with the consent and approval of the Senate, of one or more Judges therefor whose terms of office and general jurisdiction shall be the same as is provided by the Constitution for Circuit Judges generally, and the Legislature may clothe any Railroad Commission with judicial powers in all matters connected with the functions of their office. The Legislature at its first regular session after the adoption of this amendment shall divide the State of Florida into twenty Judicial Circuits and one Circuit Judge and one State Attorney shall be assigned to each circuit, provided that one or more additional Circuit Judges and one or more Assistant State Attorneys may be provided by law for any circuit when the compensation of such additional Judge or Judges or such additional Assistant State Attorneys shall be provided to be paid by one or more of the Counties comprising the Circuit to which the same are assigned."

Upon the passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 369 the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Anderson, Caro, Council, Gary, Hinely, Howell, Irby, Neel, Phillips, Scales, Singletary, Turnbull, Turner, Welsh, Young—15.

Nays—Mr. President, Senators Adams, Bell, Dell, Futch, Glynn, Harrison, Hodges, Johns, King, Knabb, Malone, McCall, Mitchell, Putnam, Rowe, Swearingen, Taylor, Wagg, Watson, Whitaker—21.

So Senate Joint Resolution No. 369 failed to pass.

So Senate Joint Resolution No. 358 failed to pass.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 471:

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to Section II, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to the times at which the Legislature shall be in session:

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section I. That the following amendment to Section II, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to the times at which the Legislature will be in session, be, and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1930, for ratification or rejection, that is to say, that Section II of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to the times at which the Legislature shall be in session, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section II. The regular sessions of the Legislature shall be held biennially, commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, A. D. 1931, and on the corresponding day of every second year thereafter, but the Governor may convene the same in extra session by his proclamation, however, no such special session shall extend for more than twenty days. Regular sessions of the Legislature shall extend for not to exceed twenty days in May after having convened, and then shall stand adjourned until the first Tuesday after the second Monday in September of the same year, and this second session shall extend for not to exceed thirty consecutive days.

Should this amendment be ratified by the voters at the general election in November 1930, the Legislature which convenes in 1931, shall then adopt the following rules of procedure:

Rule 1. The May session shall be given over entirely to the introduction of bills and resolutions, and final action on all bills shall not be taken until the fall session.

Rule 2. All bills and resolutions shall be printed in full and all bills relating to similar subjects shall be referred to the same committee, and each member of every committee shall be given a bound copy of all bills referred to each committee in addition to a bound volume containing all bills and resolutions introduced.

Rule 3. At the Fall session no new bills shall be introduced except bills of a strictly local nature, and except substitute or amended bills of a same nature and relating to the same subjects as bills already introduced at the May session.

Rule 4. At the May session in 1931 emergency appropriation bills may be passed in order to carry on the government until the end of the Fall session. This provision shall only apply to the May session in 1931.

Was taken up in its special order and read a second time in full.

Senator Rowe offered the following amendment to Senate Joint Resolution No. 471:

In Rule 2, line 1, between the words "resolutions" and "shall" insert "except those of local nature".

Senator Rowe moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to.

And the amendment was adopted.

Senator Turnbull offered the following amendment to Senate Joint Resolution No. 471:

In Rule 3, line 3, strike out the words "or a same nature and". Senator Turnbull moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to.

And the amendment was adopted.

Senator Turnbull moved that the rules be waived and Senate Joint Resolution No. 471, as amended, be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Joint Resolution No. 471 was read a third time in full as amended.

Upon call of the roll on the passage of the Joint Resolution the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Adams, Bell, Caro, Council, Dell, Gary, Glynn, Harrison, Hodges, Johns, King, Neel, Phillips, Putnam, Rowe, Scales, Stewart, Swearingen, Turnbull, Turner, Wagg, Welsh, Young—24.

Senator Bell moved that the rules be waived and House Joint Resolution No. 35 be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Joint Resolution No. 35 was read a third time in full as follows:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 11 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to taxation and finances so as to provide authority for the State of Florida to levy and collect inheritance or estate taxes under certain conditions.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendment to Section 11 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to taxation and finances be, and the same is, hereby agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D., 1930, for ratification or rejection, that is to say, that Section 11 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to taxation and finances be amended so as to read, as follows:

Section 11. No taxes upon inheritance or upon the income of residents or citizens of this State shall be levied by the State of Florida, or under its authority, and there shall be exempt from taxation to the head of the family residing in this State, household goods and personal effects to the value of five hundred ($500.00) dollars, provided, however, that the Legislature may provide for the assessment, levying and collection of a tax upon inheritance, or for the levying of estate taxes, not exceeding in the aggregate the amounts which may by any law of the United States be allowed to be credited against or deducted from any similar tax upon inheritances, or taxes on estates assessed or levied by the United States on the same subject, but the power of the Legislature to levy such inheritance taxes, or estate taxes in this State, shall exist only so long as, and during the time, a similar tax is enforced by the United States against Florida inheritances or estates and shall only be exercised or enforced to the extent of absorbing the amount of any deduction or credit which may be permitted by the laws of the United States, now existing or hereafter enacted to be claimed by reason thereof, as a deduction or credit against such similar tax of the United States applicable to Florida inheritances or estates. The Legislature may provide for the appropriation of all taxes collected under this article to such State, County, municipal or educational purpose as it may deem advisable.

