—36.

A quorum present.

Senator McKenzie was excused from attendance upon the session.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain:

"Enlighten our minds, Almighty God, and give us a firm grasp of reality and truth that we may see our world as a dismal tragedy hastening to destruction and chaos when men forget Thee and forsake Thy law, but also as a glorious adventure partaking of Thy harmony and beauty when men turn to Thee and live and work in Thy love. Use us and all our efforts, O God, to hasten the day when all men will catch the vision of Thy high and holy purpose for them and changing from their ways into Thy way, will become Thy sons with Thy living power for good. Amen."

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

The Journal of Wednesday, May 16, 1945, was corrected and as corrected was approved.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND CONSIDERATION OF SENATE RESOLUTIONS

By Senators McArthur, Clarke and Johns—

Senate Resolution No. 21:

WHEREAS, Honorable Samuel J. Hilburn, a former member of this body, passed away September 27, 1943, and

WHEREAS, Senator Hilburn during his membership in both House and Senate was a man of ability, intelligence and patriotism, and

WHEREAS, his death has removed from among us an able lawyer and a courteous gentleman, Therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, first that, the Senate as tribute of respect publish in its Daily Journal, the following brief sketch of the life and achievements of Samuel J. Hilburn.

In Memoriam—Samuel J. Hilburn

Samuel J. Hilburn, son of Ancram Spencer and Mary Emily (Staughan) Hilburn, was born in Gainesville, Arkansas, May 30, 1869. Acquiring a high school education, he secured a first grade teachers certificate and taught three years in the schools of his native state. His higher education was received at Centenary College, where he received a medal for oratory, and his legal training at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tennessee, from which he received the degree of LL.B in 1894.

Entering upon the practice of law in Palatka, Florida, the year of his graduation from law school, Mr. Hilburn made an enviable reputation as attorney and it is said, in a biographical sketch published in 1914, that he had the best legal library in Putnam County. He was city attorney of Palatka for eleven years and chairman of the School Board of Putnam county for seven years.

In 1908 he was elected to the State House of Representatives and in the 1909 session proved himself one of the ablest members of the entire Legislature. Mr. Hilburn was elected to the State Senate in 1910, serving during the 1911 session, but resigned in 1912. He was again elected State Senator in 1930, serving in the 1931 and 1933 sessions. In 1937 he was appointed a member of the State Racing Commission, a position he still held at the time of his death.

The subject of this sketch was a Methodist in religion, Fraternally he was a Mason and a member of the Knights of Pythias and in politics he was a Democrat.

On April 30, 1896, Mr. Hilburn was united in marriage to Miss Jessie A. Moncrief, a native of Florida. To this union was born one child, a daughter, Kathleen Adair Hilburn, now Mrs. George McReynolds.

BE IT RESOLVED, Second that in the death of Senator Hilburn the State has lost a man who rendered it much service and one whose achievements will not be forgotten.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions with memorial sketch in the Journal be sent the bereaved family of the deceased under the certificate of the Secretary of State.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy be furnished to the Press.

Which was read the first time in full.

The question was put on the adoption of the Resolution.

Which was unanimously agreed to by a standing vote of the Senate and Senate Resolution No. 21 was adopted.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 221 was read the second time by title only.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 221:

Strike out the title and insert in lieu thereof the following:

An Act amending Sections 199.02, as amended, 199.04, 199.07, 199.18, 199.21, 199.24, 199.25, 199.30, 199.31, as amended, Florida Statutes 1941, relating to the imposition, assessment, levy, payment, collection and disposition of taxes on intangible personal property; providing for penalties, cost and interest, exceptions from tax liability, minimum amount of taxes to be extended on tax rolls, advertising delinquent taxes, time of destroying tax returns and tax liability, and returns of those becoming legal residents subsequent to January 1st and prior to April 1st; prescribing procedure in issuing and enforcing tax executions, effect thereof and duties and fees of tax collectors in respect thereto; providing for approval by tax assessors of tax refunds; repealing Section 199.19, Florida Statutes 1941, and all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act.

Senator Shands moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Finance and Taxation also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 221:

Strike out everything after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Section 199.02, Florida Statutes 1941, as amended by Chapter 21943, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1943, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.02. Classes of intangible personal property.—For the purpose of taxation Intangible Personal Property is hereby divided into four (4) classes to be known as Class A, B, C, and D, Intangible Personal Property.

