WHEREAS, such articles through which statements have been made and printed question the integrity of former officials of the State of Florida and of other individuals which should have the attention of the Florida Legislature and of the citizens of the State of Florida, which said statements and articles have been signed by one Ollie Gore, a former employee and official of one of the largest race tracks in the United States and more especially the State of Florida, and

WHEREAS, the said Ollie Gore is now undergoing a Federal investigation which has been in progress for some time and now continues as a witness for the United States Government, in connection with this subject matter by reason thereof, he, the said Ollie Gore, has testified before special agents of the Intelligence Unit of the Department of Internal Revenue of the United States, and

WHEREAS, such articles so appearing in the press charging and insinuating graft and corruption in the operation of the Governmental bodies of the State of Florida and its political subdivisions purport to have been upon sworn testimony and with documentary evidence, and

WHEREAS, the contents of this testimony as well as the records examined by the Federal Government in the investigation of income tax returns of persons, firms and corporations purporting to be involved in said exposure by the said Ollie Gore suggest existence of such conditions of graft and corruption in the preceding administration against the interests of the citizenship of the State of Florida, and affecting also the integrity and good name of each and every citizen of the State of Florida and the State of Florida and its political subdivisions, so that if such acts of graft and corruption in fact exist, make the situation a serious one as being against clean, decent and honest governmental operations and against the name of governmental officials, and

WHEREAS, the citizenry of the State of Florida are looking to this Legislature for maintenance of clean government, and for assistance to restore confidence in their government and in their officials holding governmental positions and to empower every governmental department to such an extent that the laws of this State will be enforced and honest government will be had to prevent graft and corruption and to protect the good name of the State and to restore faith of the people in their government where such is necessary, and

WHEREAS, there is time remaining in this Session of the Legislature to properly investigate and inquire into matters and things set forth in said articles appearing in the press of the State of Florida, and more especially The Miami Tribune, and

WHEREAS, The Florida State Legislature did in its Sessions of 1931 duly pass its so-called Racing Bill in order to furnish the citizens and visitors of this State with the economic and recreational advantages to be derived from the sport of racing, and also in order to make the sport lawful and to protect the public participating in the same with the result that it has helped make the State a great winter resort and has brought substantial revenue and popularity to Florida; and

WHEREAS, it is of greatest importance that racing be kept clean and well regulated and free from the suspicion of dishonesty and disconnected from the embroilments and tarnishments of corrupt politics lest the State itself suffer in its reputation by the suspicious circumstances suggested by said articles; and

WHEREAS, the articles suggest expenditure of money in the Legislature of 1933 at a time when House Bill No. 767 was pending and which bill had for its purpose the matter of preventing the barter or sale of preferential dates to any race track, and the said bill was defeated at the same time as the expenditures were alleged to have been made; and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that not only racing but lobbying and government itself be purged of the accusations if untrue or that proper punishment and disrepute be imposed if the accusations be true.

WHEREAS, the people of the State demand that the Legislature take cognizance of the charges and statements that have been made against a former Governor of the State of Florida and against individuals connected therewith in various capacities to the end and these charges may either be proved or disproved or found to be true or untrue, and

WHEREAS, it is deemed best by the membership of the Florida Legislature, as direct representatives of the people of the State of Florida, that a competent committee be appointed with full and complete power to make any and all investigations such committee may find necessary to learn the true facts surrounding and involving the statements and charges made as herein set forth,
