SECTION 6. The assessor shall examine each claim for exemption filed with him or referred to him and shall allow the same if found to be in accordance with law, by marking the same approved and by making the proper deductions on the tax books. SECTION 10. If any portion of the Act, or any section, sentence, clause, phrase or word thereof, shall be held to be void or ineffective because of uncertainty, repugnance to the Constitution, or otherwise, the remainder of the Act shall not be affected thereby, but shall remain in force so as to effectuate as nearly as possible the purpose and intent of this Act.

SECTION 11. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of said conflict.

SECTION 12. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after it shall become a law.

Honorable W. C. Hodges,

Honorable W. B. Bishop,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Sirs:

Your Conference Committee, appointed to adjust the differences existing between the Senate and the House on House

Bill No. 54, have had the same under consideration and do respectfully recommend as follows:

That the House do recede from its amendment to Section 2, reading as follows:

"And this Act shall not apply to bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued by any political subdivision of this State after the effective date of this Act," and that said Section 2 be amended to read as follows:

"Section 2. That this Act is passed under the police power of the State and should be liberally construed by the Courts with a view of carrying out the purposes of this Act; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be applicable to or effect the collection of any indebtedness, or securities evidencing or securing same, whether owing, issued or pledged by any such counties, political subdivisions, municipalities or other taxing districts, and representing loans which have been or may be authorized or made to or for the benefit of them or either of them by the Government of the United States or any agency thereof or to any bonds or other evidence of indebtedness, refunding or otherwise, issued after the passage of this Act."

That the title to said Act be amended as follows: Strike out the period and insert:

By permission the following Minority Conference Committee report was read:

MINORITY REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Tallahassee, Fla., May 8, 1935.

Honorable W. C. Hodges,
President of the Senate,

Honorable W. B. Bishop,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,

Sirs:

As one of the Managers on the part of the Senate appointed to the Conference for the purpose of adjusting differences existing between the Senate and House of Representatives on House Bill No. 54, I cannot agree to the majority report and beg leave to file this minority report.

I cannot agree to the majority report for the reason that the majority report does not confine itself to the difference submitted to the committee, but includes subjects not within the disagreement between the two houses.

The amendment, which is the cause of the disagreement, refers only to bonds or other evidences of indebtedness after the effective date of this Act; the conference report undertakes to re-write section two of the bill entirely, and to add an entirely new subject matter to the exception from the application of the bill, in that it goes outside of the record and undertakes to make the bill inapplicable and ineffective as to indebtedness or securities given for loans obtained from the Government of the United States, or any agency thereof, regardless of whether the same are already outstanding, or whether they may be issued in the future.

This brings in new subject matter which, although it may have been germane to the bill had it been incorporated originally, or by amendment before its final passage, is not within the scope of the differences existing between the House and Senate and submitted to this Committee for consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

T. G. FUTCH,

One of the Managers on the part of the Senate.

Senator Beacham moved the adoption of the Majority Conference Committee report.

Pending the adoption of the Majority Conference Committee report, Senator Futch moved that the hour of adjournment be further extended five (5) minutes.

After a decision, order, or requirement has been made by the Commission in any proceeding any party thereto may at any time make application for rehearing of the same, or any matter determined therein, and it shall be lawful for the Commission in its discretion to grant such a rehearing if sufficient reason therefor be made to appear. Applications for rehearing shall be governed by such general rules as the Commission may establish. No such application shall excuse any carrier or public utility from complying with or obeying any decision, order, or requirement of the Commission, or operate in any manner to stay or postpone the enforcement thereof, without the special order of the Commission. In case a rehearing is granted the proceedings thereupon shall conform as nearly as may be to the proceedings in an original hearing, except as the Commission may otherwise direct; and, if in its judgment, after such rehearing and the consideration of all facts, including those arising since the former hearing, it shall appear that the original decision, order or requirement is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, the Commission may reverse, change, or modify the same accordingly. Any decision, order, or requirement made after such rehearing, reversing, changing, or modifying the original determination shall be subject to the same provisions as an original order.

Section 2. Within thirty days after the entry of the order or decision of the Commission or within thirty days after the application for a rehearing is denied, or, if the application is granted, then within thirty days after the rendition of the decision on rehearing, the applicant may apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin, set aside, annul or suspend, in whole or in part, any such order or decision on the ground that such order is unlawful or unreasonable. No new or additional evidence may be introduced in such suit but the cause shall be heard on the record of the Commission as certified to by it. If it appears that the Commission failed to receive evidence properly proffered, on a hearing or rehearing, or an application therefor, the Court shall remand the case to the Commission with instructions to receive the testimony so proffered and rejected, and to enter a new order based upon the evidence theretofore taken, and such new evidence as it is directed to receive, unless it shall appear that such new evidence would not be controlling, in which case the Court shall so find in its order. In all collateral actions or proceedings the orders and decisions of the Commission shall be conclusive.

Section 3. The pendency of a suit to enjoin, set aside, annul or suspend any order or decision of the Railroad Commission shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of such order or decision; but the Court in its discretion may stay or suspend, in whole or in part the operation of such order or decision pending the final hearing and determination of the suit. No order so staying or suspending an order or decision of the Commission shall be made by the Court otherwise than upon five days' notice and after hearing, and if the order of the Commission is stayed or suspended the order suspending the same shall contain a specific finding based upon evidence submitted to the Court and identified by reference thereto, that great or irreparable damage would otherwise result to applicant and specifying the nature of the damage; provided, however, that the Court may grant a temporary stay restraining the operation of the Commission order or decision at any time before such hearing and determination of the application for a stay in the event it be of the opinion that irreparable loss or damage would result to applicant unless such temporary stay be granted, but such temporary stay shall remain in force only until the hearing and determination of the application for a stay upon notice as aforesaid. The hearing of such application for stay shall be given precedence and shall be expedited and assigned for hearing at the earliest practicable day after the expiration of notice herein above provided for. Every such temporary stay shall define the injury and state why it appears to be irreparable and why the order was granted without notice, and shall by its terms expire within such time after entry not to exceed ten days as the Court may fix unless within the time so fixed the order is extended for a like period for good cause shown and the reasons for such extension shall be entered of record. In case the order or decision of the Commission is stayed or a temporary stay granted the order of the Court shall not become effective until a suspending bond shall first have been executed and filed with and approved by the Court sufficient in amount and security to insure the prompt payment of all moneys which any person or corporation may be compelled to pay pending such proceedings, for transportation, transmission, product, commodity or service in excess of the charges fixed by the order or decision of the Commission, in case said order or decision is sustained.

Section 4. The Court may dismiss the suit, or enjoin, set aside, annul or suspend the order or decision complained of, in whole or in part, as the case may be; but in case the order or decision is wholly or partly vacated the Court may also, in its discretion, remand the matter to the Commission for such further proceedings, not inconsistent with its decree, as in the opinion of the Court justice may require. The order or decision shall not be enjoined, set aside, annulled or suspended, either in whole or in part, except for errors of law unless the Court is satisfied that the order or decision violates constitutional rights.