"(1) Class A Intangible Personal Property is hereby defined as all moneys, United States Legal Tender notes, bank deposits and all kinds, Certificates of deposits, cashier's and certified checks, bills of exchange, drafts, and money placed with savings, building and loan associations.

"(2) Class B Intangible Personal Property is hereby defined as being all stocks, or shares of incorporated or unincorporated companies; all bonds except bonds of the several municipalities, counties and other taxing districts of the State of Florida, an except bonds of the United States Government and its agencies; all notes, bonds and other obligations bearing date prior to January 1, 1942, for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other liens upon real or personal estates situated in Florida, provided that only that part of the value of the mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien, the property of which is located within the State shall bear to the whole value of the property described in said obligation shall be included; and the beneficial interest of residents of Florida in trust estates of all kinds when the trustee resides outside of the State of Florida, or if the trustee is a corporation and has its principal place of business outside of the State of Florida, provided that if the trustee returns to the tax assessor such beneficial interest and pays the tax thereon to the tax collector in Florida, then the owner of such beneficial interests shall not be required to return the same for taxation; provided further that when the trustee is a resident of Florida and returns the corpus of the trust for taxation as provided by law there shall be no tax upon the beneficial interest in such trust.

"(3) Class C Intangible Personal Property is hereby defined as being all notes, bonds and other obligations bearing date subsequent to December 31, 1941, for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other liens upon real property situated in Florida, provided that only that part of the value of the mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien, the real property of which is located within the State shall bear to the whole value of the real property described in said obligation shall be included.

"(4) Class D Intangible Personal Property shall include all other Intangible Personal Property not embraced in Classes A, B or C.

"(5) Intangible Personal Property belonging to the State of Florida, or any political subdivision thereof, and Intangible Personal Property belonging to any Religious, Charitable, Benevolent or Educational Association shall be exempt from taxation.

"(6) Nothing herein contained shall apply to franchises."

Section 2. That Section 199.04, Florida Statutes, 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.04 Assessment of intangible personal property.—Intangible Personal Property shall be assessed by the tax assessor of each and every county in the State of Florida on a separate tax roll, which shall be designated the Intangible Personal Property Tax Roll, the form of which shall be prescribed by the Comptroller. Such tax roll shall distinctly show the name and address of the taxpayer and the amount of the valuation for tax purposes of intangible personal property, assessed against such taxpayers on said tax roll provided, however, that no tax shall be extended on said Intangible Personal Property Tax Roll in an amount less than twenty-five cents."

Section 3. That Section 199.07, Florida Statutes, 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.07 Returns of Intangible personal property for taxation.—It is hereby made the duty of every person, firm or corporation in this State owning or having control, management, or custody of intangible personal property which is subject to taxation under the laws of Florida, including trustees, executors, administrators, receivers and all other fiduciaries, to file a sworn return of the same with the County Assessor of taxes in the property County on or before the first day of April of each and every year, giving the character, description, location and full cash value of same according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the return. It is provided that intangible personal property of a taxable class owned by or under the control, management or custody of every person that becomes a legal resident of this State subsequent to January 1st and prior to the following April 1st of any year shall be subject to taxation on the date upon which such person becomes a legal resident of this State and such person shall file a return and be liable for intangible personal property taxes for said year; provided, however, that the tax assessor in his discretion may grant such taxpayer a reasonable extension of time in which to file a return, and provided further that credit shall be allowed against such taxes for any amount of intangible or income taxes such taxpayer is required to pay to another state for all or any part of said year on said intangible personal property or the income therefrom. Intangible personal property tax returns shall not be open to inspection except by the Officers of the State and County whose duties require their examination thereof or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction requiring the same as relevant evidence. No officer examining such returns shall divulge their contents, other than the total value and tax thereon, or make or permit to be made any copy or list therefrom. When any intangible personal property tax or assessment shall have been paid, it shall be the duty of the Tax Assessor to return and deliver to the taxpayer at his request, the original intangible personal property tax return or returns of the taxpayer upon or in connection with which such intangible personal property taxes shall have been assessed and levied. If a taxpayer shall not request the surrender of his intangible personal property tax return after having paid his intangible personal property tax, it shall be the duty of the Tax Assessor to destroy all intangible personal property tax returns filed with him within three (3) years after the same have been paid."

