A quorum present.

The following prayer was offered by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend Walter R. Faust:

"O Lord, our Fortress of refuge, as Thou hast been our God grant that we may humbly walk as Thy people. In the present test as a nation keep us from both stupid apathy or unreasonable fear. With our trust in Thee, walking the path of faith and obedience—all the powers of hell cannot conquer over us. May Thy special gifts of health, wisdom and courage, be bestowed upon our Nation's President, and our Governor. May Thy grace enable them to profit from honest and constructive criticism, and stand aloof from false accusations. In this legislative Chamber, and its various Committee sessions, may Thy presence be felt in a unity for good, for God, and for the constituents whom they serve. In the Savior's name we pray, Amen."
