CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 196

Tallahassee, Florida

May 8, 1963

*Honorable Wilson Carraway
President of the Senate
Tallahassee, Florida*

*Honorable Mallory E. Horne
Speaker, House of Representatives
Tallahassee, Florida*

Sirs:

Your Conference Committee on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on Senate amendments Nos. 6 and 7 to House Bill No. 196, same being:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT RELATING TO MECHANICS' LIEN LAW; REVISING CHAPTER 84, REPEALING SECTIONS 84.01-84.35, AND ADDING SECTIONS 84.011-84.371, ALL FLORIDA STATUTES; PROVIDING EFFECTIVE DATE OCTOBER 1, 1963.

having met, after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses as follows:

1. That the Senate recede from Senate Amendments Nos. 6 and 7 to Section 1, subsections 84.341(2) and 84.341(3), of House Bill No. 196, which amendments read as follows:

Amendment No. 6—

In Section 1, subsection 84.341(3), page 37, strike out the entire subsection as amended and insert in lieu thereof the following:

“(3) Any person, firm, corporation or agent, officer or employee thereof who shall use the proceeds of any payment made to him on account of improving certain real property, for any other purpose than to pay for labor or services performed on or materials furnished for this specific improvement, while any amount for which he may be or become liable for such labor, services, or materials remains unpaid shall be presumed guilty of embezzlement and shall be prosecuted with the provisions of the laws of this state.”

Amendment No. 7—

In Section 1, subsection 84.341(2), page 37, strike out the entire subsection as amended and insert in lieu thereof the following:

(2) Any person, firm, corporation or agent, officer or employee thereof who procures a loan secured by mortgage or other encumbrance on real property, representing that the net proceeds thereof are to be used for the purpose of improving such real property and who shall use the net proceeds, as defined in subsection (1) of this section, or any part thereof for any other purpose than to pay for labor or services performed on, or material furnished for, this specific improvement, while any amount for which he may be or become liable for such labor, services, or materials remains unpaid or while any amount of which he has received notice of nonpayment prescribed by this chapter remains unpaid, shall be presumed guilty of embezzlement and shall be prosecuted and, upon conviction, punished in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state.

2. That the Senate and the House of Representatives adopted the Conference Committee amendments attached hereto, and by reference made a part of this report:
3. That the Senate and the House of Representatives pass House Bill No. 196 as further amended by the said Conference Committee amendment.

 the House of Representatives

Senator Hollahan moved the adoption of the Conference Committee Report.

Which was agreed to and the Conference Committee Report was adopted.

Pursuant to the Conference Committee Report, Senator Hollahan moved that the Senate recede from Senate Amendment No. 6 to House Bill No. 196, as set forth in the foregoing Report.

Which was agreed to and the Senate receded from Senate Amendment No. 6 to House Bill No. 196.

Senator Hollahan moved that the Senate recede from Senate Amendment No. 7 to House Bill No. 196, as set forth in the foregoing Report.

Which was agreed to and the Senate receded from Senate Amendment No. 7 to House Bill No. 196.

Further pursuant thereto, Senator Hollahan moved the adoption of the following Conference Committee Amendment to House Bill No. 196:

In Section 1, Sub-section 84.341(2), page 37, strike out: the entire subsection as amended and insert the following in lieu thereof:

(2) Any person, firm, corporation or agent, officer or employee thereof who procures a loan secured by mortgage or other encumbrance on real property, representing that the net proceeds thereof are to be used for the purpose of improving such real property and who, with intent to defraud, shall use the net proceeds, as defined in subsection (1) of this section, or any part thereof for any other purpose than to pay for labor or services performed on, or material furnished for, this specific improvement, while any amount for which he may be or become liable for such labor, services, or materials remains unpaid or while any amount of which he has received notice of non-payment prescribed by this chapter remains unpaid, shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be prosecuted and, upon conviction, punished in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state; provided, however, that failure to pay for such labor, services or materials furnished for this specific improvement after receipt of such loan shall constitute prima facie evidence of intent to defraud.

Which was agreed to and the Conference Committee Amendment was adopted by a viva voce vote, with Senator Friday voting "Nay".

Senator Hollahan also moved the adoption of the following Conference Committee Amendment to House Bill No. 196:

In Section 1, Sub-section 84.341(3), page 37, strike out: the entire subsection as amended and insert the following in lieu thereof:

(3) Any person, firm, corporation or agent, officer or employee thereof, who with intent to defraud, shall use the proceeds of any payment made to him on account of improving certain real property, for any other purpose than to pay for labor or services performed on or materials furnished for this specific improvement, while any amount for which he may be or become liable for such labor, services, or materials remains unpaid shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be prosecuted and, upon conviction, punished in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state; provided, however, that failure to pay for such labor, services or materials furnished for this specific improvement after receipt of such proceeds shall constitute prima facie evidence of intent to defraud.

Which was agreed to and the Conference Committee Amendment was adopted by a viva voce vote, with Senator Friday voting "Nay".

Senator Hollahan moved that House Bill No. 196, as further amended, be read in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to and House Bill No. 196, as further amended, was read in full.

Upon call of the roll on the passage of House Bill No. 196, as further amended, the vote was:
