Strike out everything after the enacting clause and insert the following in lieu thereof: Section 1. Section 952.01, Florida Statutes, 1941, is amended to read:

952.01 Inspectors of prisoners; qualifications. The board of commissioners of state institutions shall employ four inspectors of prisoners, who shall be men known to be capable, truthful, honest and sober; one of such inspectors shall reside in each of the four congressional districts as they existed on June 7, 1923; each inspector shall be employed for a period of one year but he may be discharged at any time when his services are not satisfactory to the board of commissioners of state institutions.

Further, the board of commissioners of state institutions shall employ one woman as a state inspector of prisoners who shall have the same qualifications as provided in paragraph one of this section and who shall be employed from the state at large and whose duty shall be to inspect women prisoners in all institutions wherein women prisoners are confined.

Section 2. Section 952.02, Florida Statutes, 1941, is amended to read: 952.02 Duties and compensation of prisoner inspectors. Each prisoner inspector may enter any place where prisoners in this state are kept and shall be immediately admitted to such places when he demands admittance. He may consult and confer with any prisoner privately and without molestation. The territory to be covered by each inspector and the extent of his district shall be prescribed by the board of commissioners of state institutions. The duties of a prison inspector shall be to inspect each jail and all the prisoners therein within his district once each month.

When inspecting jails he shall observe and report on the condition of the jail with reference to physical condition, cleanliness, sanitation, safety and comfort, the quality and supply of bedding, the quality, quantity and diversity of food served and the manner in which it is served and the number and condition of prisoners confined therein.

He shall inspect each prison farm, prison camp, or other places where prisoners are kept and worked within his district once each month and in making such inspections he shall observe and report the condition of the houses, stockades, vans or other places where prisoners are kept with reference to physical condition, cleanliness, sanitation, safety and comfort, the supply and condition of bedding, the quality, quantity and condition of all wearing apparel, the quality, quantity and diversity of food, the manner in which food is prepared and served. This inspection shall include a thorough inspection and investigation of food that is sent or taken out to prisoners for the mid-day meal at the place where it is to be eaten.

He shall inspect each prisoner and report complaints. He shall examine the bodies of prisoners for bruises or lacerations of the skin or flesh and when such are found shall ascertain and report the cause. He shall see that all rules and regulations issued by the commissioner of agriculture and the board of commissioners of state institutions are strictly observed and followed by all persons connected with the prison system of this state. He shall be furnished blanks by the board of commissioners of state institutions on which to make detailed reports and his reports shall be made promptly and completely.

The compensation of each prisoner inspector shall be determined by the board of commissioners of state institutions and each of them shall be reimbursed for the amount of necessary traveling expense, all of which shall be paid by the board of commissioners of state institutions from the general revenue fund.

Section 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
