By Senator Beacham—
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16:

A Resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare a draft of a proposed law for uniform municipal government under Section 24 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, the proper classification of the cities and towns of the State, according to population, and the preparation of general laws providing for their incorporation, government, jurisdiction, powers, duties and privileges under such classifications is a matter requiring the most careful consideration of present different forms of municipal government, varying powers and duties prescribed by present charters, and the divergent economic conditions existing in towns and cities of the same size, and

WHEREAS, it is the sense of the legislature that a thorough and complete study of these local conditions should be made in order that as the result thereof beneficial laws may be passed setting up a general classification law for towns and cities, according to population, as well as carefully planned uniform laws covering towns and cities within each classification,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring that three members of the Senate, and four members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker, shall constitute a committee to make a thorough study and investigation of the reasonable classification requirements of towns and cities of this State, of the present forms of government therein, of the powers and duties now prescribed by law for and of the varying economic conditions existing in said towns and cities, and to hold hearings with representatives of the towns and cities of Florida, concerning these problems, all to the end that a complete and comprehensive proposed law with the view of carrying into effect the purpose and intent of Section 24 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida, shall be prepared and drafted and reported and submitted by said committee to the 1937 session of the Florida Legislature.

Which was read the first time in full and went over under the rules.

By permission, the following message from the Governor was received:
