INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND CONSIDERATION OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

By Senator Butler—
 Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6:
 CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ratifying the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States fixing the commencement of the terms of President and Vice President and Members of Congress and fixing the time of the assembling of Congress.

WHEREAS, the Seventy-second Congress of the United States of America at its first Session in both Houses, by a constitutional amendment of two-thirds thereof, has made the following proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States of America in the following words, to-wit:

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States fixing the commencement of the terms President and Vice President and Members of Congress and fixing the time of the assembling of Congress.

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following amendment to the Constitution be, and hereby is, proposed to the States, to become valid as a part of said Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of the several States as provided in the Constitution:

Article—

Section 1. The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3rd day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

Section 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3rd day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Section 3. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

Section 4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have developed upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have developed upon them.

Section 5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

Section 6. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING,

That the said proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be and the same is hereby ratified by the Legislature of the State of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That certified copies of the foregoing preamble and resolution be immediately forwarded by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, under the GREAT SEAL, to the President of the United States, the President of the Senate of the United States, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States.

Which was read the first time in full and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.
