INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND CONSIDERATION OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

By Senator Holland—
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14:
A memorial to the Congress of the United States in favor of completing of the adherence of the United States to the World Court.

WHEREAS, The question of the adherence of the United States to the World Court has been before the Senate of the United States since February 24, 1923 and is still unsettled; and

WHEREAS, The Senate of the United States now has upon its executive calendar the three World Court treaties which, if and when the Senate consents to ratification, will complete the adherence of the United States to the World Court; and

WHEREAS, One of these treaties, in the judgment of the Department of State, the American Bar Association, the Chamber of Commerce State of Florida and other competent authorities, fully protects the United States with reference to the court's advisory jurisdiction and entirely meets the reservation upon this subject attached by the United States Senate to its resolution of 1926, providing that the United States should adhere to the Court; and

WHEREAS, Both the Republican and Democratic party platforms in 1932 endorsed the completion of the adherence of the United States to the Court; and

WHEREAS, In the present state of international unrest it is desirable to emphasize the principle of judicial settlement as one means of contributing to international stability.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, the House of Representatives concurring: That the United States Senate is urged to terminate the seven year delay in making the Senate's 1926 resolution of adherence to the Court effective by promptly ratifying the three pending World Court treaties and thus completing the adherence of the United States to the Court.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be sent to Senators Trammell and Fletcher of this State. Which was read the first time in full.

Senator Whitaker moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14 be referred to the Committee on Rules and Procedure.

Which was agreed to.
And it was so ordered.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

FRANK WEBB,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

House Bill No. 990, contained in the above Message, was read the first time by its title only and referred to the Committee on Temperance.

The motion made by Senator Holland to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 140 passed the Senate, was taken up in its order and the consideration of same was informally passed.

The motion made by Senator Whitaker to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 133 passed the Senate, was taken up in its order and the consideration of same was informally passed.

The motion made by Senator Stewart to reconsider the vote by which Senate Joint Resolution No. 69 failed to pass the Senate, was taken up in its order:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 69:

A Joint Resolution proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of Florida, to be known as Section 14 of Article IX, relating to Taxation and Finance.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA: That the following Amendment to Article Nine of the Constitution, relating to Taxation and Finance, be and the same is hereby agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State at the General Election of Representatives in 1934 for approval or rejection:

Section 12. The Legislature shall not levy, or authorize the levy or collection of ad valorem taxes on real and personal property for any State purpose or for the benefit of any State fund, and shall limit the tax levies of all subdivisions of the State, observing as a maximum, any limit or authorization in this Constitution.

Section 13. The Legislature shall have power to levy lawful taxes, other than ad valorem taxes, and to collect and distribute the same to or for the benefit of, the several counties from which collected, by State officers or State agencies.

Section 14. All portions of the Constitution in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

The question was put on the adoption of the motion made by Senator Stewart.

Which was agreed to.

And the Senate reconsidered the vote by which Senate Joint Resolution No. 69 failed to pass the Senate.

The question recurred on the passage of the Joint Resolution.

Upon the passage of the Joint Resolution the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Andrews, Bass, Beacham, Black, Butler, English, Gary, Getzen, Gomez, Harrison, Hilburn, Hodges, Lundy, MacWilliams, Mann, Murphy, Parker, Parrish, Raulerson, Rose, Shivers, Stewart, Watson, Whitaker—24.
