Dear Heavenly Father, we thank thee for this opportunity to be here. Make us thankful for the ability to work, and for individual occupations. As we think of ourselves may we not forget those who aided in placing us at our individual stations of employment and service, and ask thy blessings on all who assist us along the narrow way.

Thank you Father for the untiring faithfulness of these Senators, and their aides who are not only servants of the people and their government, but servants of thine. Grant we pray that out of these days of labor will come the ultimate results for the good of all, and especially thy kingdom. For Christ's sake. Amen.
