Senate Bill No. 1139:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Chapter 14179 of the Legislature of the State of Florida for the year 1929 entitled: "An Act repealing Chapter 10764, of the Legislature of the State of Florida for the year 1925, entitled 'An Act to abolish the present municipal government of the Town of Lake Worth in Palm Beach County, Florida: to create and establish a new municipality to be known as the City of Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County, Florida: to legalize and validate the ordinances of said City of Lake Worth and official acts thereunder: to fix and provide its territorial limits, jurisdiction and powers and the jurisdiction and powers of its officers' approved June 3, 1925, and creating and establishing a municipality known as the City of Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County, Florida, legalizing and validating the ordinances of said City of Lake Worth and official acts thereunder: fixing and providing its territorial limits, jurisdiction and powers and jurisdiction and powers of its officers," by amending Section Three, Article XI, thereof.

The following proof of publication was attached to Senate Bill No. 1139 when it was introduced in the Senate:

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY TO THE FLORIDA LEGISLATURE OF 1939 FOR THE PASSAGE OF A SPECIAL OR LOCAL LAW.

Notice is hereby given that the City of Lake Worth, a municipal corporation, existing wholly in Palm Beach County, Florida, intends to apply to the Florida Legislature of 1939 for the passage of a special or local law relating to the said City of Lake Worth, and the substance and substantial text of the contemplated law which said City of Lake Worth will ask to be introduced in and passed by said Florida Legislature are as follows:

An Act to amend Chapter 14179 of the Legislature of the State of Florida for the year 1929 entitled: "An Act repealing Chapter 10764, of the Legislature of the State of Florida for the year 1925, entitled 'An Act to abolish the present municipal government of the town of Lake Worth in Palm Beach County, Florida; to create and establish a new municipality to be known as the City of Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County, Florida; to legalize and validate the ordinances of said City of Lake Worth and official Acts thereunder; to fix and provide its territorial limits, jurisdiction and powers and the jurisdiction and powers of its officers' approved June 3, 1925, and creating and establishing a municipality known as the City of Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County, Florida, legalizing and validating the ordinances of said City of Lake Worth and official Acts thereunder; fixing and providing its territorial limits, jurisdiction and powers of its officers," by amending Section Three, Article XI, thereof.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article 11 of Chapter 14179 of the Legislature of the State of Florida for the year 1929, entitled "An Act repealing Chapter 10764, of the Legislature of the State of Florida for the year 1925, entitled "An Act to abolish the present municipal government of the Town of Lake Worth in Palm Beach County, Florida; to create and establish a new municipality to be known as the City of Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County, Florida; to create and validate the ordinances of said City of Lake Worth and official acts thereunder; to fix and provide its territorial limits, jurisdiction and powers and the jurisdiction and powers of its officers" approved June 3, 1925, and creating and establishing a municipality known as the City of Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County Florida, legalizing and validating the ordinances of said City of Lake Worth and official acts thereunder; fixing and providing its territorial limits, jurisdiction and powers and jurisdiction and powers of its officers," is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION THREE, ARTICLE XI: The City of Lake Worth, by and through its City Commission shall have power without a vote of the electors of said City to borrow a sum or sums not to exceed $50,000.00 during any fiscal year pledging the credit of the City therefor whenever a special emergency or need therefor shall arise; but in no event shall the City or any officer or officers thereof have authority or power to borrow a sum in excess of $50,000.00 during any fiscal year, provided that the amount outstanding and unpaid, under the above provision, shall at no time exceed the said $50,000.00 or to contract a loan or loans for the use of the City, or become obligated in any manner or form whatsoever or to pledge the funds, credit or property of the City therefor, unless and until the question of borrowing such money, contracting such loans, incurring such liability, and pledging the credit of the City therefor, shall have been authorized by a majority of the qualified freehold electors of such City actually voting at an election called and held in and for said City for the purpose of passing upon such questions; and any money borrowed, loan contracted or liability incurred by the City of any of its officers contrary to the provisions hereof, shall be absolutely null and void and of no effect.

Section 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Section 3. If any section, paragraph or clause or provision of this Act shall be held unconstitutional, the remaining provisions hereof shall nevertheless stand and be and remain of full force and effect.

Section 4. This Act shall take effect immediately upon its becoming a law.

