So House Bill No. 657 passed, as amended, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

Senator Davis requested unanimous consent of the Senate to take up and consider House Bill No. 1403, out of its order.

Unanimous consent was granted, and—

H. B. No. 1403— A bill to be entitled An Act relating to Taylor county; amending section 4 of chapter 59-1927, Laws of Florida, relating to membership and tenure of the Taylor county development authority; providing for the termination of tenure in office of the present members of said development authority; providing for new members to be appointed by the Governor and providing for tenure of the new members; providing an effective date.

Was taken up.

Senator Davis moved that the rules be waived and House Bill No. 1403 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 1403 was read the second time by title only.

Senator Davis offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1403:

Strike out everything after the enacting clause, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. Section 4 of chapter 59-1927, Laws of Florida, is amended to read:

Section 4. Membership, etc.—The authority shall be composed of eleven (11) members. The chairman of the board of county commissioners of the county, the president of the city council of Perry, the president of the chamber of commerce, the president of the junior chamber of commerce, the president of the business and professional womens' club of Perry, and the member of the house of representatives for Taylor county, Florida, and their successors in office shall be ex officio members. Each of the other five (5) members shall be a freeholder and a qualified elector of the county. Members of the authority, exclusive of the ex officio members, shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners of said county. The five (5) appointed members shall serve for two (2) year terms and in the event of a vacancy, in the appointed members, said vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the board of county commissioners. The said five (5) appointive members shall be from the county at large rather than by district, and may succeed themselves in office.

Section 2. Section 6 of chapter 59-1927, Laws of Florida, is amended to read:

Section 6. Quorum; transaction of business.—Any seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the ordinary business of the authority. However, any action with respect to any project of the authority must be approved by not less than seven (7) affirmative votes. No business shall be transacted except at regularly called meetings and duly recorded in the minutes thereof.

Section 3. Section 11 of chapter 59-1927, Laws of Florida is amended to read:

Section 11. Audit.—The books and records of the authority shall be audited at least annually, at the expense of the authority, by a competent auditor, the authority shall furnish copies of said audit within ninety (90) days of the close of the calendar year to the board of county commissioners of Taylor county.

Section 4. This act and the appointments made herein shall take effect immediately upon becoming a law.

Senator Davis moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Davis also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1403:

In Title strike out the entire Title and insert in lieu thereof the following: An Act relating to Taylor County, amending sections 4, 6, and 11 of chapter 59-1927, Laws of Florida; relating to the Taylor County Development Authority; relating to membership, quorum for transaction of business and audit of books and records thereof.

Senator Davis moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.
