Senate Joint Resolution No. 286:

A Joint Resolution proposing the amendment of Section 7 of Article X of the Constitution, relating to the exemption of homesteads from taxation.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following amendment of Section 7 of Article X of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to the exemption of homesteads from taxation, be, and the same is hereby, agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State at the General Election of Representatives in 1936, for approval or rejection; that is to say, that the said Section 7 of Article X of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Every person who has the legal or beneficial title in equity to real property in this State and who resides thereon and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home, or the permanent home of another or others legally or naturally dependent upon said person, shall be entitled to an exemption from all taxation, except for assessments for special benefits, up to the assessed valuation of Five Thousand Dollars on the said home and contiguous real property. Said title may be held by the entireties, jointly, or in common with others, and said exemption may be apportioned among such of the owners as shall reside thereon, as their respective interests shall appear, but no such exemption of more than Five Thousand Dollars shall be allowed to any one person or on any one dwelling house, nor shall the amount of the exemption allowed any person exceed the proportionate assessed valuation based on the interest owned by such person. The Legislature shall prescribe appropriate and reasonable laws regulating the manner of establishing the right to said exemption. The Legislature may provide for a refund of all taxes paid since November 6, 1934, by persons who would have been entitled to exemption hereunder, if the section had then been in force, where claims therefor have been filed with the proper assessing or collecting officers.

Amendment No. 1:

In line 12 (typewritten bill), between the word "exemption" and the word "from" insert the following: "as provided in Section 1 of Article X of this Constitution."

Amendment No. 2:

Paragraph 2, strike out the last sentence of Paragraph 2, which provides as follows: "The Legislature may provide for a refund of all taxes paid since November 6, 1934, by persons who would have been entitled to exemption hereunder, if the section had then been in force, where claims therefor have been filed with the proper assessing or collecting officers."

Sir:

Your Committee on Engrossed Bills, to whom was referred (with amendments), after second reading:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 7:

A Joint Resolution proposing an Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution relating to taxation.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to an overall limitation upon the power to levy and collect ad valorem taxes, to be known as Section 15 of Article IX, be, and the same is hereby, agreed to, and shall be submitted to the Electors of the State at the General Election of Representatives in 1936, for approval or rejection:

Section 15: The total levy of taxes for all purposes of the State, county, town, city and other taxing districts, shall not exceed ten mills on the dollar, notwithstanding any power heretofore possessed or exercised under or consistent with this Constitution, which levy may be apportioned by a general law applicable to the state and every such political subdivision thereof, or the Legislature may provide, by such a law the manner and means by which such apportionment shall be made. Levies for the payment or refunding of valid debts and obligations heretofore incurred and required by then existing law to be paid by levies of ad valorem taxes shall not be affected hereby.

Amendment No. 1:

At the end of Paragraph 2, add the following: "That this Amendment shall become effective January 1, 1938, as to taxes for the year 1938 and subsequent taxes."

Amendment No. 2:

Paragraph 2, line 3, strike out the word "ten" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "twenty."

Senate Bill No. 154 was taken up in its order and the consideration of same was informally passed.

House Bill No. 1139 was taken up in its order and the consideration of same was informally passed.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 7:

WHEREAS, the State of Florida and its citizens generally are ever solicitous of new industries and new residents, and,

WHEREAS, it is reliably reported that the motion picture industry is tentatively considering Florida as a possible location for its huge enterprises, and,

WHEREAS, the State of Florida is most gracious to industry and individuals in matter of taxation, having no state income tax, having exempted homesteads from taxation, and having by Constitutional writ guaranteed the motion picture industry exemption from taxation for a period of 15 years, now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED: That the House of Representatives of the State Legislature, the Senate concurring, hereby calls the attention of the motion picture industry and of the world to the advantages hereinbefore listed, and to other advantages too numerous and too well known generally to need reciting, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the motion picture industry especially is cordially invited to locate in Florida; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a duly certified copy of this resolution be dispatched to the head of each motion picture producing company in the industry by the Secretary of State.

Was taken up in its order and read the second time in full. The question was put on the adoption of the Concurrent Resolution.

STATE OF FLORIDA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
TALLAHASSEE
April 20th, 1935

Hon. Wm. C. Hodges,
President of the Senate,
Tallahassee, Florida.

Sir:

I have the honor to inform you that on April 19th, A. D. 1935, I approved the following Acts, which originated in your Honorable Body, and have caused the same to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State:

Senate Bill No. 151: Relating to Tax Assessors Commissions.

Senate Bill No. 361: Relating to Sumter County Indebtedness.

Senate Memorial No. 6. Relating to Palatka Ravine Azalea Gardens.

Respectfully yours,
DAVE SHOLTZ,
Governor.

By permission the following bills were introduced.

By Senator Tillman—

Which was read the first time by title only and referred to the Committee on Agriculture & Live Stock.

By Senator Gomez—
Senate Joint Resolution No. 429:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Florida relative to Cities and Counties.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

"That the following Amendment to Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Florida relative to cities and counties, to be numbered Section 10 of said Article VIII, be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1936, for ratification or rejection, to-wit:

Section 10. The Legislature shall have power to establish, alter or abolish, a municipal corporation to be known as the City of Key West, extending territorially throughout the present limits of Monroe County, in the place of any or all county, district, municipal and local governments, boards, bodies and officers, constitutional or statutory, legislative, executive, judicial, or administrative, and shall prescribe the jurisdiction, powers, duties and functions of such municipal corporation, its legislative, executive, judicial and administrative departments and its boards, bodies and officers; to divide the territory included in such municipality into subordinate districts, and to prescribe a just and reasonable system of taxation for such municipality and districts; and to fix the liability of such municipality and districts. Bonded and other indebtedness, existing at the time of the establishment of such municipality, shall be enforceable only against property theretofore taxable therefor. The Legislature shall, from time to time, determine what portion of said municipality is a rural area, and a homestead in such rural area shall not be limited as if in a city or town. Such municipality may exercise all the powers of a municipal corporation and shall also be recognized as one of the legal political divisions of the State with the duties and obligations of a county and shall be entitled to all the powers, rights and privileges, including representation in the State Legislature, which would accrue to it if it were a county. All property of Monroe County and of the municipality in said county shall vest in such municipal corporation when established as herein provided. The offices of Clerk of the Circuit Court and Sheriff shall not be abolished but the Legislature may prescribe the time when, and the method by which, such offices shall be filled and the compensation to be paid to such officers and may vest in them additional powers and duties. No county office shall be abolished or consolidated with another office without making provision for the performance of all State duties now or hereafter prescribed by law to be performed by such county officer. Nothing contained herein shall affect Section 20 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, except as to such provisions therein as relate to regulating the jurisdiction and duties of any class of officers, to summoning and impanelling grand and petit juries, to assessing and collecting taxes for county purposes and to regulating the fees and compensation of county officers. No law authorizing the establishing or abolishing of such municipal corporation pursuant to this Section shall become operative or effective until approved by a majority of the qualified electors participating in an election held in said County, but so long as such municipal corporation exists under this Section the Legislature may amend or extend the law authorizing the same without referendum to the qualified voters unless the Legislative act providing for such amendment or extension shall provide for such referendum.

Which was read the first time in full and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

By Senator Sikes—
