INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

By Senator Kendrick—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14:

Being a Resolution endorsing the historical restoration, preservation and maintenance program for Saint Augustine, Florida; extending appreciation to those whose vision and unselfish service to Florida has made possible such program; and pledging the co-operation of the State of Florida in the accomplishment of such program:

WHEREAS, Saint Augustine, Florida, is the oldest community of the white race in the United States having continuous history, and

WHEREAS, Saint Augustine possesses historical values, cultural traditions, and elements of unique beauty and charm, including important historic sites of State and National interest, such as Forts Marion and Matanzas, outstanding examples of Spanish military architecture of the American Colonial period, the old City Gates and other historic structures of unusual interest, and

WHEREAS, it seems desirable to assure the restoration, the preservation and the maintenance of these and other important landmarks, structures, sites and records of antiquity relating to Saint Augustine, in order properly to interpret and understand the history of this State as well as all American history, and

WHEREAS, the City of St. Augustine, Florida, has appointed a National Committee to study the possibilities of such restoration, preservation, and maintenance, and

WHEREAS, the said National Committee for the Restoration of Saint Augustine, co-operating with Carnegie Institution of Washington, has formulated a plan for such restoration and preservation, which plan has been officially adopted by all concerned, and

WHEREAS, other scientific and historical agencies, recognized and known throughout the United States and in foreign countries, such as the American Council of Learned Societies, the Smithsonian Institution of Washington, the Social Science Research Council and Carnegie Corporation of New York, are co-operating in this program, and

WHEREAS, the entire State of Florida will enjoy great benefit from such restoration program, now in progress at Saint Augustine under the leadership and guidance of Carnegie Institution of Washington, the official representatives of the City of St. Augustine, and of the County of St. Johns, and other distinguished citizens of Florida, which program has already been, and will be increasingly instrumental in attracting large numbers of visitors and permanent residents to this State, such as has resulted from the restoration and preservation of historical sites in the State of Virginia and elsewhere.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring, that the historical restoration, preservation, and maintenance program for Saint Augustine, Florida, be and the same is hereby endorsed; that our sincere appreciation be extended to those whose vision and unselfish service to this State has made possible such program; and that the State of Florida does hereby pledge itself to co-operate in accomplishing the vital objectives of this important restoration, preservation and maintenance program.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Fla., May 11, 1937.

Hon. D. Stuart Gillis,
 President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13:

To create a Commission to be known as the Golden Gate International Exposition, 1939, Commission; providing for its Members, Rights and Duties.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF FLORIDA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING:

Section 1. That the Governor of Florida is hereby authorized to appoint a Commission to be known as the Golden Gate International Exposition, 1939, Commission, which shall consist of fifteen (15) persons, six (6) of whom shall be Senators of the State of Florida, one to be appointed from each Congressional District of the State of Florida and one from the State at large, and six (6) of whom shall be members of the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, one to be appointed from each Congressional District of the State of Florida, and one from the State at large. One (1) of whom shall be the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Florida, and one (1) of whom shall be the Governor of this State, and the fifteenth (15th) person shall be the person to be named by the Florida National Exhibits Incorporated as its representative. The Governor shall be the ex officio chairman of this Commission.

Section 2. These Commissioners will have the privilege of leasing or constructing a building, or buildings, and providing for exhibits and representations of the State of Florida in the Golden Gate International Exposition, San Francisco, California, to be held during the year 1939, and co-operate with other States in a combined regional exhibit if the said Commission shall see fit so to do. The Commission shall have charge of installing and maintaining the exhibit of the products and resources of this State, locating and exhibiting the same, and such other purposes as the Commission deems necessary, and are authorized to make the proper disposition of such products, resources, etc., as they deem advisable, at the close of the said Exposition.

Section 3. No member of the Commission shall receive any compensation directly or indirectly for his services, but shall be entitled to and allowed his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties, and shall have the power to employ the proper number of persons who, in the Commission's opinion, is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. And that no expenses shall be authorized or paid under the terms of this resolution in excess of the contributions theretofore received; and provided further any such expenses as may be authorized shall be paid exclusively from such contributions.

Section 4. There shall be no appropriation for the carrying out of this Concurrent Resolution, but the Commissioner of Agriculture may receive from any source contributions to aid in carrying out the provisions of this Resolution, but the same shall be entered and accounted for in the same manner as departmental expenses made by him.