Signed

G. H. BRANTLEY,
Mayor of City of Lake Worth.

(typewritten bill). Strike out Section 12, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 12. The City Council shall annually provide revenues for, and appropriate the same for payment into, said park and recreation ground fund. The amount of said revenues shall be equivalent to one and one-half mills on the dollar on the total of the current assessment roll of said City, but may be raised, in whole or in part, by ad valorem taxation, not to exceed one and one-half mills on the dollar, or by any other tax not prohibited by the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida. Upon request of a majority of the Commission, the City Council shall submit, at a general or special city election, the question of increasing the said revenue to an amount to be stated on the ballot, which amount shall not exceed the equivalent of 3 mills on the dollar on the total of the current assessment roll. Qualified electors who are freeholders may vote at said election. If a majority of the freeholders vote in favor of said proposal, the City Council shall provide the amount, subject to said limitation, and appropriate the same into said park and recreation ground fund. The amount so approved may be raised by an ad valorem tax on taxable property not to exceed one and one-half mills on the dollar, and the balance by any other tax not prohibited by the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida. Provided, that such additional revenues, funds and taxes so provided for, shall remain effective and in force not more than two years unless a like request is made and approved at another election, but in no event shall the combined taxes provided for herein exceed the equivalent of three mills for any one year."

GENERAL POWERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.—That the City Council of the said city, by a majority vote shall have the power to make, establish and ordain for the government of said city and the officers of said city such ordinances in writing and such resolutions not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States and the State of Florida, as they may deem necessary:

(a) To pave, repave, curb, open, widen, and otherwise improve public thoroughfares by whatever designation they are known, and to close, discontinue and vacate any part thereof; to construct and maintain sidewalks, sanitary sewers, storm sewers, drains, conduits and police and fire alarm systems.

(b) To regulate and restrict the use of all public thoroughfares, parks or public grounds and of all public works, plants and things herein mentioned and to prevent the obstruction on any portion or portions thereof; to install and maintain signs or instrumentalities to be observed in the use of any public highway, plant or grounds; to provide regulations with reference to the operation, speed and manner of movement of all manner of vehicles and animals moved over the same; to provide for the observation of such signs or instrumentalities both by pedestrians and by the operators of vehicles, whether mechanical or animal-drawn.

(c) To construct and maintain white-ways or other public lighting systems.

(d) To regulate the services to be rendered and the rates to be charged by buses, jitneys, cabs or other vehicles carrying passenger or freight, or both, within said city and to regulate the minimum height at which aircraft may be flown and to prohibit the operation of aircraft over places within the corporate limits of said city where people are congregated and to prohibit the landing of aircraft at any place or places within the corporate limits of the said city except such as are regularly designated by the City Council for such purpose.

(e) To compel property owners to connect with the city sewers; to erect and maintain such plants and to operate such barges and boats as may be deemed necessary for the neutralizing, destroying or disposition of sewerage, garbage, refuse trash or surplus water; to collect and dispose of sewerage offal, refuse, trash, debris, garbage or other things, which may be deemed to be a nuisance or detrimental to public health or welfare.

(f) To establish and construct new water distribution lines and/or improve and extend the present waterworks system of the said City; to provide for the establishment of public utilities necessary for supplying the city and its inhabitants with transportation, illumination power, communication, water and ice, also for the purpose of furnishing gas and heat and illumination, and whenever any of the above are established, may provide for the operation and maintenance of same.

(g) To eradicate mosquitoes or other pests and to require all lands, lots and other premises within said city to be kept clean, sanitary and free from weeds, trash or debris or to make them so at the expense of the owners thereof and to define, prevent or abate other nuisances and for the procedure to be adopted in abating any such nuisance and in case the owners of any property on which any nuisance is defined by such ordinance or ordinances shall not abate the same, then the city shall have the power to abate the same nuisance with its own officers or by any persons employed by said city. Any and all expenses incurred by the said city in abating any such nuisance upon any property within the corporate limits of said city shall constitute a lien against said land in favor of the city of Key West. A record of said lien shall be kept by the city in a book for that purpose to be entitled "Nuisance Lien Book" and all liens so created shall be enforceable by and on behalf of said City of Key West in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(h) To regulate or prevent the establishment or maintenance of any noisome or offensive business or condition within said city detrimental to the health or welfare of the inhabitants thereof.

(i) To regulate, license or prohibit the keeping of canines, felines or other animals and poultry or other fowl within said city and to prevent the same from running at large in the streets of the city or within the city limits and to provide for the destruction thereof; to regulate the location and manner of keeping barns, stables or any other place, which creates an offensive odor or noise.

(j) To regulate or prohibit the exercise or conduct of any dangerous or unwholesome business, trade, profession or employment within said city.