Section 4. That Section 199.18, Florida Statutes 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.18 When tax deemed delinquent; tax executions.—Taxes on intangible personal property shall be deemed delinquent on the first day of April of the year following that for which the assessment was made. On April fifteenth the tax collector shall advertise one time, in a newspaper selected by the Board of County Commissioners at their regular meeting in February of each year, said newspaper to be qualified to publish legal advertising as provided by Chapter 49, Florida Statutes 1941, a notice setting forth the names of delinquent intangible personal property taxpayers and the amount of tax due by each and advising them that such taxes are now drawing interest at the rate of one per cent per month, and that unless such taxes are paid before the first day of May tax executions will issue thereon; which advertisement shall be paid for by the county at the rate provided by law for legal advertisements and the proportionate cost of such advertisement shall be added to the delinquent taxes and paid by the taxpayer as and when the taxes are paid. The form of the notice and the form of the tax execution provided for herein shall be prescribed by the Comptroller.

Beginning on the first day of May the tax collector shall issue tax executions for enforcing the collection of all intangible personal property taxes remaining unpaid on that date. Such tax executions shall show the name of the taxpayer and the amount of taxes assessed against him as shown by the Intangible Personal Property Tax Roll, plus delinquent charges and interest. It shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county in person or by deputy forthwith to proceed to make the necessary evies and collections of taxes, penalties and costs pursuant to such tax executions. A tax execution shall have the force and effect of a personal judgment and execution at law against the taxpayer and may be levied upon and satisfied out of any property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to the taxpayer in like manner by the tax collector as executions on judgments of the Circuit Court in law cases are satisfied by the sheriff.

"When it shall become necessary for the tax collector to advertise property for sale under execution, or executions, he shall include in one notice of sale the names of the owners, general descriptions of all properties to be sold on said sales day, the amount of the execution against each owner, and the date, place and time of sale. Said sale shall be made at the door of the County Court House. The tax collector or his deputy shall offer for sale and sell separately the property belonging to each owner. No property of the taxpayer shall be exempt from levy under such tax execution. The Tax Collector shall be entitled to the following fees for executing and collecting tax executions without sale; on amounts of less than five dollars taxes, his fees shall be one dollar; on amounts of over five dollars but less than ten dollars taxes, his fee shall be one dollar and fifty cents; and on amounts over ten dollars taxes, he shall receive a fee of two dollars; provided, however, that if the tax execution is collected by levy and sale, the tax collector shall receive the same fees as are allowed by law to the sheriff, and provided further, that all said fees shall be added to the amount of the total tax stated in such tax executions and shall be collected by the tax collector of his deputy from the taxpayer, and not from the County or State."

Section 5. That Section 199.19, Florida Statutes 1941, relating to the return of tax executions by the sheriff, is hereby repealed.

Section 6. That Section 199.21, Florida Statutes 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.21. Tax executions may operate as writ of garnishment.—Tax executions shall have the same force and effect as a writ of garnishment when levied upon any person, firm or corporation who shall have any goods, moneys, chattels or effects of the delinquent taxpayer in his hands, possession or control or who shall be indebted to such delinquent taxpayer. When any tax execution is so levied upon any debtor or person holding property of the taxpayer, such debtor or person shall pay the debt or deliver the property of the tax delinquent to the tax collector or his deputy levying such writ, and the receipt of the tax collector or his deputy therefor shall be complete discharge to that extent of the debtor or person holding such property. In the event of such levy the tax collector or his deputy shall make note thereof upon the tax execution."

Section 7. That Section 199.24, Florida Statutes 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.24. Duty of tax collector to record and endeavor to collect tax executions.—It shall be the duty of the Tax Collector to file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and of said clerk to record, without charge, in the book containing the record of liens, all such tax executions when returned uncollected, or as soon as possible thereafter. The Tax Collector or the Comptroller may, however, record any such tax execution before levy, if they have, or either of them has reason to believe it to be advisable to take such action promptly. The original tax execution shall be returned by the clerk, when recorded, to the Tax Collector. The Tax Collector shall record in like manner an alias tax execution in every county in which the delinquent taxpayer has, or in which the Tax Collector has reason to believe that he has, real estate. Upon request of the Comptroller, the Tax Collector shall issue alias tax executions which shall be delivered to the Comptroller who shall record them in every county in which the delinquent taxpayer has, or in which the Comptroller has reason to believe that he has, real estate. All such tax executions shall run throughout the State of Florida and shall be executed by any Tax Collector or deputy tax collector in any other county at the instance of the Tax Collector by whom it was issued or of the Comptroller."

