Have had the same under consideration, and recommend that the same pass.

R. C. HORNE,
Chairman.

And House Bill No. 1464, contained in the above report, was placed on the Calendar of Bills on second reading.

Senator Horne, Chairman of the Committee on Finance and Taxation, submitted the following report::

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

Your Committee on Finance and Taxation, to whom was referred:

House Bill No. 1862:

A bill to be entitled An Act relating to and concerning taxation; providing for: lien of taxes; assessment of real and personal property; name in which real estate assessed where no return made; submission of assessment roll; completing assessment roll; rate of taxation; when collections to be made; correction of errors; duties of county and state officers; date taxes become delinquent; the sale of lands for unpaid taxes; when taxes due; discounts; issuance, sale and redemption of tax sale certificates; the procedure for issuing tax deeds to persons other than the county and to the county; the county to sell and convey lands owned by virtue of tax deeds; refunds; cancellation of certain tax sale certificates on order of Comptroller; Comptroller to be party to suit to cancel certain tax certificates; right of immediate possession in the grantee of tax deed; the Comptroller to prescribe forms, rules and regulations and to have general supervision over the assessment and collection of taxes, and of assessment rolls and county budgets, with the approval of the Governor; and furnish forms; the enforcement of this Act; submission of tax assessors' and collectors' budgets; reduction of millage after raising assessment; submission of taxing authorities' budgets to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction as provided by law; penalties for violations of certain Sections of this Act; the repeal of laws in conflict herewith.

Have had the same under consideration and recommend that the same pass with the following amendments:

Amendment No. 1:

In Section 1, page 2 of the typewritten bill, lines 15 and 16, after the words: "revenue laws of the State" strike out the words: "and not primarily for the protection or benefit of the taxpayer."

Amendment No. 2:

At the end of Section 54 and as a part thereof, on page 51 of the typewritten bill, insert the following as an additional paragraph:

"All references to millage and reduction of millage contained in this Section shall apply to all millage whether such millage is levied pursuant to local, special or general law."

Amendment No. 3:

Strike out Section 56 and insert the following:

SECTION 56. COUNTY ASSESSOR AND COUNTY TAX COLLECTORS TO SUBMIT BUDGETS TO COMPTROLLER—REMOVAL OF OFFICERS. On or before July first of each year the county assessor and county tax collector shall submit to the Comptroller their budgets for the operation of their office for the ensuing year. The Comptroller shall examine the budgets and if they are found adequate to carry on the work of the assessor and tax collector, the Comptroller shall approve the budgets and certify them back to the assessor and tax collector. If the Comptroller finds that the budgets are inadequate or are exorbitant, he shall return such budgets to the assessor or collector, as the case may be, together with his ruling thereon.

The assessor and tax collector shall revise the budgets as required by the ruling of the Comptroller and re-submit them to the Comptroller for approval or further action by him. After the final approval of the budgets by the Comptroller they shall not be reduced by the assessor, tax collector, the Board of County Commissioners, the County Budget Commission or any other governing body or officer.

The Comptroller shall investigate the conduct and performance of duties by tax assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit court, sheriffs and members of the Board of County Commissioners when acting as a Board of Equalization and recommend to the Governor the removal of any such official for his wilful failure to properly perform the duties imposed upon him by the Constitution, this Act and the rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to this Act, and furnish the evidence to the Governor upon which such removal may be warranted.

R. C. HORNE,
Chairman.

And House Bill No. 1862, contained in the above report, together with Committee Amendments thereto, was placed on the Calendar of Bills on Second reading.

Senator Horne, Chairman of the Committee on Finance and Taxation, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

Your Committee on Finance and Taxation, to whom was referred:

House Bill No. 1861:

A bill to be entitled An Act for the assessment and collection of revenue and relating to the assessment and collection of taxes on tangible personal property; providing penalties for violation of this Act and repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith.

Have had the same under consideration and recommend that the same pass, with the following amendments:

Amendment No. 1:

In Section 2, lines 16 and 17, after the words: "revenue laws of the State" strike out the words "and not primarily for the protection or benefit of the taxpayer."

Amendment No. 2:

On page 14 strike out Section 21 and insert in lieu thereof the following: SECTION 21. TAXPAYER TO BE HEARD UNDER OATH. If any taxpayer shall make complaint to the County Commissioners, sitting as a Board of Equalization, as to the valuation involved in any tangible personal property tax assessment he shall be fully heard under oath.

Amendment No. 3:

On page 21 of the typewritten bill, strike out Section 34 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 34. FAILURE TO FILE RETURN AND PAY TAX WHEN DUE. Any person who fails to make a tax return as required by this Act shall pay as a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax a sum equal to 10% of the tax found to be due. A taxpayer making a return and who fails to include therein all of his tangible personal property subject to taxation, as required by this Act, shall pay as a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax, a sum equal to 10% of the tax found to be due upon that part of his tangible personal property which he fails to include in his return. All taxes together with any penalties shall draw interest at the rate of 1% per month from the date the said taxes become delinquent until the same shall be paid. This Section shall apply to the tangible personal property roll for 1941, provided, however, that the penalties herein shall not apply until after the year 1941.

Amendment No. 4:

On page 23 of the typewritten bill after Section 38, and as a part thereof, add a new paragraph as follows:

No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court of this State for the purpose of cancelling or contesting the validity of any tax assessment upon tangible personal property, or to enjoin the County Tax Collector from selling the property of the taxpayer for the purpose of collecting the tax, unless the County Tax Collector and the Comptroller shall be made parties to such proceedings. All such suits shall be brought and maintained in the county where the tangible personal property has been assessed for taxation and the attorney for the Board of County Commissioners of such county shall represent the County Tax Collector and the Comptroller in any such suit or proceeding, for which he shall receive no additional compensation other than as paid him by the county.

Amendment No. 5:

In Section 40, line 8 of the typewritten bill, immediately following the words: "upon him by" strike out the words: "law" and the comma appearing after said word.

Very respectfully,

A. P. DRUMMOND,

Chairman of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills on the Part of the Senate.

By unanimous consent Senator Whitaker withdrew the motion made by him on June 4, 1941, to reconsider the vote by which Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 308 passed the Senate on June 3, 1941.

Senator Graham moved that House Bill No. 392 be recalled from the Committee on Pensions and Claims and placed on the Calendar of Bills on second reading, having been in said Committee more than seven (7) days.

And it was so ordered under the rules.

Senator Graham moved that the rules be waived and the Senate take up and consider House Bill No. 392, out of its order, at this time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

House Bill No. 392:

A bill to be entitled An Act to grant a pension to Mrs. Leila Patillo Sturgis of Dade County, Florida.