Very respectfully,
 J. A. CAWTHON,
 Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13, contained in the above message, was referred to the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

The following message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Fla., May 6, 1937.

Hon. D. Stuart Gillis,
 President of the Senate.
 Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

House Bill No. 244:

A bill to be entitled An Act designed to eradicate the "chainstore" evil declaring an economic state of affairs which is inimical to the general welfare to exist in the State of Florida by reason of the spread of this evil and providing regulations for the business of retail merchandising in Intra-state Commerce in this State to remedy this economic state of affairs and to eradicate this evil; requiring a permit to sell merchandise at retail: limiting the issuance of such permits to individuals who are bona fide residents of Florida, to partnerships in which all part owners are bona fide residents of Florida and to corporations in which all stock except preferred stock under certain circumstances, is owned by bona fide residents of Florida, requiring that the charters of all corporations securing such permits shall contain certain provisions and restrictions upon the ownership of stock, the residence of officers, directors and stockholders, and the scope of activity and the authority of such corporations, limiting the issuance of permits to partnerships in which part owners have not as individuals or as members of other partnerships secured a permit, classifying merchandising and limiting the issuance of permits to one for each classification to any one person, firm or corporation, providing for a general merchandising permit and limiting the issuance of such permits to one for any one person, firm or corporation, providing that permits shall not be issued for a business to be conducted in connection with or incidental to any other retail business of the same classification nor under the same trade name as some other to which a permit for the same classification has been issued, providing that no permit may be issued for any business which is to be subsidiary to or related in anywise to any manufacturing business, providing that no such permit shall issue to any applicant who is engaged in any combination, conspiracy or agreement with other permittees to buy all or the large majority of his merchandise from one concern or in cooperation with other permittees, providing that no permit shall be issued to any applicant who is to be the agent of any concern whose principal business is that of retail merchandising, providing that no such permit shall be issued to any applicant who is engaged in any combination, conspiracy or agreement with some other person or firm to operate, manage or supervise the business to be conducted, providing that no such permit shall be issued to any applicant who is to purchase all or the large majority of his merchandise from any person or concern whose principal business is that of retail merchandising, providing that no such permit shall be issued if the business for which it is issued or the assets of said business or evidence of interest in said business has been hypothecated to any person or concern whose principal business is that of retail merchandising, or to any person or concern in privity to a person or concern whose principal business is that of retail merchandising, providing for the application for the issuance of such permits, the substance of such permits, the limits upon such permits and the fees to be paid for same, appropriating funds for the administration and enforcement of this Act, creating a Bureau of Commerce and the position of Secretary, defining their duties, power and authority and prescribing their pay and respective qualifications, and empowering said bureau to administer and enforce these provisions and issue such permits, providing for the payment of fees for such permits to the County Tax Collectors and the countersignature of such permits by such tax collectors, prohibiting the issuance of occupational licenses except upon presentation of such a permit, and providing for the annual renewal of such permits, empowering the bureau to require information from permittees to determine whether such permits are subject to revocation, requiring that such permits be prominently displayed at the place of business issued for, empowering the Bureau of Commerce or the Circuit Court to revoke such permits on grounds enumerated therein, providing remedies for the enforcement of this Act, defining false statements made in securing such permits as perjury and providing penalties upon conviction thereof, defining the sale of merchandise at retail in Intrastate Commerce without first securing a permit as a misdemeanor and providing penalties upon conviction thereof, excepting from its operation certain services, labor and merchandise under certain circumstances, defining the terms "Selling At Retail," "Retail Merchandising," "Merchandise," "Trade Name," "Bona Fide Resident" and including a separability clause and an emergency clause as to effective date. To provide that this Act shall take effect if it is so determined by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question in the General State and County Elections to be held in the State of Florida in 1938; to prescribe the qualifications of electors to participate in said election; to prescribe the manner of holding conducting and determining said election and result, and to provide further that this Act shall become effective if a Court of Competent Jurisdiction prevents such referendum.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

J. A. CAWTHON,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 244, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only and referred to the Committee on Finance and Taxation.

berlin upon a subject matter to be selected by him;