Section 8. That Section 199.25, Florida Statutes 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.25 Tax Collector to keep record of tax executions; satisfaction of liens.—The Tax Collector shall keep a record of all tax executions and note thereon the date of the issue and of the return of the same, the date of payment thereof, the county or counties in which it is recorded, and the date thereof and the amount of money, if any, received by the Tax Collector on such tax executions and the disposition thereof made by him and the respective dates thereof. Such records shall be known as the Tax Executions Register, and the form thereof shall be prescribed by the Comptroller. When any such tax execution shall have been recorded and shall thereafter be paid, it shall be the duty of the Tax Collector to endorse such payment on the margin of the record of the tax execution in the Lien Book of the county where it was issued, and of the clerk or his deputy to attest such endorsement. If the tax execution shall have been recorded in another county, and thereafter paid, it shall be the duty of the Tax Collector to execute and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of such county a written satisfaction of such tax execution, which satisfaction need not be witnessed or acknowledged, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of every such county to record the same in the Book of Satisfaction of Liens. Whenever a tax execution is paid, the Clerk of the Court in every county in which such execution is recorded shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for the recording of a satisfaction of such execution. Such fee shall be paid by the party filing the satisfaction for record."

Section 9. That Section 199.30, Florida Statutes 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.30 Failure to file return and pay the tax when due.—Any person who fails to make a tax return as required by this Act, shall pay as a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax a sum equal to ten per cent (10%) of the tax found to be due. A taxpayer making a return and who fails to include therein all of his intangible personal property subject to taxation, as required by this Act shall pay as a penalty in addition to and as part of the tax a sum equal to ten per cent (10%) of the tax found to be due upon that part of his intangible personal property which he fails to include in his return. All taxes together with any penalties shall draw interest at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date the said taxes become delinquent until the same shall be paid. In making a back assessment of omitted property, there shall be added as a penalty the sum of ten per cent (10%) of the tax per annum from the date such tax should have been paid."

Section 10. That Section 199.31, Florida Statutes 1941, as amended by Chapter 21943, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1943, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"199.31. Disposition of intangible personal property taxes; appropriations and expenses, to commissions of county tax assessors and collectors and for refunds.—All intangible personal property taxes levied, assessed and collected under and pursuant to this Chapter shall be promptly remitted by the Tax Collector to the Comptroller of the State of Florida to be placed in a special fund designated as the 'Intangible Tax Fund'. There is hereby appropriated annually out of the Intangible Tax Fund the amount necessary for the effective and efficient enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and for the fees of the County Assessors and Tax Collectors allowed them by the law for the assessment and collection of Intangible Personal Property taxes. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller to pay from the Intangible Tax Fund these costs and fees. When money has been paid into the Intangible Tax Fund in payment of any intangible personal property taxes, whether payment was made voluntarily or involuntarily, the Comptroller is authorized and directed to refund to the person who paid same, or to his heirs, personal representatives or assigns: (a) Any overpayment; (b) Payment where no tax was due; and (c) Where a bona fide controversy exists between the Tax Collector and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of the tax claimed to be due; the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the Tax Collector to be due and if it is finally adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of taxes, or any part thereof, the Comptroller shall make such refund as the Court may direct. Except when made pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, no refund of taxes shall be made by the Comptroller unless the Assessor of the county in which said assessment was made shall have approved such refund in writing and filed a copy of such approval with the Comptroller. Each refund shall be charged against the taxes collected from the county of the residence of the taxpayer to whom the refund is made and shall be considered in arriving at the amount of money to be received by the county. There is hereby appropriated annually, out of funds coming into the Comptroller's hands under the provisions of this chapter, an amount necessary to make such refunds. The Comptroller shall pay from the Intangible Tax Fund the entire cost of all forms, books and records required by law to be furnished each county or county officer by the Comptroller in connection with the assessment and collection of ad valorem taxes, and a sum sufficient to pay therefor is hereby annually appropriated out of the Intangible Tax Fund. After all of the above amounts have been paid there is hereby appropriated annually out of the Intangible Tax Fund: (a) Seventy-five per cent (75%) of the net fund to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Florida, and (b) twenty-five per cent (25%) of the net fund to each county in proportion to the net amount of intangible personal property taxes received from the respective several counties, and such money shall be paid to the Board of County Commissioners of each county for use by the Board for county purposes."

Section 11. That if any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this Act is for any reason held or declared to be unconstitutional, inoperative or void, such holding or invalidity shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act.

Section 12. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 13. This Act shall take effect immediately upon its becoming a law.

Senator Shands moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Beacham moved that the rules be further waived and House Bill No. 221, as amended, be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.