Was taken up.

Senator Graham moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 392 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 392 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Graham moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 392 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 392 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of House Bill No. 392 the roll was called and the vote was:

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed, with amendment:

By the Committee on Banking and Building and Loans—

Senate Bill No. 576:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Sections 2, 4, 6, 10, 11 and 19 of Chapter 10177, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925, being "An Act to license and regulate the business of making loans in certain counties in sums of Three Hundred ($300) Dollars or less, secured or unsecured, at a greater rate of interest than ten per centum per annum; prescribing the rate of interest and charge therefor, and penalties for the violation thereof, and regulating the assignment of wages or salaries, earned or to be earned when given as security for any such loan"; providing what shall be considered as interest and charges in connection with any loan made under the provisions of said Act; providing a maximum for amount of loan to the same borrower by any licensee; providing for the enforcement of said Act by injunction or receivership proceedings by the Circuit Courts of the State, and providing a method for review by the Circuit Courts of any action of the licensing official under said Act.

Which Amendment reads as follows:

In Section 8, line 12, of the bill, strike out the words "or less".

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,
BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Bill No. 576, contained in the above message, was read by title together with the House Amendment, thereto.

Senator Horne moved that the Senate do concur in the House Amendment to Senate Bill No. 576.

And Senate Bill No. 576, as amended, was referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 4, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed with amendments:

By Senator Whitaker—

Senate Bill No. 215:

A bill to be entitled An Act creating the offices of chief traffic officer, lieutenant traffic officer and deputy traffic officers in counties having population of not less than one hundred thousand or more than two hundred thousand by the last preceding Federal census, requiring them to be deputy sheriffs, limiting their number and prescribing the duties and functions of such chief traffic officer, lieutenant traffic officer, and deputy traffic officers, and their qualifications, terms of office, and methods of appointments; their compensation and allowances for expenses and designating the fund out of which same shall be paid.

Which amendments read as follows:

House Amendment No. 1:

In Section 1, at the end of Section 1, add the following paragraph: "Provided that not less than fifteen (15) deputy traffic officers shall be employed until such time as the Board of County Commissioners and Budget Board of such counties shall approve the employment of such additional deputy traffic officers as may be necessary, but in no event shall the number of such deputy traffic officers exceed the ratio of one to each ten thousand of the population of such counties according to the last preceding Federal census."

House Amendment No. 2:

In Section 3, line 4, of the typewritten bill, in line 4 after the word "duties" insert a period and strike the balance of Section 4, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "The said County Commissioners shall pay the chief traffic officer, the lieutenant traffic officer and each deputy traffic officer the sum of Forty-five ($45) Dollars per month to cover the use of said car by said traffic officer in the performance of his duties and for all expenses incident to its maintenance and shall in addition thereto pay to the Sheriff of Hillsborough County, the actual cost of gasoline and oil furnished and used by such traffic officers, monthly, upon his requisition as other accounts are now paid."

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Bill No. 215, contained in the above message, was read by title together with the House Amendments thereto.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and House Memorial No. 10 was read the second time in full.

The question was put on the adoption of House Memorial No. 10.

Which was agreed to and House Memorial No. 10 was adopted and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives refuses to concur in Senate Amendment No. 1 and has concurred in Senate Amendments Nos. 2 and 3 to—

House Bill No. 1619:

A bill to be entitled An Act to fix the annual salaries of the Governor and Cabinet Officers, Superintendent of Prison Farm and Railroad Commissioners of the State of Florida.

Which amendments read as follows:

Amendment No. 1:

In Section one, line eleven (typewritten bill), strike out the words: Each of three Railroad Commissioners $5,000.00 and insert in lieu thereof the following: Each of three Railroad Commissioners $6,000.00.

Amendment No. 2:

Add section to appropriately numbered as follows:

Any member of the Legislature who may, during the time for which he was elected Senator or Member of the House of Representatives, be appointed or elected to a civil office referred to in Section 5, Article 3 of the Constitution shall receive during the term for which he was elected or appointed to such civil office the salary or emoluments which under the provisions of law appertain to such office at the beginning of the time for which he was elected Senator or Member of the House of Representatives.

Amendment No. 3:

Add section to be appropriately numbered as follows:

"If any section, or any part of any section, of this Act should be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining portions of said Act."

And respectfully requests the Senate to recede from Senate Amendment No. 1.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

Senator Cooley moved that the Senate do recede from Senate Amendment No. 1 to House Bill No. 1619.

Which was agreed to.

And the Senate receded from Senate Amendment No. 1 to House Bill No. 1619 and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed:

By Messrs. Bailey and Gray of Bay—
House Bill No. 675:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Chapter 17917, Acts of 1937 relating to the salt water fishing in the State of Florida in tidal waters and other territorial waters of the State of Florida and providing a license tax on all boats, vessels, schooners or launches operating and/or plying in the tidal and salt waters or other waters under the control of the State Board of Conservation of the State of Florida, and providing an additional tax on aliens or non-residents who own such boats, vessels, schooners or launches, and defining such aliens or non-residents, and providing penalties for violation of same; this amendment allowing exemption from this license or tax to all disabled veterans who are entitled to exemption from license tax under the provisions of Chapter 17476, Acts of 1935.

By Messrs. Bennett and Luckie of Duval—
House Bill No. 924:

A bill to be entitled An Act relating to actions for libels and notice to defendant before suit is brought and for the correction of statements by defendant.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,
BEN H. FUQUA,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 675, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator Adams (25th) moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 675 be placed on the Calendar of Bills on second reading without reference.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and it was so ordered.

And House Bill No. 924, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator Butler moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 924 be read the second time by title only.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Butler the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Butler, Clarke, Folks, McKenzie, Shepherd, Ward—7.

Nays—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Whitaker, Wilson—29.

So the motion made by Senator Butler failed of adoption and House Bill No. 924 was referred to the Committee on Judiciary "C."

