Engrossed Amendment No. 1:

Strike out everything after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof, the following:

Section 1. That there shall be fifteen Judicial Circuits in this State, of not less than 50,000 inhabitants according to the State census of 1935, and the county or counties composing each and the number of Circuit Judges therein, respectively, shall be as follows:

First Circuit: Composed of Escambia, Santa Rosa, Okaloosa and Walton, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Second Circuit: Composed of Franklin, Gadsden, Leon, Wakulla, Jefferson and Liberty, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Third Circuit: Composed of Madison, Taylor, LaFayette, Suwannee, Hamilton, Columbia, and Dixie, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Fourth Circuit: Composed of Duval, Clay and Nassau, and shall have three Circuit Judges in addition to the Circuit Judge of the Circuit Court of Duval County appointed under the provisions of Section 42, Article 5, of the Constitution.

Fifth Circuit: Composed of Marion, Citrus, Hernando, Lake, Sumter, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Sixth Circuit: Composed of Pinellas and Pasco, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Seventh Circuit: Composed of Volusia, Putnam, St. Johns and Flagler, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Eighth Circuit: Composed of Alachua, Baker, Gilchrist, Bradford, Union and Levy, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Ninth Circuit: Composed of Brevard, Orange, Osceola, Seminole, Indian River, Okeechobee, St. Lucie and Martin, and shall have three Circuit Judges.

Tenth Circuit: Composed of Polk and Highlands, and shall have two Circuit Judges.

Eleventh Circuit: Composed of Dade and Monroe, and shall have four Circuit Judges.

Twelfth Circuit: Composed of Manatee, Sarasota, Hardee.

DeSoto, Charlotte, Glades, Lee, Hendry and Collier, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Thirteenth Circuit: Composed of Hillsborough, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Fourteenth Circuit: Composed of Holmes, Washington, Bay, Jackson, Calhoun and Gulf, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Fifteenth Circuit: Composed of Broward and Palm Beach, and shall have two Circuit Judges;

Section 2. That in Circuits composed of two or more counties having only two Circuit Judges under the provisions of this Act, both Judges shall not be residents of the same county; except that in the Tenth Circuit both circuit judges shall reside in Polk County; Provided, that in the Seventh Circuit one Judge shall reside in Volusia County, and one Judge shall reside in one of the other counties of said Circuit, and that in the Twelfth Circuit one Judge shall be appointed from and be an actual bona fide resident of Lee County, and shall reside in Lee County during the continuance of his appointment, and in the Ninth Circuit one Judge shall reside in either Seminole or Brevard County, one Judge shall reside in Orange or Osceola County and one Judge shall reside in Indian River, Okeechobee, St. Lucie or Martin County; and in the Fifth Circuit one judge shall continuously reside in Marion County; and that in the Eleventh Circuit one Judge shall be appointed from and be an actual bona fide resident of Monroe County, and shall reside in Monroe County during the continuance of his appointment. Provided, however, the provisions of this section shall not apply to the Sixth Judicial Circuit.

Section 3. The Circuit Judges holding office at the time of the ratification at the general election of 1934 of the amendment to Section 45 of Article V of the Florida Constitution, shall severally continue in office and exercise jurisdiction until their then existing term or terms of office as Judge or Judges of the Circuits, respectively, in which the county of their resident may be included.

Section 3½. In all circuits having two or more Circuit Judges, the Governor shall designate one of said judges to be the senior judge of such circuit and the senior judge so designated shall assign the work of his circuit to himself and his associate judge or judges.

Section 4. That there shall be at least two regular terms of the Circuit Court held in each county each year, also any special term or terms that may be necessary from time to time; Provided that such regular terms may be held at such time or times as now fixed by law, or until changed by statute; Provided that in Circuits having more than one Circuit Judge, at least one of said Judges shall be available, as nearly as possible at all times to hold and conduct hearings in Chambers.

Section 5. No civil or criminal cases, suits in equity, actions at law, statutory or otherwise; and no writs, process, pleading, motion, information, presentment, order, finding, decree, judgment or sentence, shall abate, be quashed, set aside, reversed, qualified, dismissed, defeated, or held to be in error because of the changes in any Circuit or Circuits, or Judge or Judges, by reason of any provision or provisions of this Act.

Section 6. This Act and all appointments under this Act shall take effect sixty days after the same becomes a law, as provided under the said Amendment of Section 45 of Article V, Constitution of Florida; Provided that no Circuit Judge, shall be appointed to any vacancy or to any term of office except as authorized under the provisions of said Section 45 of Article V of the Constitution and this Act.

Section 7. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Have carefully examined same, and find same correctly engrossed, and return same herewith.

Very respectfully,

J. W. TURNER,

Chairman of Committee.

And Senate Bill No. 4, contained in the above report was certified to the House of Representatives.