Be it further resolved that a Committee of three members of the House of Representatives be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and three members of the Florida State Senate to be appointed by the President of the State Senate do in behalf and as a Committee representing the Florida Legislature extend to the said Colonel Clarence D. Chamberlin a cordial invitation to address the joint session of the Florida Legislature to be assembled at the hour of eight o'clock on May 11, A. D. 1937;

Be it further resolved that the said committee to be appointed herein do extend to the Governor of the State of Florida, Honorable Fred P. Cone, to each member of the cabinet and to each and every department personnel of the State of Florida to join and sit with the membership of the Florida Legislature to listen to the address of Colonel Clarence D. Chamberlin;

Be it further resolved that a copy of this Resolution be under the great Seal of the State of Florida delivered by the above appointed committee to the said Colonel Clarence D. Chamberlin as a token of friendship and good will from the membership of the Florida Legislature, representing the citizens of the State of Florida to attend the joint session of the Florida Legislature;

Be it further resolved that a copy of this Resolution be spread upon a page of the Journal of the House of Representatives and the Journal of the Senate of the State of Florida and be made a permanent record of this Legislature.

Which amendment reads as follows:

Amendment No. 1:

In line 27 (typewritten bill), strike out the words: "At the hour of eight o'clock," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "After adjournment of Local Bill Session."

Very respectfully,

J. A. CAWTHON,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Westbrook, Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Calendar, on May 11, 1937, the following bills were taken up as Special Orders:

Senate Bill No. 142:

A bill to be entitled An Act to provide for a State-wide Retirement System for Teachers; to provide for its management and regulation; to define its membership and benefits payable thereunder; to broaden the definition of the word "Teacher," to include employees of the Boards of Public Instruction and employees of the Education Institutions of Higher Learning of the State and employees of the Florida Industrial School for Boys and employees of the Florida Industrial School for Girls and employees of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind and employees of the Board of Trustees created under this Act and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and his employees and the employees of the State Board of Education who work under the supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction; to provide for contributions by the members of the retirement system and by the State of Florida; to appropriate money from the General Revenue Fund of the State for the payment of part of the costs of maintenance and all of the costs of administering the system and to regulate the use of these monies; to provide that all benefits payable under the system shall be exempt from all taxes and from execution and attachment and other legal process and shall be non-assignable except as provided therein; and to provide penalties for violations of this Act and of rules of regulations lawfully made under authority thereof.

Was taken up and read the second time in full.

The Committee on Education offered the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 142:

In Section 1, sub-section 4 (typewritten bill), strike out the words: entire sub-section 4 and insert in lieu thereof the following: (4) "Teacher" shall mean any member of the teaching or professional staff of any public free school, vocational school, the Florida Industrial School for Boys and the Florida Industrial School for Girls and the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind, the University of Florida, the Florida State College for Women, the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical College, or any person having had five years of teaching experience and holding a valid teacher's certificate filling the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction or of State Superintendent of Public Instruction or any person having had five years of teaching experience and holding a valid teacher's certificate who may be employed as a supervisor in the State Department of Public Instruction or who may be employed as a supervisor or supervising principal by a County Board of Public Instruction. In all cases of doubt the Board of Trustees shall determine whether any person is a teacher as defined in this Act.

Senator Kanner moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Education also offered the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 142:

Strike out all of Sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 3 and in lieu thereof insert the following:

(2) The membership of the Board of Trustees shall consist of six persons as follows:

(a) The State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(b) The Attorney General.

(c) The State Comptroller.

(d) The State Treasurer.

(e) Two members who shall be known as teacher members and who shall be appointed by the Governor for terms of three years each. These appointees shall be teachers (as defined in this Act) of distinction who shall have taught school for at least five years.

The initial terms of the first two teacher members of the Board of Trustees shall be two and three years, respectively. Following the completion of the initial terms, the terms of office of such members shall be three years.

(3) Until the appointment and qualifying of the two teacher members to be appointed the other four members are empowered to perform the duties of the Board of Trustees.

Senator Murphy moved that House Bill No. 101 be recalled from the Committee on Judiciary "A" and referred to the Committee on Motor Vehicles.

Which was agreed to and it was so ordered.

By permission the following Resolution was introduced:

By Senator Tillman—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15:

Relating to the establishment of a branch of the Florida State Hospital at some point in South Florida.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

1st. That by reason of the crowded conditions now existing at the State Hospital at Chattahoochee and the great distance of that institution from a large center of population in South Florida, the Legislature finds as a fact that the time has come when it is expedient to establish a branch of the State Hospital at some point in South Florida, and that both from a business and humanitarian standpoint the establishment of such a branch would be for the best interest of the State.