Senator Dye moved that the rules be waived and the hour of adjournment be extended until final disposition is made of House Bills Nos. 1861, 1862 and 1464, Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400 and Senate Bill No. 872, which were made Special and Continuing Orders for consideration by the Senate immediately after consideration of Messages from the House of Representatives.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and it was so ordered.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Fla.,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed:

By The Committee on Motor Vehicles and Carriers—
House Bill No. 1330:

A bill to be entitled An Act relating to Motor Vehicle transportation; to provide for the regulation, supervision and licensing of Motor Carrier transportation agents, and to provide for the enforcement of said Act and penalties for the violation thereof

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,
BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 1330, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator Dye moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1330 be placed on the Calendar of Bills on second reading without reference.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and it was so ordered.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Fla.,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed by the required Constitutional two-thirds vote of all members elected to the House of Representatives for the 1941 Session of the Florida Legislature:

By Mr. Riddles of Walton—
House Bill No. 1312:

A bill to be entitled An Act for the relief of Mrs. Harry L. Pearce, widow of Harry L. Pearce, deceased, formerly of DeFuniak Springs, now of Fort Pierce, Florida; appropriating money to be paid to her as compensation under Section 15 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Florida; for the wrongful removal without constitutional or lawful warrant of her husband Harry L. Pearce, by and under the guise of the action of the Governor, from the office of Assistant State Auditor for the unexpired term of four years from December 30, 1936, the date of his Commission.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,
BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 1312, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator Lewis moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1312 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1312 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Lewis moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 1312 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1312 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of House Bill No. 1312 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, McKenzie, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—33.

Nays—Senators Clarke, Maines, Perdue, Shepherd—4.

So House Bill No. 1312 passed, title as stated, by the required Constitutional two-thirds vote of all members elected to the Senate for the 1941 Session of the Florida Legislature and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

Senator Taylor moved that a committee be appointed to escort Miss Nancy Jenkins of Gainesville, daughter of Representative Joe C. Jenkins, to a seat on the rostrum for the purpose of sketching a picture of the President of the Senate.

Which was agreed to and the President appointed Senators Taylor, Hinely and Shepherd as the committee.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 4, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed:

By Messrs. Boyd and Lane of Manatee, and Perry of Sarasota—

House Bill No. 1714:

A bill to be entitled An Act enlarging the powers of Boards of County Commissioners, in counties having certain population, to include the provisions of the general drainage law to areas or districts created under Chapters 20 and 21, Title Nine, First Division, Revised General Statutes of 1920: to make the lands and owners thereof in such drainage districts subject to the provisions of the general drainage law; to create a moisture control and water conservation policy adapted to the interests of agriculture, horticulture and grazing; and granting authority to the Boards of County Commissioners to act in relation to moisture control and water conservation in those portions of the county where no drainage districts now exist, and authorizing the delegation to the supervisors of drainage districts of the powers covered by this Act.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 1714, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator Dye moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1714 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill 1714 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Dye offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1714:

Strike out everything after the enacting clause and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. The provisions of this law shall apply in all counties in the State of Florida having a population, according to the last preceding Federal census, of not less than 26,000 and not more than 27,000 and in all counties having a population, according to the last preceding Federal census, of not less than 16,100 and not more than 16,125.

Section 2. The board of supervisors of any drainage district authorized by Chapter 6458, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1913, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes of 1920, and any amendments thereto, and the board of county commissioners authorized to establish drains, ditches or water courses by Chapter 4178, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1893, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes of 1920, and any amendments thereto, and the county commissioners authorized to establish public ditches, drains and canals by Chapter 5035, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1901, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes of 1920, and any amendments thereto, are hereby severally granted, for the purposes of moisture control, conserving moisture, water conservation, and maintaining water levels and water tables, in their respective territories, any and all authority, powers, rights, and may assume any or all of the duties, which they now possess for drainage purposes pursuant to Chapter 4178, supra, Chapter 5035, supra, and Chapter 6458, supra, respectively, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto. Also, the board of county commissioners authorized to establish any drain, ditch or water course by Chapter 4178, supra, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto, and the county commissioners authorized to establish ditches, drains or canals by Chapter 5035, supra, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto, are hereby granted the same powers and authority for the purpose of moisture control now exercised by the board of supervisors of a drainage district pursuant to Chapter 6458, supra, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto. For the purposes of this Act, such powers and authority shall be broadly interpreted so as to relate to moisture control in addition to drainage.

Section 3. It is the purpose of this Act to authorize the boards referred to in this Act to carry out a program of moisture control and a water conservation policy which will avoid the unfavorable effects of excessive rainfall and of drought conditions to agricultural, horticultural and grazing interests. In order to accomplish the purposes of this Act it shall not be necessary to create any new districts, but the districts already created for drainage purposes shall, through their respective boards, carry out the purposes of this Act.

Section 4. In accomplishing the purposes of this Act, the above described boards, respectively, are hereby granted power and authority, in addition to the powers and the authority hereinbefore granted, to:

(a) Construct dams, build dykes, construct levees and reservoirs, conserve surface water, drill wells and do any and all things necessary to accomplish these purposes;

(b) Acquire property when necessary for moisture control purposes in the same manner as property may now be acquired for drainage purposes by drainage districts, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6458, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1913, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto;

(c) Exercise the power of eminent domain as to property outside of the respective drainage districts to the same extent that, and in the manner in which, boards of county commissioners may now or hereafter be authorized by law to exercise the power of eminent domain;

(d) Assess all costs and pay all damages necessary and incident to the carrying out of the purposes of this Act against property benefited thereby in the manner authorized by Chapter 6458, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1913 as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto;—provided, that the boards may assess the costs of works constructed, or property acquired, or damages paid under the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this Section against all property in the district and benefited thereby, on the same proportionate basis as annual maintenance assessments are levied pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6458, supra, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes 1920, and any amendments thereto;

(e) Enter into any contracts and agreements with boards of county commissioners of other counties and boards of supervisors of other drainage districts and any other public board or officer and any individual firm or corporation for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Section 5. In accomplishing the purposes of this Act, the boards authorized above, before entering into any contracts or incurring any obligations relative to a program of moisture control, shall first adopt a tentative plan for such program and publish in a newspaper regularly published in all counties affected thereby, once a week for four consecutive weeks, a notice setting forth in substance the tentative plan for moisture control suggested by such board, and setting forth a date and hour and place for a public hearing. At the time and place described in such notice, the plan shall be submitted for public discussion, at which time the board shall hear and consider any objections filed thereto. After such public hearings, the boards authorized by this Act may, in their discretion, then proceed to carry out the program for moisture control previously tentatively adopted, or any modified or revised plan as they may deem advisable.

Section 6. The powers and authority hereby granted to the above mentioned boards shall be and are in addition to any and all other powers and authority now or hereafter exercised by such boards and shall not in any manner be interpreted to restrict such other powers.

Section 7. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 8. This Act shall take effect immediately upon becoming a law.