(k) To define, prohibit, make unlawful, abate and suppress the doing and maintenance of all things detrimental to the health, comfort, safety or welfare of the inhabitants of the said city and to provide penalties therefor.

(l) To provide for the punishment of persons who may at any time disturb the peace of the city or violate any of its ordinances, provided that such punishment shall not exceed a maximum fine of $250.00 or imprisonment of six months or both; provided, further, that all persons who default in their fines shall be committed to the city prison for the terms prescribed in the judgment of the court, and while thus committed shall be required to work for the city at such labor as his or her health and strength will permit.

(m) To provide for the inspection of and to regulate the sale of all foodstuffs, commodities or articles consumed or used within said city; to regulate, license and inspect weights, meters, measures and scales and to adopt the necessary ordinances to prohibit the maintenance or use of any such weights, meters, measures and scales found to be used in violation of such ordinances.

(n) To restrain and punish gambling, vagrancy and disorderly conduct.

(o) To license and control all privileges, businesses, occupations, professions and trades carried on, conducted, or engaged in within the city limits and the amount of such license shall be as determined by the city council and shall not be dependent upon the General State Revenue Law or Laws.

(p) To establish quarantine and health regulations for the city of Key West not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Health.

(q) To organize and provide for a fire department and adopt rules and regulations for the government of the same and to provide for the purchase of any and all fire-fighting equipment and supplies therefor.

(r) To pass and enforce ordinances to compel stationery steam engineers to pass an examination for licenses and to take out licenses and affix penalties for failure to do so.

(s) To compel the inspection of steam boilers, except marine boilers, and to compel employers to employ only licensed stationery engineers and to affix a penalty for a failure to do so and to compel employers and managers or servants to allow the inspection of boilers and to affix a penalty for a failure to do so.

(t) To establish hospitals and to provide the necessary rules and regulations for the operation of same.

(u) To affix and regulate from time to time the salary of the officers and employees of the city except as herein otherwise provided.

(v) To prescribe rules and regulations for the erection, removal, repair, moving and demolition of buildings in said city and to adopt and promulgate a building code not inconsistent with the zoning of said city as hereinafter provided.

(w) To make, establish and ordain such ordinances as may be necessary to protect and preserve the peace and good order upon all property owned, leased, managed or controlled by said City outside of the city limits; to affix and establish a fire limit in said city and to prescribe rules and regulations for and the class of buildings to be erected therein.

(x) To adopt and enforce local police, sanitary and other similar regulations not in conflict with the laws of the State of Florida; to do whatever is necessary and proper for the safety, health and general welfare of the inhabitants of the City of Key West and to exercise all powers of local self-government.

(y) To provide for the care, support and maintenance of orphan, dependent, delinquent or defective children, and of sick, aged, insane or indigent persons.

(z) To prevent persons having no visible means of support, paupers, and persons who may be dangerous to the peace and safety of the said city from coming to said city from without same; and for this purpose, to require any transportation company, the master of any ship or vessel, or the owner of any conveyance, bringing such person to said city, to take such person back to the place whence he was brought, or enter into bond with satisfactory security that such person shall not become a charge upon said city within one year from the date of his arrival; and also, to expel therefrom any such person.

(aa) To provide and maintain, either within or without the city, charitable, recreative, curative, corrective, detentive or penal institutions.

(bb) To declare that all territory, or any portions thereof, embraced within the corporate limits of said city shall be a bird sanctuary and to adopt all ordinances necessary to carry this power into effect.

(cc) To supervise and control all elections of said city, and to sit as a Board of Election Commissioners, whose duties shall be such as are now or hereafter be prescribed by ordinance.

(dd) For the proper and expeditious creation and enforcement of the above ordinances or new ordinances in said City, the City Council shall, following election of its President, create six departments of the City Government to be known as the departments of Finance, Public Works, Safety, Health and Sanitation, Welfare, and Taxation and Records. The President of the City Council shall appoint each Councilman to be the head of one department, who shall act as superintendent over all ordinances that properly come under his department, the determination of ordinances properly coming under the various departments to be fixed by common agreement of the Council President and Councilman.

(ee) The enumeration of particular powers by this Charter shall not be deemed or held to be exclusive, but in addition to the powers hereby expressly granted, and those implied therefrom, or appropriate to the exercise thereof, the said City Council shall have, may exercise all other powers which, under the Constitution and laws of Florida, it would be competent and appropriate for this Selection to specifically enumerate for the health, safety and general welfare of the inhabitants of the City of Key West.

