Hon. J. Turner Butler,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

By Messrs. Lehman and Leonard, of Seminole—
House Bill No. 1261:

A bill to be entitled An Act to abolish the Town of Longwood, a municipality in Seminole County, State of Florida, and to abolish the municipal government in said Town: making provisions for the protection of the creditors, paying the debts and preserving the assets of the abolished Town of Longwood by creating a special tax district in Seminole County, to be known as the "Tax District of Longwood, Florida," and defining the territory included therein: creating a Board of Trustees of five members to be the governing board of said "Tax District of Longwood, Florida": vesting the title of all assets and property of said Town of Longwood in the "Tax District of Longwood, Florida": prescribing the powers and duties of said "Tax District of Longwood, Florida," and the Board of Trustees: providing for the assessment and collection of taxes: authorizing the Board of Trustees of the "Tax District of Longwood, Florida," to determine and levy an annual tax for the payment of the debts and obligations of said town and the creation of a sinking fund for the payment of all outstanding bonds and interest, and providing ways and means of the enforcement of said levy and collection thereof: prescribing the duties of the officers, agents and employees of the Town of Longwood prior to and at the time of dissolution: providing for the creation of a non-taxing, co-operative association to receive the assets and property remaining at time of completion of liquidation, prescribing its duties, powers and method of operation: providing for the termination of said taxing district and disposal of all remaining assets: providing for the preservation, operation and maintenance of the water plant and water works system: providing for a continuance of the electric light contract and lighting service thereunder and the use of the fire-fighting equipment: preserving the name "Longwood": providing that the Board of Trustees shall be appointed by the Governor of Florida, designating their terms of office and qualifications, method of qualifying: declaring vacancies and generally prescribing the powers, and duties and method of doing business as said Board of Trustees: confirming the tax roll and levy for the year 1939: providing for and requiring the performance of certain duties by certain County officials: providing for holding a referendum election to determine whether this Act shall become effective and operative: providing qualifications for persons entitled to participate and vote in said election: providing a date upon which said election shall be held, and notice thereof: providing for the appointment of a clerk and inspectors of election: providing for registration of persons who are qualified to vote in said election: prescribing the duties of the clerk and inspectors of election and officers of said election: and officers of said Town of Longwood, relative to holding said election and making the same mandatory; providing for calling of election by Mayor in event election herein provided should not be held or the same should not be legally held: prescribing the form of ballot to be used in said election: providing for payment of all expenses of said election: and providing when the Act shall become operative and effective: and repealing all laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA.

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.
