INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND CONSIDERATION OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

By Senators Collins and Carroll—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5:

A RESOLUTION LOOKING TOWARD THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PEACE ON EARTH AND GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN IN THE WORLD FOLLOWING THE WAR IN WHICH WE ARE NOW ENGAGED.

WHEREAS, it is the hope of every American that out of the suffering, the destruction, and the horror of this war, there shall rise the foundations of a lasting peace, affording to all peoples of the world freedom of worship, freedom of speech, freedom from fear, and freedom from want, and to the minorities everywhere protection of those inalienable rights which should be the heritage of every human being, and

WHEREAS, there can be no lasting peace unless rampant and unrestrained nationalism and economic and military aggression are forever eliminated from all the nations of the world, and

WHEREAS, a lasting peace can only be established upon the foundation of the dignity of the spirit and soul of man, and to assure such requires the opportunity for a reasonable measure of prosperity and welfare for all people, and

WHEREAS, such aims can be achieved only by an international organization of nations, wherein each will surrender some of its sovereignty in order that the protection and welfare of all may be secured.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING:

(1) That it is hereby declared to be our profound conviction that an international organization of all nations to achieve these results must be an essential condition of the peace which is to come.

(2) That we hereby memorialize the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States to lend every effort to accomplish this end.

(3) That a certified copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, to the Vice-President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each member of the Congress of the United States elected from the State of Florida.

Which was read the first time in full.

Senator Collins moved that the rules be waived and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5 be read the second time in full.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5 was read the second time in full.

The question was put on the adoption of the Concurrent Resolution.

Which was agreed to and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5 was adopted, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

By Senator Perdue—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION proposing the appointment of a committee to investigate the damage caused by the high water in Levy County, Florida, in 1941 and 1942 and to make a report to the Legislature concerning the same.

WHEREAS, in 1941 and 1942 great damage was caused to the people and property in Levy County, Florida, by the overflow of rivers, lakes, and streams in Levy County, and

WHEREAS, the amount of such damage has never been estimated.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING:

SECTION 1. That a committee of five (5) be appointed, three (3) of which shall be appointed by the President of the Senate and two (2) of which shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House to make an investigation of the damage that was done by the overflow of rivers, lakes, and streams in Levy County, Florida, in 1941 and 1942 to the people and property in said county.

SECTION 2. Said committee is hereby directed to make this report to this Legislature as early as possible.

SECTION 3. In the event that the committee finds it impossible to assemble and acquire the necessary data and information upon which to base its report to this Legislature, the committee named herein shall continue to function after adjournment of said Legislature and shall make whatever investigations it may deem necessary and report back to the Legislature of 1945, or a special session of the Legislature if the same be called, all of the data, information and facts it may have in its possession together with its findings and recommendations pertaining to the same, and the actual and necessary expenses of the committee in performing its duties, as herein outlined, shall be paid out of the General Revenue Fund upon requisition therefor by said members.

Which was read the first time in full.

Senator Perdue moved that the rules be waived and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6 be read the second time in full.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6 was read the second time in full.

Pending adoption of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6, Senator Perdue moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6 be referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Which was agreed to and it was so ordered.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
April 15, 1943.

Hon. Philip D. Beall,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted.

By Senators Beacham and Baker—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4:

WHEREAS, pursuant to the authority of Chapter 20,214, Laws of Florida, regular session of 1941, under the able guidance and command of Major Wright Vermilya, Jr., the First Air Squadron of the Florida Defense Force was organized and perfected, being the first militia air force to be organized in the United States; and

WHEREAS, immediately prior to the attack on Pearl Harbor by the Japanese, an organization known as the Civil Air Patrol was formed and allied with the Office of Civilian Defense of the United States, of which the First Air Squadron of the Florida Defense Force became a Wing, designated as the Florida Wing No. 41, with Major Vermilya as its Wing Commander, furnishing to the Civil Air Patrol hundreds of thoroughly trained pilots, observers, and technical experts, many of whom owned good and serviceable airplanes suitable for duties in the war effort; and

WHEREAS, the Civil Air Patrol has been closely coordinated with the United States Army Air Forces, having as its National Commander, Major Earle L. Johnson, U. S. Army Air Corps, whose record as a flier and organizer is outstanding; and

WHEREAS, Florida has produced, by the systemized program of the First Air Squadron, Florida Defense Force and the Civil Air Patrol, many pilots, observers, mechanics and technical men and women now assigned with the Anti-Submarine Patrol along the eastern seaboard, most of whom could not have been used in the armed services due to their age or slight physical disabilities, and who are due a great deal of credit for the hazardous tasks performed, the military manner in which they have accomplished such tasks, and the loyal and patriotic spirit maintained by them when called upon by the Military Service to perform military work, though civilians; and

WHEREAS, history alone will give proper recognition to the good work done by the Coastal Patrol of the Civil Air Patrol in their activities against Nazi submarines in waters adjacent to our shores, and only our later records will reveal these accomplishments as all duties performed on active military missions by Civil Air Patrol members must and will be kept a military secret; and

WHEREAS, the Coastal Patrol of the Civil Air Patrol consists of personnel which is required to keep an alert watch over great bodies of water for the approach of enemy submarines which have been a menace to shipping along the commerce lanes of this country, and these individuals have gone forth on their duties in personally owned aircraft, and have performed like soldiers, offering their services to their country free, as well as the use of their airplanes, their radios and other necessary equipment, receiving only a per diem for their expenses; and

WHEREAS, the personnel of the Civil Air Patrol is trained in the difficult and particular field of airport concealment and protection, and is prepared to guard such airports in time of invasion, against enemies and in the manner prescribed for soldiers, and are well trained in the art, and perform the duties of target towing, searchlight tracking for ground forces, military courier service for various army posts, industrial courier service for the many wartime industries, and assist the Forestry Service during its shortage of manpower in State and National forestry patrols.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That we go on record as commending the officers and members of the Civil Air Patrol for their patriotic activities, sacrifices, and accomplishments toward the end of winning the war; and that this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and Senate.

Respectfully,

WALTER P. FULLER,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4, contained in
