44. A quorum present.

Prayer by the Reverend L. B. Thomason, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Gretna, Florida:

Our Father, we pray that thou wilt help us this day to be reasonable in all things. Forgive us when we are hasty and speak without thinking first. Help us this day to love thee supremely, stand for thee courageously, and live for thee nobly. In the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Pursuant to the provisions of Senate Rule 63, Senator Johns addressed the Senate as follows:

This is a great day for this august body and the people of Tallahassee. I say it is a great day, Mr. President and Senators, because we have in the Senate Chamber today some of the finest people on earth. They are my constituents. I want to ask you to withhold your applause until I finish introducing these very fine distinguished citizens from my senatorial district.

Mr. President and Senators, these most delicious strawberries which have been placed on your desks are known as the sweetest, most delicious strawberries this side of heaven. They were grown in Bradford County.

This is Strawberry Day in the state capital, Tallahassee. They had Strawberry Day about three weeks ago in our national capital, Washington, D. C. Our group has never been more graciously received than we were by those Congressmen on Capitol Hill in Washington.

Mr. President and Senators, first I want to introduce to this group Mr. Peter J. Novak who is Director of the Starke-Bradford County Chamber of Commerce, and one of the hardest working directors in the entire United States. He is doing a fine job. Next, is Mr. Phillip Cronkhite who is our very able Manager of the Starke-Bradford County Farmers Market. He has been with us about a year now and is doing a wonderful job for the farmers of our district. The next, is Honorable Theron A. Yawn, Jr., our very able, aggressive and competent County Judge and who is President of the State County Judges Association. Next, is Mr. Foster Shi Smith, a very prominent citizen of Bradford County. He is prominent in agriculture, livestock and education. He was principal of the Bradford County High School for a number of years. I might say that he is so public spirited if, in the wisdom of the Legislature, we go into a program of vocational-technical schools at this session, he has donated fifty acres on Road 301 for a vocational-technical school in Bradford County, a site known to be worth about $25,000. I want to introduce his very beautiful and gracious wife, Mrs. Foster Shi Smith. Next, the gorgeous and gracious mother of our honor guest, and the wife of one of our prominent physicians and surgeons of Starke, Mrs. H. H. Adams. Now, I would be amiss if I didn't introduce my helpmate over the past thirty-seven years, my wife, Ted Johns.

The respective guests on being invited to stand were recognized by applause of the Senate.

Now, Mr. President and Senators, comes the honored guest. I was present the night she was chosen queen to reign over all America as the national Strawberry Queen. I don't remember how many applicants we had that night. We had fifteen or twenty of the most beautiful girls in the entire state and nation.

She has traveled far and wide since she has been our national Strawberry Queen. She has met with the great and near great. She has reigned humbly and graciously. She has reigned with a great deal of humility. I am not going into this too much, but this gives me a great deal of pleasure and I will say this is one of the greatest honors ever bestowed upon me, the privilege of introducing this queen as the national Strawberry Queen—the beautiful, gorgeous, vivacious Miss Jane Adams of Starke, Florida.

Mr. President, I move you, sir, that a committee be appointed to escort Miss Jane Adams to the rostrum of the Senate so that she may present a flat of strawberries to the President of the Senate. The President appointed Senators Johns, Roberts and Barber, who escorted Miss Jane Adams to the rostrum where she received a standing ovation.

On motion of Senator Johnson (6th), the foregoing address by Senator Johns was spread in full upon the Journal.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

SCR 150—A concurrent resolution directing the legislative council to make a study of the construction industry and to make recommendations for coordinating the activities of the various segments of the construction industry; authorizing the establishment of a select committee and appointment of members; authorizing the establishment of advisory committees; requiring a report be made to the 1967 legislature; providing for the payment of expenses of committee members.

WHEREAS, the construction industry annually represents a two billion dollar segment of the Florida economy, establishing it with agri-business and tourism as one of the state's largest and most important economic influences, and

WHEREAS, many other businesses and professions are directly affected, economically and socially, by the impact of construction on the everyday life of Florida's citizens and visitors, and

WHEREAS, the physical safety, the human environment, and the real estate investment security of all residents of the state are directly affected by the quality of the construction industry's product, and

WHEREAS, the explosive growth of the state continually imposes a threat to the orderly growth and healthful, physical and economic development of the state, which development is inextricably dependent upon a well organized and coordinated construction industry composed of such allied groups as mortgage bankers, insurance underwriters, design professions, general contractors, specialty contractors, heavy construction contractors, materials manufacturers and distributors, home builders, building and zoning officials, sanitation and health regulatory agencies, and others similarly necessary to an organized effort, and

WHEREAS, since the earliest times in the state's history, the promotion and development of agriculture and its allied businesses, as well as the orderly development of tourism into an important economic factor has evolved from continuing study and attention of the Florida legislature,

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

Section 1. The Legislative Council is directed to make a comprehensive study of the construction industry and to recommend measures to be taken to further the best interests of building owners and the general public through the coordination of the activities of the various segments of the construction industry.

Section 2. The Legislative Council is authorized and directed to establish a select committee pursuant to section 11.21(3), Florida Statutes, to conduct the study authorized by this resolution; provided, however, that the limitation on the number of noncouncil members as specified in the above section shall not apply, and said committee shall have the authority to appoint an advisory committee to assist in this study as provided by section 11.285, Florida Statutes.

Section 3. The expenses of the members of the select committee shall be paid as provided by law.

Section 4. A report of the findings of this comprehensive study shall be made to the 1967 session of the legislature.

SCR 156—A concurrent resolution expressing deep sympathy and regret over the passing of William V. Knott and paying tribute to his memory.

WHEREAS, the Honorable William V. Knott passed away on April 3, 1965, at the age of 101, and

WHEREAS, William V. Knott lived longer than any other major figure in Florida politics, devoting his life to the government of Florida, and

WHEREAS, few persons have held more offices of importance than William V. Knott, who served as state auditor, state comptroller, state treasurer, superintendent of the State Hospital and Democratic nominee for Governor, and

WHEREAS, William V. Knott was one of the most colorful and historical figures in Florida history, having greatly contributed to the progress and history of this state, and

WHEREAS, his significant acts and deeds have left an imprint upon Florida government which will live on in Florida history as a permanent monument to this great and noble man, and

WHEREAS, the members of the Legislature desire to pay homage to this fine gentleman, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That on behalf of the people of the State of Florida this legislature does pause to pay tribute to the memory of William V. Knott for his long life of dedicated service to the State of Florida and does by this resolution express to the family of William V. Knott its deep and earnest sense of regret for this great loss.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be delivered to the family of William V. Knott and that copies be spread upon the journals of the House and Senate and made a permanent part of the record of this Legislature.

Was read the first time in full. On motion of Senator Carraway, the rules were waived by two-thirds vote and SCR 156 was read the second time in full and unanimously adopted. The vote was: Yeas—44. Nays—None.
