Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10 was read the second time in full.

The question was put on the adoption of the Concurrent Resolution.

Which was agreed to.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10 was adopted and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

By Senators Clarke, McArthur and Shands—

Senate Resolution No. 20:

WHEREAS, Honorable Theodore Tiffany Turnbull, a former member of this body passed away at Monticello, Florida, January 13th, 1944, and

WHEREAS, Senator Turnbull was not only held in high esteem by those with whom he served in the Senate, but by the people of the State of Florida who knew him, and

WHEREAS, in the death of Theodore Tiffany Turnbull, the State has lost an honorable, efficient and conscientious public servant, Therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the State of Florida preserve in its Journal, as a permanent record, the following brief history of the life and services of Theodore Tiffany Turnbull.

IN MEMORIAM—THEODORE TIFFANY TURNBULL

Theodore Tiffany Turnbull, the son of Richard Turnbull and Margaret (Bellany) Turnbull, was born July 7th, 1881, in Monticello, Jefferson County, Florida. He received his education in the public schools of Jefferson County and in Emory College, Oxford, Georgia, graduating from the latter in 1902 with the degree of A. B. He received his legal training in the Law Department of the University of Georgia, and in 1904 began the practice of law in Monticello.

Mr. Turnbull served in the lower House of the Legislature during the 1915 and 1917 sessions, and this service was followed by six terms in the State Senate, of which body he was chosen President in 1923. He was appointed Attorney for the Railroad Commission in 1927 and served until 1942 when he resigned.

A year later he again returned to the position and held it when he passed away.

Long a leader in Democratic councils, in 1937 Senator Turnbull was chosen Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee and served for the following five years.

In 1911 the subject of this sketch married Miss Pearl Whetstone of Gainesville, Florida, and to this union were born three children, Captain T. T. Turnbull, Jr., now with the Armed Forces, and Misses Margaret Scott Turnbull and Pearl Turnbull.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that in the death of Honorable Theodore Tiffany Turnbull the State of Florida has lost a fine citizen, the Democratic Party a safe and conservative counselor, and the people a public servant who would not betray their trust.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions, under the Seal of the Secretary of State, be immediately forwarded to the bereaved family of Honorable Theodore Tiffany Turnbull.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions and accompanying memorials be spread upon the journal of today's proceeding and made a permanent record of this Legislature.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the Press.

Which was read the first time in full.

The question was put on the adoption of the Resolution.

Which was unanimously agreed to by a standing vote of the Senate and Senate Resolution No. 12 was adopted.

The following Message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida, May 9, 1945.

Hon. Walter W. Rose,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

By Messrs. Peters, Okell and Oelkers of Dade—

H. B. No. 525—A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 22 of Chapter 13972 of the laws of Florida, 1929, said Act being entitled "An Act to abolish the present municipal government of the City of Coral Gables, Dade County, Florida, and create, establish and organize a municipality to be known and designated as the City of Coral Gables, and to define its territorial boundaries, and to provide for taxes, government, jurisdiction, powers and privileges," by providing that officers and employees appointed by the city manager or under his authorization may be removed, suspended, laid off, or reduced in grade by the city manager; or by the officer by whom appointed, for any cause which will promote the efficiency of the service, such action to be subject to approval of the city manager; that such officers or employees, with certain exceptions, may request in writing written statement of reasons for action which shall be furnished, and by providing for a sworn reply to such statement of reasons by such officer or employee with a demand for hearing; providing that failure of such officer or employee to request written statement of reasons or to reply thereto within a period designated, constitutes full waiver of rights; by providing that the matter in controversy be referred to a special trial board which shall investigate and determine propriety of action and which shall render a decision or verdict, which decision or verdict may be appealed to the city commission by affected officer or employee, but not by the city manager; and providing that city commission, after investigation, may confirm or reverse decision of trial board, such decision by city commission to be final; providing that trial board and city commission may conduct hearings, summon witnesses and hear evidence; providing that trial board may determine what compensation, allowance or adjustment of pay affected officer or employee is entitled to, which findings shall likewise be subject to right of appeal to the city commission by affected officer or employee; but not by city manager; providing that by ordinance the city commission shall provide for the establishment of a special trial board, to be composed of five (5) citizens of the City of Coral Gables, not its officers or employees, two (2) to be appointed or elected by the employees of the city, in the manner prescribed by such ordinance, two (2) to be appointed by the city commission, the fifth (5th) to be selected by the four (4) members chosen and, in case of failure so to appoint, the fifth (5th) to be appointed by the County Judge of Dade County, Florida.