Senator Dye moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Dye also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1714:

Strike out the title of the bill and insert the following: "An Act relating to water conservation and moisture control in Counties within the State of Florida having a population, according to the last preceding Federal census, of not less than 26,000 and not more than 27,000 and Counties having a population, according to the last preceding Federal census, of not less than 16,100 and not more than 16,125; enlarging the powers of Boards of County Commissioners under Chapter 4178, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1893, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes, 1920, and amendments thereto, and enlarging the powers of the Boards of County Commissioners under Chapter 5035, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1901, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes, 1920, and amendments thereto and enlarging the powers of Boards of Supervisors of Drainage Districts under Chapter 6458, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1913, as carried forward in the Revised General Statutes, 1920 and amendments thereto; and repealing all laws in conflict herewith.

Senator Dye moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Dye moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 1714, as amended, be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1714, as amended, was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of House Bill No. 1714, as amended, the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—37.

Nays—None.

So House Bill No. 1325 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

Senator Perdue moved that House Bill No. 1330 be referred to the Committee on Motor Vehicles.

Which was agreed to and it was so ordered.

Senator Shepherd moved that the Senate take a recess until 2:30 o'clock P. M., this day.

Which was agreed to and the Senate took a recess at 1:27 o'clock P. M. until 2:30 o'clock P. M., this day.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 2:30 o'clock P. M., pursuant to recess order.

The President in the chair.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—37.

A quorum present.

The President announced the appointment of Senators Whitaker, Gideons and Price as the Committee on the part of the Senate to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to adjust the differences between the two Houses on Senate Amendments to House Bills Nos. 1156, 1157, 1159 and 1161.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Horne at the morning session, this day, and the hour having arrived, the Senate took up for consideration Senate Bill No. 872, as a Special and Continuing Order.

Senate Bill No. 872:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 12295, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1927, entitled "An Act to authorize and empower the Governor of the State of Florida to reduce or modify any State tax levy provided for by the Laws of this State, when in his judgment the amount of the authorized levy is in excess of the just requirements of the purpose for which the tax was authorized, and to provide that the Governor may order the temporary transfer of funds from one fund to another in order to meet temporary deficiencies in particular funds without resorting to the borrowing of money and paying interest thereon;" and providing that any transfer may be permanent under proper circumstances.

Was taken up.

Senator Horne moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 872 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 872 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Horne moved that the rules be further waived and Senate Bill No. 872 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 872 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of Senate Bill No. 872 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—33.

Nays—None.

So Senate Bill No. 872 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Horne at the morning session, this day, and the hour having arrived, the Senate took up for consideration Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400, as a Special and Continuing Order.

Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Chapter 18011, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1937, the same being entitled "An Act relating to license taxes, repealing Chapter 14491, and Chapter 14528, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1929; repealing parts of Chapter 2 of Title VI, of Division 1 of the Revised General Statutes of Florida of 1920; repealing Chapter 16801 and Chapter 17167, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1935; imposing certain license taxes and providing for the payment and collection thereof, and providing that license taxes shall be a lien on the property of the person liable therefor, under certain circumstances," and repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith.

Was taken up, having been placed back on second reading on June 4, 1941, for the purpose of further amendment.

Senator Collins moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the following amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400, was adopted by the Senate on June 3, 1941:

Which amendment reads as follows:

In Section 5A, of the bill, strike out the words "With seats or accommodations for over 200 persons and not more than 400 persons, a license tax of $100.00" together with the remainder of the section, and insert the following in lieu thereof: "with seats or accommodations for over 200 or more persons, a license tax of $100.00."

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the foregoing amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400 was adopted on June 3, 1941.

The question recurred on the adoption of the foregoing amendment.

Pending adoption of the foregoing amendment, by unanimous consent Senator Drummond withdrew the foregoing amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400.

Senator Collins offered the following amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400:

In Section 5-A, (typewritten bill) strike out everything after line 12 and insert in lieu thereof the following: "With seats or accommodations for over 50 persons and not more than 150 persons, a license tax of $25.00; With seats or accommodations for over 150 persons a license tax of $50.00."

Senator Collins moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

There being no further amendments, Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400, as amended, was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400, as amended, the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Butler, Clarke, Collins, Cooley, Dye, Folks, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker—24.

Nays—Senators Beall, Cliett, Drummond, Gideons, Graham, Housholder, Johnson, Lindler, Maddox, Price, Wilson—11.

So Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1400 passed, as amended, and was referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Horne at the morning session, this day, and the hour having arrived, the Senate took up for consideration House Bill No. 1861, as a Special and Continuing Order.

House Bill No. 1861:

A bill to be entitled An Act for the assessment and collection of revenue and relating to the assessment and collection of taxes on tangible personal property; providing penalties for violation of this Act and repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith.

Was taken up.

Senator Horne moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1861 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1861 was read the second time by title only.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 2, lines 16 and 17, after the words: "revenue laws of the State" strike out the words "and not primarily for the protection or benefit of the taxpayer."

Senator Horne moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

On page 14 strike out Section 21 and insert the following: SECTION 21. TAXPAYER TO BE HEARD UNDER OATH. If any taxpayer shall make complaint to the County Commissioners, sitting as a Board of Equalization, as to the valuation involved in any tangible personal property tax assessment he shall be fully heard under oath.

Senator Horne moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

On page 21 of the typewritten bill, strike out Section 34 and insert the following:

SECTION 34. FAILURE TO FILE RETURN AND PAY TAX WHEN DUE. Any person who fails to make a tax return as required by this Act shall pay a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax a sum equal to 10% of the tax found to be due. A taxpayer making a return and who fails to include therein all of his tangible personal property subject to taxation, as required by this Act, shall pay as a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax, a sum equal to 10% of the tax found to be due upon that part of his tangible personal property which he fails to include in his return. All taxes together with any penalties shall draw interest at the rate of 1% per month from the date the said taxes become delinquent until the same shall be paid. This Section shall apply to the tangible personal property roll for 1941, provided, however, that the penalties herein shall not apply until after the year 1941.

Senator Horne moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

On page 23 of the typewritten bill, after Section 38, and as a part thereof, add a new paragraph as follows:

No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court of this State for the purpose of cancelling or contesting the validity of any tax assessment upon tangible personal property, or to enjoin the County Tax Collector from selling the property of the taxpayer for the purpose of collecting the tax, unless the County Tax Collector and the Comptroller shall be made parties to such proceedings. All such suits shall be brought and maintained in the county where the tangible personal property has been assessed for taxation and the attorney for the Board of County Commissioners of such county shall represent the County Tax Collector and the Comptroller in any such suit or proceeding, for which he shall receive no additional compensation other than as paid him by the county.

Senator Horne moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 40, line 8, of the typewritten bill, immediately following the words: "upon him by" strike out the word: "law" and the comma appearing after said word.

