HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 579—A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT OF ARTICLE III OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA RELATING TO THE LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT BY STRIKING THEREFROM SECTIONS 2 AND 4 THEREOF PERTAINING TO SESSIONS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND ELIGIBILITY AND REMUNERATION OF LEGISLATORS AND INSERTING IN LIEU THEREOF SECTIONS NUMBERED 2 AND 4 RESPECTIVELY, PERTAINING TO THE SAME GENERAL SUBJECT MATTER.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following amendment of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to the legislative department, be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida for approval or rejection at the next general election to be held in 1954, that is to say that Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida be amended by striking therefrom present Sections 2 and 4 and inserting in lieu thereof the following Sections to be numbered 2 and 4 respectively:

Section 2. Regular and extra sessions.—The regular sessions of the Legislature shall be held biennially, commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in April, A. D. 1887, and on the corresponding day of every second year thereafter, but the Governor may convene the same in extra session by his proclamation. Regular sessions of the Legislature may extend to sixty days, but no special session convened by the Governor shall exceed twenty days. The regular sixty-day biennial session of the Legislature may be extended not exceeding thirty days by a majority vote of both houses. Any such extension need not be for consecutive days, and recesses therein may be taken by joint action of both houses; provided, however, that no such extended session may extend later than the first day of the month of September following the regular biennial session. During any such extended session, no additional proposed legislation shall be introduced unless consent is first obtained by a two-thirds vote of the members of the house into which it is sought to be introduced.

Section 4. Legislators, salaries, etc. The pay of members of the Legislature shall be One Thousand Two Hundred ($1,200.00) Dollars annually until otherwise provided by law, but the amount thereof shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which any senator shall have been elected. The Legislature shall also provide for subsistence and travel costs of members, but the amount thereof shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which any senator shall have been elected. Until such time as new subsistence regulations become effective, according to the provisions of this section, the allowances now existing shall remain in effect.

Was taken up and read the second time in full.

Senator Collins offered the following amendment to House Joint Resolution No. 579:

In Section 2, line 9-20 (typewritten bill) after "twenty days.": Strike out the balance of Section 2, beginning with "The regular sixty-day" and ending with "into which it is sought to be introduced." and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The regular sixty-day biennial session of the legislature may, by a three-fifths vote of the membership of both houses, be extended not exceeding a total of thirty days which need not be consecutive. Recesses in such extended session shall be taken only by joint action of both houses. No extended session may last beyond September 1st following the regular biennial session. During such extended session, no additional proposed legislation shall be introduced unless consent is first obtained by a two-thirds vote of the members of the House into which it is sought to be introduced"

Senator Collins moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Collins also offered the following amendment to House Joint Resolution No. 579:

In Section 4, line 1-13 (typewritten bill) after "Section 4. Legislators, salaries, etc." strike out the balance of the Section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall be duly qualified electors in the respective counties and districts for which they were chosen. The compensation of legislators shall be twelve hundred ($1200.00) dollars each year and shall be paid in monthly installments of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each. During the time the legislature is in session each legislator shall receive per diem and travel expenses as provided by law, but such may not exceed the allowances for such expenses provided for other state officials under general law."