Senator Ward moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Ward also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1599:

In Section 70 (typewritten bill), strike out Section 70 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 70. REGISTRATION OF VOTERS—The City Clerk shall be the registration officer for the said city and shall register all persons applying to him whose names are not already borne upon the registration book and who are qualified as electors under the provisions of this Charter. For this purpose the registration book shall be opened at his office sixty days before the holding of any municipal election, and shall remain open for registration for fifty days thereafter between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 12 m. and from 2 o'clock p. m. to 5 p. m. each day. Each person applying to be registered shall take the following oath, which will be administered by the City Clerk or his duly appointed deputy: "I do solemnly swear that I am a bona fide resident of the City of Key West and possess all the qualifications of an elector of said city." And person taking such oath who shall swear falsely shall be guilty of perjury. The name of each person so registered shall be entered in a book prepared for that purpose, which book shall show, under appropriate heading, the age, color, occupation and exact place of residence of each person so registered. The City Council may by ordinance provide for a revision of the registration list of voters when in their opinion a revision is necessary.

Senator Ward moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Ward also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1599.

In SECTION 3. Strike out Section 3 and insert in lieu thereof the following: Section 3. OFFICERS HOLD UNTIL SUCCESSORS QUALIFY—That all officers heretofore elected or appointed and holding office under the said municipality shall continue to hold their respective offices and to discharge the duties thereof and receive the emoluments thereof until their successors are elected and/or appointed and confirmed under the provisions of this Act, except that the present office of the Tax Assessor-Collector and of the Treasurer, shall not be superseded by the new offices of Assessor and Treasurer-Collector until the next regular Municipal election.

Senator Ward moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Ward also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1599:

Strike out SECTION 29 and insert the following: Section 29. ORDINANCES—All ordinances passed by the City Council shall be neatly engrossed and afterwards submitted, before going into effect, to the Mayor or Acting Mayor, for his approval. If, approved, the Mayor or Acting Mayor shall sign the same and return it to the City Council at the next regular meeting, if disapproved, he shall return the same, with his objection in writing, to the City Council at its next regular meeting, who shall cause the same to be entered in full upon the records of their proceedings, with the Mayor's objections thereto, and at said meeting shall proceed to consider said objections and pass upon the same. If upon consideration the City Council shall pass the ordinance by a majority of the total members, which vote shall be entered upon the records, the ordinance shall then become a law, the Mayor's veto to the contrary, notwithstanding. Any ordinance which shall not be returned to the City Council at its next regular meeting after its passage with the written veto, shall become a law in like manner as if approved by the Mayor or Acting Mayor. No ordinance shall become a law without having been read once upon two separate days. All ordinances before they shall become a law or take effect must be published by title at least one time in some newspaper published in the City of Key West; provided, that nothing contained herein shall prevent the City Council at any time, arranging, codifying, adding to or supplementing ordinances of the City of Key West and publishing the same in appropriate volume or volumes, which shall become the laws of the City of Key West upon the adoption of said codifications; said codifications being not inconsistent with this Charter.

Senator Ward moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Ward also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1599:

Strike out Section 58; and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 58. RATE OF TAXATION.—As soon as practicable, after such approval and adoption of the assessment roll, the City Council shall determine the amount and fix the rate of taxation and make the annual tax levies for the current year. Such levies shall not exceed in any year for ordinary municipal purposes a higher rate of tax than one per cent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within the corporate limits of said city. The word ordinary is to embrace all expense for police, gas, electric lights or other illuminating material and all other purposes strictly municipal, but a special levy may be made for payment of interest on debt and sinking fund, and also for a special tax not exceeding one-half of one per cent on the said valuation for waterworks and fire protection, and also shall make, for internal improvements and for general street cleaning purposes, such levy as the budget made by the City Council for the said year shall show to be necessary, but to be not more than seven-tenths of one per cent, upon the said valuation, all funds so raised shall be kept into a separate account and shall not under any circumstances be loaned or transferred to any other account or used for any other purpose other than that for which they were approved, and also a special tax for and indebtedness fund not exceeding one-half of one per cent on the city valuation for city indebtedness purpose in addition to the special levy authorized by law for payment of interest on and not less than two per centum annually of the principal of the outstanding bonded indebtedness, which indebtedness fund shall be used for the payment of any outstanding indebtedness. The City Council shall have power by resolution to transfer from one fund of the city to any other fund whenever the financial condition of the city may warrant such transfers, excepting the interest and sinking fund levied and collected for the payment of interest and sinking fund on outstanding bonded indebtedness shall not be transferred.
