Members of Committee on Part of the House of Representatives.

The members of the Conference Committee on the Part of the Senate at the Conference referred to in the above report, beg leave to submit the following statement explaining the effect of the action agreed on:

The effect of the action agreed on is that no bonds issued by any county or district subsequent to April 1st, 1929, will be permitted to participate in the proceeds coming into the hands of the Board of Administration provided for in and by said Act, and bonds issued for toll bridges, toll roads and ferries, will be permitted to participate notwithstanding the collection of tolls or the amount of tolls collected on such bridge, road or ferry.

T. G. FUTCH,
W. C. HODGES,
EDGAR W. WAYBRIGHT,

Members of Committee on Part of the Senate.

MINORITY REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE UPON SENATE BILL NO. 1.

I do not concur in the action of the Conference Committee which recommends that the House recede from its amendment to Section 18, as amended by the House by a vote of 76 to 15.

The matter of toll bridges in this bill is a matter of fundamental principle and law. The amended section seeks to prevent any county from receiving unfair favor in the matter of toll bridges to the extent of contribution if full payment upon toll bridge bonds is furnished by the tolls. The principle of distribution based upon bonded indebtedness must be carried out to the letter. If fictions for the basis of distribution are allowed in this respect then any fiction should be permissible upon which to base distribution of gasoline monies.

To give single counties special privileges to the exclusion of others is a violation of the constitutional principles of uniformity and impartiality.

To give any county special subsidy for a toll bridge, over and above its cost of construction and maintenance, even after a sufficient fund has become available to pay the whole indebtedness, principal and interest, is manifestly improper and wrongful.

The inclusion of this method of distribution in the Administration Bills places the whole Administration structure of tax relief upon shifting sands of political expediences and I cannot conscientiously support them so long as such imperfections are permitted to remain in the principal bill.

S. P. ROBINEAU,
Representative Dade County.
