40. A quorum present.

Excused: Senators Bronson, Cleveland, Pope, Price.

Prayer by The Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who by thy divine grace and love sent Jesus Christ to die on Calvary's cross for us, we bow in thy presence now. We thank thee for the example of the triumphal entry on that notable Palm Sunday. As we come to the close of this week of labor and turn our faces toward home and church, may we all be conscious of our obligation to thee and thy kingdom; protect us on the highways and in the air and accept us, thy children, as we learn thy word and worship and adore thee in our hearts and churches on this next Lord's day. This we ask in Jesus' Name and for his sake. Amen.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.