Senator Horne moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Dye now presiding.

Senator Drummond offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 3, page 3, line 13, (typewritten bill) strike out the words: "The Comptroller shall establish standard measures of values to be used by county tax assessors in arriving at assessments of all properties, which standard measures of value shall be applied by the county tax assessors and county boards of equalization in arriving at assessments of all property, and he shall prescribe rules and regulations by which these standard measures shall be applied by said county officers.

Senator Drummond moved the adoption of the amendment.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Drummond to House Bill No. 1861 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Clarke, Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, King, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Taylor, Ward—22.

Nays—Senators Beall, Butler, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, Lewis, McKenzie, Perdue, Smith, Whitaker, Wilson—15.

So the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Drummond to House Bill No. 1861 was adopted.

Senator Graham moved that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Executive Communications.

Which was not agreed to.

Senator Drummond also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 13, page 9, line 9, (typewritten bill) strike out the words: "If the Comptroller shall have reason to believe that any such assessment roll shows overvaluations, undervaluations, inequalities, irregularities or omissions sufficient to make it inequitable as between property within the county or taxing district, or as between property in other counties or taxing districts in this State, the Comptroller may order the assessor to correct such inequalities, irregularities, omissions, undervaluations and overvaluations, any may, with the approval of the Governor, cancel such roll and direct a new assessment roll for such county to be made by such assessor and shall fix the date on which such new or corrected roll shall be completed, such date not to be later than the date required by law for the assessment roll to be submitted to the county board of equalization.

Senator Drummond moved the adoption of the amendment.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Drummond to House Bill No. 1861 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, King, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor, Ward—21.

Nays—Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Kanner, Kelly, Lewis, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Whitaker, Wilson—16.

So the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Drummond to House Bill No. 1861 was adopted.

Senator Drummond also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 4, of the bill, strike out the last sentence of the section and insert the following in lieu thereof: "This act shall apply to the assessment and collection of taxes on property owned by steam and electric railroad, telegraph, express, sleeping car, freight, equipment and pipe line companies, and to all other tangible personal property subject to taxation whether mentioned herein or not."

Senator Drummond moved the adoption of the amendment.

Pending consideration of the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Drummond to House Bill No. 1861, Senator Butler moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of Executive Communications.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Butler, the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—21.

Nays—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor—16.

So the motion made by Senator Butler was adopted and the Senate went into Executive Session at 6:17 o'clock P. M.

The Senate emerged from Executive Session at 6:51 o'clock P. M. and resumed its session.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—37.

A quorum present.

By permission the following bills were introduced:

By Senator Perdue—

Senate Bill No. 876:

A bill to be entitled An Act authorizing, directing and empowering the Board of Public Instruction in and for the counties having a population of not less than twelve thousand five hundred (12,500) and not more than twelve thousand nine hundred (12,900) according to the last preceding Federal census to refund and pay over to the Board of County Commissioners of such counties seven thousand ($7000.00) dollars of the funds paid to such Board of Public Instruction from the race track funds.

Which was read the first time by title only.

Senator Perdue moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 876 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 876 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Perdue moved that the rules be further waived and Senate Bill No. 876 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 876 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of Senate Bill No. 876 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—37.

Nays—None.

So Senate Bill No. 876 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

By Senator Beall—

Senate Bill No. 877:

A bill to be entitled An Act for the relief of Clifford Herod of Escambia County, Florida.

Which was read the first time by title only.

The following proof of publication was attached to Senate Bill No. 877 when it was introduced in the Senate:

A bill to be entitled An Act creating a Special drainage and water control district in Orange County, Florida, to be known as "Zellwood Drainage and Water Control District," defining the territory included therein and establishing its boundaries; providing for its government and administration; defining its purposes, powers and privileges and prescribing its duties and liabilities; naming its board of supervisors, and providing for the election or appointment of their successors, and of the other officers and agents of said district; defining the powers, duties, privileges and liabilities of the board of supervisors thereof and of its other officers, agents and employees; providing for the assessment of benefits against and the levy and collection of taxes upon the lands in said district to raise funds for carrying out the objects and purposes for which said district is created, and for enforcing the collection of such taxes; authorizing the board of supervisors of said district to borrow money and to issue and dispose of bonds to procure money to carry out the provisions of this Act and the purposes of said District; giving power to said district to extend its boundaries and to acquire such lands and property as may be necessary and proper for its purposes, and to exercise the rights of eminent domain; authorizing the construction of all works and improvements which may be necessary to carry out the objects and purposes for which said district is created; authorizing said district to maintain and control water levels within said district and to install, operate and maintain all necessary dams, ditches, reservoirs, flood gates, spill ways, pumps, pumping stations and other works within and without said district necessary to carry out the purposes of said district, and to prevent injury to any works constructed under this Act and to make it a misdemeanor for anyone to willfully injure or damage the same.

House Bill No. 1593:

A bill to be entitled An Act authorizing and directing the Clerk of the Circuit Court of St. Lucie County, Florida, to cancel certain tax certificates owned by the State of Florida, on certain lands located in the City of Fort Pierce, Florida, owned and operated by the Fort Pierce Cemetery Association, as a public burial ground.

House Bill No. 1637:

An Act legalizing the taking of suckers by means of gigs in all counties having a population of not less than 7800 nor more than 8700, according to the 1940 Federal census.

Beg leave to report that the same have this day been presented to the Governor for his approval.

Very respectfully,

A. P. DRUMMOND,

Chairman of the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills on the Part of the Senate.

Senator Butler moved that further consideration of House

Bill No. 1861 with pending amendment, be postponed until after the presentation of gifts.

Which was agreed to and it was so ordered.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Adams (30th), the Senate paused at this time for the customary presentation of gifts.

Senator Adams (30th) moved that a committee be appointed to escort Mrs. John R. Beacham, wife of the President of the Senate, to a seat on the rostrum.

Which was agreed to and Senator Adams (30th), Whitaker and Beall were appointed as the committee.

Mrs. Beacham was escorted to the rostrum.

Senator Adams (30th) moved that Senator Butler, immediate past President of the Senate, be escorted to the rostrum for the purpose of presiding during the presentation ceremony.

Which was agreed to and Senators Lewis, Clarke and Perdue were appointed as the committee.

Senator Butler was escorted to the rostrum.

Senator Beacham, President of the Senate, turned the gavel over to Senator Butler and retired to his desk on the floor of the Senate.

Senator Whitaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the Senate, paid tribute to Senator Beacham as President of the Senate and presented to the President and Mrs. Beacham a chest of flat silver.

Senator Beacham responded with an expression of his appreciation.

