VETOED BILL OF 1961 REGULAR SESSION

Senate Bill No. 669 (1961 Regular Session)

"AN ACT DIRECTING THAT TAXES ON GASOLINE AND LIKE PRODUCTS, ACCRUING UNDER SECTION 208.44, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO ANY COUNTY IN THE STATE WITH A POPULATION OF NOT LESS THAN THIRTY-SEVEN THOUSAND (37,000) AND NOT MORE THAN THIRTY-NINE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED (39,900), ACCORDING TO THE LATEST OFFICIAL DECENNIAL CENSUS, BE DISTRIBUTED TO CERTAIN FUNDS OF THE COUNTY."

Was taken up in its order and read by title together with the following objections thereto of the Honorable Farris Bryant, Governor of Florida:

STATE OF FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
TALLAHASSEE

June 16, 1961

Honorable Tom Adams
Secretary of State
The Capitol
Tallahassee, Florida

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority vested in me as Governor of Florida, under the provisions of Section 28, Article III, of the Constitution of this State, I hereby transmit to you, with my objections, Senate Bill 669, enacted by the Legislature of 1961, and entitled:

AN ACT DIRECTING THAT TAXES ON GASOLINE AND LIKE PRODUCTS, ACCRUING UNDER SECTION 208.44, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO ANY COUNTY IN THE STATE WITH A POPULATION OF NOT LESS THAN THIRTY-SEVEN THOUSAND (37,000) AND NOT MORE THAN THIRTY-NINE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED (39,900), ACCORDING TO THE LATEST OFFICIAL DECENNIAL CENSUS, BE DISTRIBUTED TO CERTAIN FUNDS OF THE COUNTY."

Senate Bill 669 is a population act applicable only to St. Lucie County based upon the latest official census. It authorizes the entire use of the seventh cent gas tax funds by the affected county and, in effect, modifies the provisions of Section 208.44, Florida Statutes.

The seventh cent gasoline tax is a state tax imposed upon motorists who purchase gasoline in the State of Florida. The legislature by general act has determined that this gasoline tax should be used for state purposes, namely, the construction and maintenance of state roads. It has further determined by general act that 20% of this fund should be paid directly to the 67 counties for construction and maintenance of roads within the individual counties, under the supervision of the boards of county commissioners, and that the remaining 80% should be distributed to the State Road Department for the construction, reconstruction, maintenance and repair of state roads and bridges within an individual county, acquisition of rights of way or reduction of bonded indebtedness incurred for road and bridge purposes. The general law further provides that the State Road Department shall expend such funds (80% of the seventh cent) solely for such purposes on such roads as shall be designated by appropriate resolution of the board of county commissioners of such counties.

It is my feeling that by general law the legislature clearly spelled out its intent that 80% of the seventh cent should be administered by the State Road Department for the benefit of each individual county. I, therefore, feel that any local act which withdraws the guidance and experience of the State Road Department from the expenditure of these funds, placing the discretion and absolute control of the whole of the seventh cent in the board of county commissioners of a specific county, is not in keeping with the basic theory of state taxation.

Further, I am of the opinion that the allocation of this tax directly to the boards of county commissioners, with no control or supervision by the State Road Department, will result in less road maintenance and construction within a given county and an increase in costs to the county because the counties generally do not have engineering departments and staffs sufficient to oversee the expenditure of large sums of money for road construction purposes. It is my opinion that, in order to carry out the legislative mandate that we have an integrated system of state highways, both primary and secondary, it is inherent that the State Road Department must have some supervision and control over the expenditure of the majority of the gasoline taxes raised by state taxation.

For these reasons, I am necessarily withholding my approval from Senate Bill 669.

Respectfully,
FARRIS BRYANT
Governor

The President put the question, "Shall the Bill pass, the Governor's objections to the contrary notwithstanding?"

Upon the passage of Senate Bill No. 669 (1961 Regular Session) the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—2.
