House Memorial No. 2:

A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, REQUESTING THE PASSAGE OF AN APPROPRIATE OLD AGE PENSION.

WHEREAS, it is extremely doubtful whether or not the Constitution of the State of Florida will permit the legal passage of a Pension Bill for aged persons.

AND WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States now has pending before it several Old Age Pension Bills.

AND WHEREAS, the care of the State for its dependent classes is considered by all enlightened people as a sure measure of its civilization.

AND WHEREAS, we feel that a citizen who has given the more excessive years of his life toward the service of the State and Legislature, should not in his old age be required to become an inmate of a poor house or for any doubt as to his financial secret during his last remaining years living.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the Congress of the United States by it and its help are respectfully urged and requested to act favorably upon proposed Old Age Pension Legislation and the Congress of the United States is hereby respectfully urged to pass an appropriate Old Age Pension Bill.

RESOLVED, further that a duly certified copy of this Memorial be forwarded to both the House and the Senate of the United States Congress, and that a copy also be forwarded to each of our Representatives and Senators in the United States Congress.

Was taken up in its order and read the second time in full.

Senator MacWilliams offered the following amendment to House Memorial No. 2:

Strike out 4th preamble.

Senator MacWilliams moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to.
