A Thought

I asked for strength, that I might achieve,
I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey . . .
I asked for health, that I might do greater things,
I was given infirmity, that I might do better things . . .
I asked for riches, that I might be happy,
I was given poverty that I might be wise . . .
I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men,
I was given weakness, that I might feel the need of God . . .
I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life,
I was given life, that I might enjoy all things . . .
I got nothing that I asked for—but everything that I had hoped for,

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.
I am among all men, most richly blessed.

O God, with whom is the fountain of life, help us to live so close to Thee that in Thy light we may see light and may not stumble or lose our way. If some worldly desire or ambition, or pride, has been tempting us to forget Thee, restore us to faith and obedience, that Christ may become for us again the light of all our seeing and the glory of all our days. Amen.

Senate Resolution No. 445:

A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AND COMMENDING RECIPIENTS OF THE ALLEN MORRIS AWARDS.

WHEREAS, It is well known that some of our citizens are quick to condemn their public officials for real or imagined wrongdoing, and

WHEREAS, The same citizens all too often fail to speak any word of praise for public servants who labor long, hard and conscientiously for the welfare of all the people, and

WHEREAS, This tendency on the part of some to be quick to criticize but slow to praise has discouraged many worthy young people from any thought of careers in government service, and

WHEREAS, Through the Allen Morris Awards, the members of the Legislature have been afforded the opportunity for giving public recognition to those whose activities have been especially praiseworthy, and

WHEREAS, The Honorable H. L. (Tom) Sebring, as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, once said at an Awards ceremony that "I can think of no higher honor than to be chosen as the recipient of such a coveted award," and

WHEREAS, Mr. Justice Sebring went on to say that the recipients of Allen Morris Awards had been selected, "not as a result of any popularity poll submitted to the public generally, but through a secret poll conducted by their colleagues in the Legislature—by people who, after all, are in the best position to know something about the quality and character of the public service rendered by the men with whom they work in long and turbulent legislative sessions, their integrity, their moral courage, their intellectual depths, their ability to work objectively on problems requiring cooperative effort, and all the countless other indefinable attributes upon which one cannot readily put one's finger but which measure the basic worth of a public servant and reflect his ability to get things done for his State, and the community he comes from, while having to work in harness with others who sometimes entertain entirely different views upon certain public questions which may seem to involve only the simplest of issues," and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Spessard L. Holland, United States Senator from Florida, said on the occasion of another Awards ceremony that "I like to take part in giving bouquets while those receiving them may still enjoy the fragrance and beauty of the flowers and may have the pleasure of knowing that their fellow citizens respect and love and honor them for the services which they have rendered," and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Fuller Warren, former Governor, described the Allen Morris Poll as "highly esteemed" and said the winning of an Award through the Morris Polls "is to enter the very Valhalla of Florida politics," and

WHEREAS, The Morris Poll is taken by secret mail ballot only among members of the Legislature, so Senators and Representatives selected for the Morris Awards are chosen by those who know most about their legislatibility, and

WHEREAS, The Honorable B. K. Roberts, as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, related at still another Awards ceremony how the Constitution provided "abundant machinery to protect those who make constructive criticism of public officials, there was no provision for the recognition of outstanding public service" until Allen Morris established these Awards in 1945. "It was an integral part of his plan that the members themselves, who work side by side, should make the selections by secret ballot. Since then, the Awards have become a tradition in the public life of this State and, with each passing session of the Legislature, have acquired added luster and increased distinction," NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

H. C. R. No. 61—A Concurrent Resolution commending Judge L. L. Fabisinski, as chairman, and the members of the committee appointed in 1956 to recommend legislative action for the preservation of the public schools of the state.

WHEREAS, On May 17, 1954, the nine men who constitute the Supreme Court of the United States by judicial decision leveled against the educational system—and through this at the entire social and economic structure—of Florida and her sister states of the South the gravest blow with which they have been threatened since those administered by the Reconstruction Congresses of more than seventy-five years ago and have, in fact, by their decision gone far beyond the intention of the Congress that framed and the states that ratified the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, In an effort to avert this threat and to preserve our public schools, the Governor and members of the cabinet did appoint a committee, whose purposes and obligations were to endeavor to determine the best interests, from an educational standpoint, of all of the children of our state; to further such interests in every manner and to do all that is possible to achieve and maintain the highest intellectual, moral and cultural standards in our school system; and to determine, as thoughtful and responsible citizens of the State of Florida and the United States, measures that should be considered by the Legislature of the State of Florida in keeping with these purposes and the preservation of our public school system, now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, THE SENATE CONCURRING:

That this Legislature, in behalf of the people of Florida and for itself, does commend and offer its most sincere gratitude for their untiring work and sound, constructive accomplishments to Judge L. L. Fabisinski, as chairman, Judge Rivers

Buford, as vice chairman, and Judge Millard Smith, the Honorable Cody Fowler, Luther Mershon, J. Lewis Hall and John T. Wigginton, as members of the committee appointed by the Governor and members of the cabinet of the State of Florida to recommend legislative action relating to public school education made expedient by recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution, suitably engrossed, signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives and attested, be sent to each of the members of the committee.
