WHEREAS, all of the problems and the difficulties and trials of life, however important they may appear to be to society and the body politic, fade into insignificance in comparison to the depth of gratitude owed by each member of the Senate to his beloved Mother, if living, and to her cherished memory, if she has gone to her heavenly reward; and

WHEREAS, we should pause in deep meditation and reverence to express our love and appreciation for the sacrifices, privations, sufferings and devotion of all Mothers; and