Senator Beall paid tribute to Senator Dewey A. Dye, President Pro Tempore of the Senate and on behalf of the entire membership of the Senate presented to Senator Dye a watch and chain.

Senator Dye responded with an expression of his appreciation.

Miss Kate Inman, on behalf of the attaches of the Senate, presented to the President and Mrs. Beacham a set of silver goblets.

Senator Beacham expressed his appreciation to the attaches.

Miss Rebecca Jane Caldwell on behalf of the attaches presented to Senator Dewey A. Dye and Mrs. Dye a chest of flat silver.

Senator Dye expressed his appreciation to the attaches.

Reverend Ray Y. Walden, on behalf of the attaches of the Senate, presented to Robt. W. Davis, Secretary of the Senate, a moving picture projector.

Mr. Davis expressed his appreciation to the attaches.

On behalf of the attaches Vestor Robinson presented to D. H. McCallum, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate a silver tray.

Mr. McCallum expressed his appreciation to the attaches.

Senator Amos Lewis, on behalf of the Secretary's force, presented to Robt. W. Davis, Secretary of the Senate, a moving picture camera.

Mr. Davis expressed his appreciation to his force.

Upon instructions from Senator Butler, the presiding officer, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate unveiled the portrait of the Honorable John R. Beacham, President of the Senate.

Senator Adams (30th) moved that a committee be appointed to escort the President back to the rostrum.

Which was agreed to and Senator Adams (30th), Lewis and Housholder were appointed as the committee.

The Senate resumed its business session.

House Bill No. 1861:

A bill to be entitled An Act for the assessment and collection of revenue and relating to the assessment and collection of taxes on tangible personal property; providing penalties for violation of this Act and repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith.

Was taken up, together with the following amendment which was pending adoption at the hour of recess:

In Section 4, of the bill, strike out the last sentence of the section and insert the following in lieu thereof: "This Act shall apply to the assessment and collection of taxes on property owned by steam and electric railroad, telegraph, express, sleeping car, freight, equipment and pipe line companies, and to all other tangible personal property subject to taxation whether mentioned herein or not."

Senator Drummond having moved the adoption thereof.

Pending consideration of the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Drummond, Senator Dye offered the following substitute amendment for the amendment offered by Senator Drummond to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 4, strike out the last sentence of said Section and insert in lieu thereof the following: "All steam and electric railroads and telegraph, express, sleeping cars, freight line and equipment companies shall be assessed at their full cash value, provided however such assessments shall be made in the manner and by the officers now provided by law."

Senator Dye moved the adoption of the substitute amendment.

Which was agreed to and the foregoing substitute amendment offered by Senator Dye to House Bill No. 1861 was adopted.

Senator Rose offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 14, strike out all of Section and renumber sections.

Senator Rose moved the adoption of the amendment.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Rose to House Bill No. 1861 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor—18.

Nays—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Shepherd, Smith, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—18.

So the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Rose to House Bill No. 1861 failed of adoption.

Senators Drummond and Rose offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1861:

In Section 7, line 18, after word "verified" insert the following: "except as to valuation."

Senator Drummond moved the adoption of the amendment.

Pending adoption of the amendment offered by Senators Drummond and Rose to House Bill No. 1861, Senator Drummond moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now revert to the consideration of Messages from the House of Representatives.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Fla.,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed:

By Senator Butler—

Senate Bill No. 495:

A bill to be entitled An Act fixing the fees to be charged by the sheriffs of the several counties of the State of Florida, and to repeal Chapter 10091, Laws of Florida, 1925, being "An Act fixing the fees to be charged by the sheriffs of the several Counties of the State of Florida, and to repeal Chapter 7886, Acts of 1919, Laws of Florida, entitled 'An Act fixing the compensation of the sheriffs of the several counties of the State of Florida'."

By Senator Maines—

Senate Bill No. 497:

A bill to be entitled An Act to enable all Counties of the State of Florida to establish and maintain public hospitals, levy a tax and issue bonds, therefor, for construction and maintenance of such hospitals, maintain a training school for nurses, provide suitable means for the care of such hospitals and disabled persons, and providing for the appointment of trustees for such hospitals.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Bills Nos. 495 and 497, contained in the above message, were referred to the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed by the required Constitutional three-fifths vote of all members elected to the House of Representatives for the 1941 Session of the Florida Legislature, with amendment:

By Senator Beall—

Senate Joint Resolution No. 794:

A Joint Resolution proposing the amendment of Section 16 of Article XVI of the Constitution of Florida, relating to taxation of property of corporations, with certain exemptions for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary, fraternal or charitable purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

SECTION 1. That the following amendment to Section 16 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to taxation of the property of corporations, with certain exemptions for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary, fraternal or charitable purposes, be, and the same is hereby agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida, for ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in 1942; that is to say, that the said Section 16 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Florida be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 16. The property of all corporations, except the property of a corporation which shall construct a ship or barge canal across the peninsula of Florida, if the Legislature should so enact, whether heretofore or hereafter incorporated, shall be subject to taxation, unless such property be held and used to the extent of at least one-fourth thereof, for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary, fraternal or charitable purposes."

Which amendment reads as follows:

In Section 1, of the bill, at the end of the Section numbered 16, add the following: Provided however, this amendment shall not affect the provisions of Sections 12 and 14 of Article IX of the Constitution of Florida.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Joint Resolution No. 794, contained in the above message, was read by title together with the House Amendment thereto.

Senator Beall moved that the Senate concur in the House Amendment to Senate Joint Resolution No. 794.

Which was agreed to and the Senate concurred in the House Amendment to Senate Joint Resolution No. 794.

The question recurred on the passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 794, as amended in the House of Representatives, which reads as follows:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 794:

A Joint Resolution proposing the amendment of Section 16 of Article XVI of the Constitution of Florida, relating to taxation of property of corporations, with certain exemptions for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary, fraternal or charitable purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

SECTION 1. That the following amendment to Section 16 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to taxation of the property of corporations, with certain exemptions for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary, fraternal or charitable purposes, be, and the same is hereby agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida, for ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in 1942; that is to say, that the said Section 16 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Florida be amended so as to read as follows:

"SECTION 16. The property of all corporations, except the property of a corporation which shall construct a ship or barge canal across the peninsula of Florida, if the Legislature should so enact, whether heretofore or hereafter incorporated, shall be subject to taxation, unless such property be held and used to the extent of at least one-fourth thereof, for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary, fraternal or charitable purposes. Provided, however, this amendment shall not affect the provisions of Sections 12 and 14 of Article IX of the Constitution of Florida.

