Strike out everything after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. The following terms wherever used or referred to in this Act shall have the following meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

- (a) "The State" means the State of Florida;
- (b) "The State Board" means the State Board of Conservation;
- (c) "Wholesale Dealer" means a person engaged in the business of acquiring, directly or indirectly, unprocessed sponges from producers of sponges;
- (d) "Producers" means a person engaged, directly or indirectly, in taking or catching and disposing of unprocessed sponges;
- (e) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

SECTION 3. Each wholesale dealer shall, before engaging in business in this State, make application to the Board for an annual privilege license, supplying such information as the Board may require on forms furnished by it, and shall pay a privilege license tax to engage in such business, whereupon a license may be issued to the applicant.

SECTION 4. There is hereby imposed on each wholesale dealer a privilege license tax in the sum of fifty dollars; said license shall be valid only for the person to whom it was issued and shall be available for inspection by any officer or agent of the Board.

All privilege licenses issued prior to October 1, 1941, shall expire on September 30, 1941; and all such licenses thereafter issued shall date from October 1 of each year, and shall expire on September 30 of the next succeeding year.

SECTION 5. It shall be unlawful for any producer of sponges to dispose of unprocessed sponges by any method to a wholesale dealer who is not in possession of an unexpired privilege license.

SECTION 6. There is hereby imposed on each producer of sponges a conservation tax of one per cent of the actual consideration involved in connection with the disposition of all unprocessed sponges for cash, credit, exchange, or otherwise to wholesale dealers.

SECTION 12. There is hereby conferred on the State Board of Conservation the exclusive police power to enforce the provisions of this Act and of all other laws relating to the protection and conservation of sponges.

SECTION 13. Any person who knowingly and wilfully violates any of the provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 14. If any provisions of this Act shall be found to be unconstitutional, it shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions.
