D. 1938, and on his sixty-fifth birthday, death, as it must to all men, came to Honorable Cary Dayton Landis, Attorney General of Florida, at a time when he was actively engaged in performing the arduous duties of the office of Attorney General; and,

WHEREAS, Cary Dayton Landis aggressively dedicated his energy and ability as an executive and as an attorney to the service of the State which he so dearly loved; and,

NOW THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA that the Senate does hereby record this memorial and expression of bereavement upon the death of the Honorable Cary Dayton Landis.

IN MEMORIAL—CARY DAYTON LANDIS

Born near Claypool, Indiana, May 10, 1873, he spent his boyhood days on the farm of his father. He early determined, however, to make his life work the practice of the profession of law, and his love for this profession continued with him throughout his entire life. He received his early education in the elementary and high schools of North Manchester, Indiana, his college education at North Manchester College, the Indiana State Normal School, and his legal education at the University of Michigan. Prior to his attendance at the University of Michigan, he was teacher, principal and superintendent of several Indiana High Schools. Upon receiving his law degree from the University of Michigan, he began the practice of law in Huntington, Indiana, and there, as throughout his life, was active in the Democratic party political movements of the day, becoming chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee, and later, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee. While in Huntington, he occupied the bench as special Judge, which, in August of 1901, he resigned to come to DeLand, Florida, to assist in establishing the law school at John B. Stetson University, at DeLand. In 1903, he resigned as Professor of Law and entered the practice of law at DeLand, continuing in active practice until 1927, at which time he retired. He was a senior member of one of the most prominent law firms in the South. In 1911, he became State's Attorney of what was then the Seventh Judicial Circuit of the State of Florida, and had the distinction of being nominated to such office by the majority vote of each county comprising that circuit. In 1931, he was appointed by the Governor to the office of the Attorney General of Florida, an office to which he was elected for two full terms in the years 1932 and 1936. He received national recognition for his work in connection with the enforcement of laws relating to the suppression of crime, and was elected Vice-President of the National Association of Attorneys General. He was a man of sterling character, extreme loyalty, honest, courageous, aggressive and fearless. He was a great leader of men. Florida has lost one of its first citizens and the legal profession one of its most brilliant minds. May this permanent record of his achievements express and show the esteem that he merits from the people among whom he lived and for whom he devoted his life's effort.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution, certified by the Secretary of the State of Florida under the Great Seal of the State of Florida be immediately forwarded to the bereaved family of Honorable Cary Dayton Landis.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be spread upon a page of the Journal of the Senate of the State of Florida, and made a permanent record of this Legislature.