Upon the passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 794, as amended, the roll was called and the vote was:

Nays—None.

So Senate Joint Resolution No. 794 passed, as amended, by the required Constitutional three-fifths vote of all members elected to the Senate for the 1941 session of the Florida Legislature, and was referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Fla.,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has failed to pass:

By Senators Maines and Perdue—

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 1005 of Chapter 19355, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1939, entitled "An Act relating to public education, providing for the organization, establishment, operation, maintenance, and support of the State system of public education and prescribing penalties or violating any provision of the Act, and any rule and regulation made pursuant to the Act," which Section relates to the procedure for determining the number of instruction units or transportation, and to repeal all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

The following Message from the House of Representatives as received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed by the required Constitutional three-fifths vote of all members elected to the House of Representatives for the 1941 Session of the Florida Legislature:

Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 334:

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE FIVE OF THE CONSTITUTION OF FLORIDA BY ADDING THERETO AN ADDITIONAL SECTION RELATING TO THE ELECTION OF CIRCUIT JUDGES.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Florida be amended by adding thereto an additional Section to be known as Section 46 of said Article relating to the Election of Circuit Judges be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida for ratification or rejection at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, as follows:

Section 46. Circuit Judges shall hereafter be elected by the qualified electors of their respective judicial circuits as other State and County officials are elected.

"The first election of Circuit Judges shall be held at the General Election in 1948 to take office on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1949, for term of six years.

"The terms of all such offices as they shall severally exist at the time of adoption of this amendment shall be and they are hereby extended to terminate on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January, 1949."

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 334, contained in the above message, was referred to the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted:

By Senator Kanner—

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives respectfully requests the return of

By Messrs. Horrell and Leedy of Orange—
House Bill No. 1881:

A bill to be entitled An Act providing for tenure of employment of teachers in the Public Schools of Orange County, Florida; defining terms used in said Act; providing when teachers are entitled to tenure of employment and the causes for which such teachers may be discharged or demoted, and prescribing the procedure thereof; conferring jurisdiction upon the Circuit Court to issue writs of mandamus and certiorari in order to give effect to the provisions of this Act; repealing Chapter 18743, Laws of Florida, Special Acts of 1937, which Chapter provides for tenure of employment of teachers in the public schools of said County; and repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and providing that this Act shall not take effect unless approved at a referendum election.

for the purpose of further consideration.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

Senator Rose moved that the request of the House of Representatives, as contained in the foregoing message, be granted.

Which was agreed to and House Bill No. 1881 was ordered returned to the House of Representatives.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives refuses to concur in Senate Amendment to:

By Mr. Littlefield of Volusia—

House Bill No. 1877:

A bill to be entitled An Act providing for a system of civil service for the City of Daytona Beach, Florida; providing what officers and employees of said City of Daytona Beach shall be subject to such civil service; providing for the appointment, term of office, powers, duties, and compensation of the Civil Service Commission and providing for the employment and payment of a secretary; providing for the manner in which all employees and officers subject to such civil service shall be chosen; providing for the manner in which all promotions to offices or positions subject to civil service shall be filled; providing for the manner in which all officers and employees subject to such civil service may be discharged for cause, and to give to such discharged officers or employees the right to a public hearing; providing for the manner in which reduction, lay-off and suspension of all officers and employees subject to such civil service shall be made; providing for rules of conduct of all officers and employees, subject to such civil service, particularly with reference to political activities and providing penalties for the violation thereof; providing that any tax payer may bring an action to enjoin payment of the salary or compensation of any officer or employee who is employed contrary to the provisions of such civil service; and providing further details for the establishment and operation of such civil service in said City of Daytona Beach.

Proof of Publication attached.

Which Amendment reads as follows:

In Section 36, strike out all of Section 36 and insert the following:

Section 36. This Act shall become effective when and if ratified by a majority vote at a referendum election to be held in the City of Daytona Beach, Florida, not later than the 1st day of September A. D. 1941, said election to be called by the City Commission of the City of Daytona Beach, and conducted in accordance with the laws governing elections of said City of Daytona Beach, Florida.

And respectfully requests the Senate to recede therefrom.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

Senator Price moved that the Senate do not recede from the Senate Amendment to House Bill No. 1877, as contained in the foregoing message.

Which was agreed to and the Senate refused to recede from the Senate Amendment to House Bill No. 1877.

Which was agreed to and House Bill No. 1836 was indefinitely postponed, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 1837, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator Whitaker moved that House Bill No. 1837 be indefinitely postponed.

Which was agreed to and House Bill No. 1837 was indefinitely postponed, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
June 5, 1941.

Hon. John R. Beacham,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed:

By Mr. Safford of Polk—

House Bill No. 1867:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Sections 3, 12, 17, 20 and 23, of Chapter 10754, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925, entitled "An Act to abolish the present municipality of the City of Lakeland, Polk County, Florida, and to establish, organize and constitute a municipality to be known and designated as the City of Lakeland Polk County, Florida, and to define its territorial boundaries and to provide for its jurisdiction, powers and privileges and to authorize the said City of Lakeland, Polk County, Florida, to enforce ordinances of said City" as amended by Chapter 14176, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1929; and to repeal Section 168, relating to the City of Lakeland, its government, jurisdiction, powers, duties and privileges; increasing the number of City Commissioners from three to five and providing the manner of their election; providing for the approval or disapproval of this Act by the qualified electors of said City at a special election to be called and held for that purpose.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

BEN H. FUQUA,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 1867, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only.

Senator King moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1867 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1867 was read the second time by title only.

Senator King moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 1867 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1867 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of House Bill No. 1867 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—37.

Nays—None.

So House Bill No. 1867 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

Senator Whitaker moved that the rules be waived and the Senate take up and consider House Bill No. 1757, out of its order, at this time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

House Bill No. 1757:

A bill to be entitled An Act authorizing and empowering the Board of County Commissioners of Hillsborough County, Florida, to levy a special tax annually of one mill on the dollar of assessed valuation of real and personal property in said county, for publicity purposes, and defining certain modes and methods of publicizing said county.

Was taken up.

Senator Whitaker moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 1757 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1757 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Whitaker moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 1757 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1757 was read the third time in full.

Upon the passage of House Bill No. 1757 the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Dye, Folks, Gideons, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Housholder, Johnson, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, McKenzie, Perdue, Price, Rose, Shands, Shepherd, Shuler, Smith, Taylor, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—37.

Nays—None.

So House Bill No. 1757 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives immediately, by waiver of the rule.