Upon call of the roll on the passage of the Resolution the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Adams, Bell, Caro, Dell, Futch, Gary, Hinely, Howell, Irby, Johns, McCall, Neel, Rowe, Singletary, Stewart, Swearingen, Taylor, Turnbull, Turner, Whitaker, Young—22.

Nays—Senators Anderson, Council, Hodges, King, Knabb, Malone, Mitchell, Phillips, Scales, Wagg, Watson, Welsh—12.

So House Joint Resolution No. 35 failed to pass.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives under the rule.

House Joint Resolution No. 544:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 4, of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to the pay of members of the Legislature, so as to provide that the pay of the members of the Legislature shall not exceed ten dollars a day and the pay of attaches of the Legislature shall not exceed six dollars per day.

Was taken up in its special order and read a second time in full.

Senator Hodges moved that the rules be waived and House Joint Resolution No. 544 be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Joint Resolution No. 544 was read a third time in full, as follows:

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to Section 4 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to the pay of members of the Legislature so as to provide that the pay of the members of the Legislature shall not exceed ten dollars a day and the pay of attaches of the Legislature shall not exceed six dollars per day.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendment to Section 4 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Florida be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the duly qualified electors of Florida voting at the next general election to be held in November 1930 for ratification or rejection, that is to say, that Section 4 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Florida be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 4. Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall be duly qualified electors in the respective counties and districts for which they were chosen. The pay of members of the Senate and House of Representatives shall not exceed ten dollars a day, and the pay of attaches appointed or employed by the Senate and House of Representatives shall not exceed six dollars a day, for each day of the session, and mileage to members of the Senate and House of Representatives to and from their homes to the seat of government, not to exceed ten cents a mile each way, by the nearest and most practical route."

Upon call of the roll on the passage of House Joint Resolution No. 544 the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Adams, Caro, Council, Dell, Gary, Glynn, McCall, Neel, Phillips, Stewart, Watson, Young—13.

Nays—Senators Anderson, Bell, Futch, Hinely, Hodges, Howell, Irby, Johns, King, Knabb, Malone, Mitchell, Putnam, Rowe, Scales, Singletary, Swearingen, Taylor, Turnbull, Turner, Wagg, Welsh, Whitaker—23.

So House Joint Resolution No. 544 failed to pass.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives under the rule.

Senator Wagg moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which House Joint Resolution No. 35 failed to pass the Senate.

Which was agreed to.

And House Joint Resolution No. 35 was again placed before the Senate.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this charter shall become effective and operative and be in full force and effect on and after the third day of July, A. D. 1929, provided however, that this Act is ratified and approved by a majority vote of the duly qualified electors of the City of Port Tampa voting at said election and who reside within the territorial limits of the said City of Port Tampa as the same is now defined by law.

The election provided for in this section shall be called to be held, and shall be held on Tuesday, the 2nd day of July, A. D. 1929. The said election shall be called by the Mayor of the City of Port Tampa under its present charter and as it now exists and the same shall be conducted and held with the same number of polling places and under the same circumstances and conditions as now required by the General Election Laws of the State of Florida and the present charter of the City of Port Tampa with regard to general elections to be held in said city. Wherever any special provision with regard to elections in said City are required by the present charter of said City the same shall be observed as against any contrary requirement, or lack of requirement, on the part of the General Election Laws of the State of Florida, but where there are no special provisions in the present charter of the City of Port Tampa then the General Election Laws of the State of Florida shall be followed and carried out in all respects except as to the form of the ballot to be used at said election, which form of said ballot is provided for hereinafter. Notice of the said election shall be published once each week for four consecutive weeks prior to the date of such election in some newspaper published in the City of Port Tampa, if there be a newspaper published in said city, and if there be no newspaper published in the said City of Port Tampa, then the said notice of said election shall be published for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the City of Tampa, Florida, and having a general circulation in the City of Port Tampa, Florida. The said notice of said election so to be published shall in addition to stating the time of said election and the question to be determined thereat, designate the several polling places where the same is to be held and the several inspectors and clerks chosen to preside over, act at, and conduct said election at the respective polling places so designated. The ballots to be used at said election shall be prepared by the present City Council and such ballots shall state plainly and concisely the purpose for which the election is held and shall contain the words, "For adoption of new Charter" and immediately thereunder the words, "Against adoption of new Charter," and the electors voting at said election shall place a cross mark in front of the question of their choice, that is say in front of the words, "For adoption of new Charter," if the adoption of this Act is favored by the voter and in front of the words, "Against adoption of new Charter," if the same is not favored by the voter. If a majority of the qualified voters within the corporate limits of the said City of Port Tampa voting in said election as the said limits are now defined by law, shall vote in favor of the adoption of said charter, then this Act shall be and become effective on and after the third day of July, A. D. 1929.