2nd. In order to consummate this necessary addition to the State Institution a joint commission of the Senate and House of Representatives, to consist of three Senators and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, is hereby created for the purpose of receiving offers of lands, buildings, sites, and gifts from individuals, communities or other interested parties, and to study the same when received and report back to the Legislature not later than May 25, 1937, the results of the work herein authorized, together with recommendations and such proposed legislation to effect the immediate establishment of such a branch of the Florida State Hospital in South Florida as the said commission may deem wise and to the best interest of the State.

3rd. The Board of State Institutions is hereby authorized and directed to give to such commission such assistance by way of counsel, advice and the furnishing of such clerks and other clerical help as may be necessary to insure the successful work of said commission.

4th. Such moneys as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this Resolution are hereby appropriated from any funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, said moneys to be spent upon the approval of said commission and the presiding officer of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

5th. Due to the shortness of time this Resolution shall have the immediate consideration of the Senate, and the request is respectfully made that the House of Representatives also give the Resolution immediate consideration.

Which was read the first time in full.

Senator Tillman moved that the rules be waived and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15 be read the second time in full.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15 was read the second time in full.

Senators McKenzie and Savage offered the following amendment to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15:

Add the words Central or before the words South Florida.

Senator McKenzie moved the adoption of the amendment. Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The question was put on the adoption of the Concurrent Resolution, as amended.

Which was agreed to and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15, as amended, was adopted and referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

Senate Bill No. 280:

A bill to be entitled An Act making an appropriation for the maintenance of the Judah P. Benjamin Memorial in Manatee County, Florida.

Was taken up in its order and read the second time in full.

Senator Tervin moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 280 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 280 was read the third time in full.

Senator Westbrook now in the Chair.

Upon the passage of the bill the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Adams, Beacham, Beall, Black, Butler, Clarke, Coulter, Dame, Dugger, Gomez, Graham, Harper, Hinely, Hodges, Holland, Johns, Kelly, Kendrick, McArthur, McKenzie, Mapoles, Murphy, Parker, Parrish, Rose, Sharit, Smith, Sweger, Tervin, Tillman, Touchton, Walker, Westbrook, Wynn—34.

Nays—None.

So the bill passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives immediately by waiver of the rule.

Senate Bill No. 558:

A bill to be entitled An Act to authorize and direct the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions to locate, establish and maintain branch of the Florida State Hospital at DeFuniak Springs, Florida, for the treatment of aged, infirm and tubercular patients of said institution; to authorize the purchase of the Palmer College property for said purpose; to provide for the management and control of said branch; and to make appropriation for the purchase of said property and for the purchase of equipment, supplies and maintenance thereof, and for the payment of salaries and wages of employees in connection therewith.

Was taken up in its order and read the second time in full.

Senator Beall moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 558 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 558 was read the third time in full.

The President now presiding.

Upon the passage of the bill the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams, Beacham, Beall, Black, Butler, Coulter, Dame, Dugger, Gomez, Graham, Harper, Holland, Kanner, Kelly, Kendrick, Mapoles, Murphy, Nordman, Parrish, Rose, Savage, Sharit, Smith, Tervin, Tillman, Touchton, Walker, Westbrook, Wynn—30.

Nays—Senators Clarke, Hinely, Johns, McArthur, McKenzie, Parker, Sweger—7.

So the bill passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.

The hour of adjournment having arrived a point of order was called and the Senate took a recess at 1:01 o'clock P. M. until 2:30 o'clock P. M. this day.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate reconvened at 2:30 o'clock P. M. pursuant to recess order.

The President in the Chair.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to the names:

Mr. President; Senators Adams, Beacham, Beall, Black, Butler, Clarke, Coulter, Dame, Dugger, Gomez, Graham, Harper, Hinely, Hodges, Holland, Johns, Kanner, Kelly, Kendrick, McArthur, McKenzie, Mapoles, Murphy, Nordman, Parker, Parrish, Rose, Savage, Sharit, Smith, Sweger, Tervin, Tillman, Touchton, Walker, Westbrook, Wynn—38.