Senator Horne moved that the rules be waived and when the Senate adjourns this day it adjourn to reconvene at 9:00 o'clock A. M., Friday, June 6, 1941.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and it was so ordered.

Senator Maines moved that the Senate do now adjourn. Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Maines the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor—14.

Nays—Mr. President; Senators Adams (25th), Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, McKenzie, Shepherd, Smith, Whitaker, Wilson—19.

So the motion made by Senator Maines that the Senate do now adjourn failed of adoption.

SPECIAL AND CONTINUING ORDER

Senator Horne moved that the further consideration of House Bill No. 1861, with pending amendment, be informally passed.

Senator Collins moved that a committee be appointed to escort Mrs. Frank D. Moor, former president of the Alumni Association of the Florida State College for Women and recently designated by the Association as the most outstanding alumnus of the institution, to a seat on the rostrum.

Which was agreed to.

The President appointed Senators Collins, Lewis and Clarke as the Committee.

Senator Dye now presiding.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Horne at the morning session, this day, and the hour having arrived, the Senate took up for consideration House Bill No. 1862, as a Special and Continuing Order.

House Bill No. 1862:

A bill to be entitled An Act relating to and concerning taxation; providing for: lien of taxes; assessment of real and personal property; name in which real estate assessed where no return made; submission of assessment roll; completing assessment roll; rate of taxation; when collections to be made; correction of errors; duties of County and State officers; date taxes become delinquent; the sale of lands for unpaid taxes; when taxes due; discounts; issuance, sale and redemption of tax sale certificates; the procedure for issuing tax deeds to persons other than the County and to the County; the County to sell and convey lands owned by virtue of tax deeds; refunds; cancellation of certain tax sale certificates on order of Comptroller; Comptroller to be party to suit to cancel certain tax certificates; right of immediate possession in the grantee of tax deed; the Comptroller to prescribe forms, rules and regulations and to have general supervision over the assessment and collection of taxes, and of assessment rolls and County budgets, with the approval of the Governor; and furnish forms; the enforcement of this Act; submission of tax assessors' and collectors' budgets; reduction of millage after raising assessment; submission of taxing authorities' budgets to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction as provided by law; penalties for violations of certain Sections of this Act; the repeal of laws in conflict herewith.

Was taken up.

Senator Horne moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1862 be read the second time by title only.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Horne the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Cliett, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—22.

Nays—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor—15.

Which was not agreed to by the required two-thirds vote so House Bill No. 1862 was ordered read the second time in full.

Pending second reading of House Bill No. 1862, Senator Ward moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Ward that the Senate do now adjourn the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor, Ward—17.

Nays—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Whitaker, Wilson—18.

So the motion made by Senator Ward that the Senate do now adjourn failed of adoption and the second reading of House Bill No. 1862 in full, was resumed.

Pending second reading of House Bill No. 1862, Senator Drummond moved that the Senate take a recess for one minute.

Which was not agreed to and the second reading of House Bill No. 1862 in full, was resumed.

Pending second reading of House Bill No. 1862, Senator Drummond moved that the record show that the time is now

1:27 o'clock A. M., Friday, June 6, 1941, and the Sergeant-at-Arms be instructed to check the clock to see if it is accurate.

Which was not agreed to so the motion failed of adoption.

Pending second reading of House Bill No. 1862, Senator Drummond moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Drummond that the Senate do now adjourn the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor, Ward—17.

Nays—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Whitaker—19.

So the motion made by Senator Drummond that the Senate do now adjourn failed of adoption and the second reading of House Bill No. 1862 in full, was resumed.

The following explanation of vote on the last preceding roll call was filed with the Secretary:

I vote "yes" to adjourn because it is now 1:31 o'clock upon the morning of Friday, June 6th, 1941, and the reading Secretary has been reading upon House Bill No. 1862 for about one hour and has many more sections yet to read.

(Signed) A. P. DRUMMOND,

Third District.

The second reading of House Bill No. 1862 was resumed and completed.

Senator Horne moved that further consideration of House Bill No. 1862 be postponed until 9:00 o'clock A. M., Friday, June 6, 1941.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

The roll was called on the motion made by Senator Horne and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—21.

Nays—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor—16.

Which was agreed to and the further consideration of House Bill No. 1862 was postponed until 9:00 o'clock A. M., Friday, June 6, 1941.

The following explanations of vote on the last preceding roll call were filed with the Secretary:

I vote "No" because it is now 2:05 o'clock A. M., Friday, June 6, 1941.

(Signed) J. FRANK ADAMS,

25th District.

I voted to adjourn June 6th at 2:07 o'clock A. M.

(Signed) D. M. JOHNSON,

9th District.

I vote "No" at this time, it being 2:03 o'clock upon the morning of June 6th, 1941, at this time.

(Signed) A. P. DRUMMOND,

3rd District.

Senator Cooley moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

The roll was called on the motion made by Senator Cooley and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Lindler, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor—17.

Nays—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Ward, Whitaker, Wilson—20.

So the motion made by Senator Cooley failed of adoption.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Horne at the morning session, this day, and the hour having arrived, the Senate took up for consideration House Bill No. 1464, as a Special and Continuing Order.

House Bill No. 1464:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 752 Revised General Statutes of Florida, being Section 965, Compiled

General Laws of Florida of 1927 and Section 753, Revised General Statutes of Florida, being Section 966, Compiled General Laws of Florida of 1927, relating to taxation; by declaring that taxes on any railroad or any part thereof in this State shall become delinquent if not paid before April first following the year in which said taxes are levied and assessed and declaring that such delinquent taxes shall bear interest until paid and requiring the Comptroller to collect the interest on such delinquent taxes.

Was taken up and read the second time in full.

Senator Butler moved that the rules be waived for the purpose of his moving to expunge from the records of the Senate the explanations of votes filed with the Secretary at this session by Senators Johnson, Adams (25th) and Drummond, and the motion made by Senator Drummond at this session that the Sergeant-at-Arms be instructed to check the accuracy of the clock.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon call of the roll on the motion made by Senator Butler the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Beall, Butler, Clarke, Collins, Drummond, Dye, Graham, Hinely, Horne, Kanner, Kelly, King, Lewis, Lindler, McKenzie, Perdue, Shepherd, Smith, Whitaker, Wilson—21.

Nays—Senators Adams (25th), Adams (30th), Cliett, Cooley, Folks, Gideons, Housholder, Johnson, Maddox, Maines, Price, Rose, Shands, Shuler, Taylor, Ward—16.

Which was not agreed to by the required two-thirds vote so the motion made by Senator Butler failed of adoption.

Senator Kanner moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now revert to the consideration of Messages from the House of Representatives.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.
